Four of the Six Members of This Committee Directors of Steel Combine—Other Interesting Exhibits.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Government attorneys presented today at the taking of testimony in the government's anti-trust suit against the International Harvester company what was purported to be an original agreement by which George W. Perkins, Cyrus H. McCormick and Charles Deering formed a "voting trust" which placed them in absolute control of the $140,000,000 corporation.

The agreement, dated August 12, 1902, was for ten years and expired a few weeks ago. It was introduced by the government to show that these three men had turned over to them all the stock so they had the sole voting power of the corporation.

Another exhibit purported to show that Mr. Perkins was chairman of that corporation's finance committee, and that of the six members of that committee four were directors in the steel corporation and members of the steel corporation's finance committee, as follows:

E. H. Gary, Norman B. Ream, George F. Baker and Mr. Perkins.

Another exhibit was that Mr. Perkins, Cyrus H. McCormick and Charles Deering held all the stock of the International Harvester company of America, the selling company of the International Harvester company of New Jersey.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Harry Nolan, a newly appointed secretary to the United States legation at Panama, who was arrested recently on a charge of abducting a Scotch girl named Marion McVickar, the daughter of an importer of Glasgow, was discharged today by Magistrate Murphy on a motion of Prosecutor Reynolds, who stated that he was unable to procure the evidence necessary for a conviction.

The charge rested largely on the age of Miss McVickar, first given as 16 years, but later it was learned from her brother that she was 18 years old.

A technical charge of vagrancy against Miss McVickar will be dismissed and she will sail on Saturday.

Opening of Hungarian Parliament Marked by Riotous Scenes

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Sept. 17.—The opening session of the Hungarian parliament today was marked by a wild outburst of factional feeling which only was prevented from becoming a free fight through the intervention of party leaders.

The uproar began as soon as Count Stephen Tisza, the president of the lower house, entered the chamber. He was received with cries of derision and abuse, mingled with hissing and whistling. The president treated the opposition outbursts with indifference, but all his efforts to restore order were unavailing. His calls for attention only caused the disorder to break out with renewed violence. Not a word could be heard in the chamber or in the press gallery above the organized din.

The royal decree opening the session was read without anybody hearing a word of it and it was followed by what looked like to develop into a free fight.

An opposition member tauntingly asked whether he had his revolver with him. This raised feelings to fever heat and the members were on the point of coming to blows when Count Julius Andrássy and other leaders intervened and separated the deputies who had threatened each other. The tumult, however, continued.

Only a few spectators were in the chamber and neither police nor military appeared, although disorder had been anticipated.

Stormy scenes were witnessed in the Hungarian parliament during its closing sittings in June last which culminated in an attempt being made to assassinate Count Tisza. The president of the chamber was shot at three times by an opposition deputy, Julius Kovacs, who then fired two bullets into his own body, wounding himself seriously. The count escaped unharmed.

Count Tisza was elected speaker on May 22 last. He is an opponent of universal suffrage and on this issue his election was contested with a bitterness that resulted in violence in the chamber and in bloodshed on the streets.

Another exhibit purported to show that Mr. Perkins was chairman of that corporation's finance committee, and that of the six members of that committee four were directors in the steel corporation and members of the steel corporation's finance committee, as follows:

E. H. Gary, Norman B. Ream, George F. Baker and Mr. Perkins.

Another exhibit was that Mr. Perkins, Cyrus H. McCormick and Charles Deering held all the stock of the International Harvester company of America, the selling company of the International Harvester company of New Jersey.

Masked Men Take Registered Mail from the Memphis Special

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 17.—Two masked men held up the "Memphis Special" west bound on the Southern railway today near Stevenson, Ala. The mail car was looted, but the value of the robbers' booty is unknown.

The men boarded the train at Stevenson, entered the mail car and covered the four clerks with pistols. Three of the clerks were bound, the fourth being ordered to open all sacks of registered mail, from which the robbers filled a bag with packages supposed to contain valuables.

After the car had been thoroughly ransacked the fourth clerk also was bound, the robbers pulling the emergency cord, stopping the train in a thick wood, and escaped.

Snow Covers Ground in the Black Hills

Weather reports sent into the railroads indicate that the only thing that saved the northwestern portion of the state from a killing frost last night was the rain and cloudy weather. Up in the Black Hills country and to the north and west, there was snow enough to cover the ground. In some places temperatures got down to the frost point, but a stiff breeze and the heavy weather is said to have saved the corn and vegetables.

Out on the west end of the Burlington's Alliance division, over in Wyoming and on the Northwestern's line to Lander, the temperature got as low as 25 degrees above zero.

All over the west it was much warmer yesterday and when the agents sent in their reports at 7 o'clock in the morning temperatures ranged from 40 to 65 above, with bright sunshine everywhere.

WARNING TO REBELS OF CENTRAL AMERICA

Policy of America Indicated in Note Made Public by Acting Secretary of State.

ADDRESSED TO NICARAGUANS

Expected to Create Dep Sensation in Latin America.

WILL SUPPORT GOVERNMENTS

Purpose is to Foster Constitutions and Free Elections.

TO USE FORCE IF NECESSARY

Maintenance of Communications with Countries and Protection of America Legations Will Be Watched Closely.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The policy of the United States in its relations with its revolution-torn little neighbors in Central America and the West Indies is clearly defined in instructions from the State department embodied in a note sent by Minister Weitzel to the Nicaraguan government, the text of which was made public today by acting Secretary of State Huntington Wilson. The communication is expected to create a profound sensation in Latin America, for while it was addressed to Nicaragua, it will be recognized as a general warning.

America's purpose, the instruction declares, is to foster true constitutional government and free elections and to this end strong moral support will be given to established governments against revolutions based upon the selfish designs of would-be despots and not upon any principle or popular demand. Force will be used if necessary, in maintaining free communications with these countries and to protect American ministries and legations. This policy already has been adopted in San Domingo, Panama and Honduras.

Minister Weitzel was directed to present his instruction officially to the Nicaraguan government and unofficially to the revolutionists in that country and make it public as an authorized declaration of policy.

Alderman Curran Sues Mayor Gaynor for Alleged Libel

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Mayor Gaynor was served today with a summons in a $100,000 libel suit brought against him by Alderman Curran, chairman of the aldermanic committee investigating graft in the police department. Curran alleges that the mayor made remarks derogatory to his character in connection with the investigation.

A summary of what purports to be the "$15,000 affidavit" which Police Commissioner Waldo referred to the other day before the aldermanic committee was made public today.

The summary of the affidavit asserts that John T. Reith, a police lieutenant, swears he was informed by an under sheriff that "the people having the power" to promote him wanted $15,000 for doing it, and that when he refused to pay it he was passed and not promoted.

Des Moines Union Would Aid Allen

DES MOINES, Sept. 17.—A proposition that the International Carpenters' union in convention at Washington, D. C., extend aid to Sina Allen, Virginia mountaineer captured here last Saturday, in connection with the Hillsville court house murders, will be brought before the convention tomorrow by representatives of the Des Moines union, according to an announcement today.

Members of the local organization say that Allen was as much entitled to consideration as any other member. He joined the Des Moines local July 2, under the name of Tom Sayres.

"Allen is a member in good standing," said President J. C. Walker of the union today. "He paid his dues promptly and was square in all his dealings. He was an industrious, honest workman and we are not going to see him ill-treated. Not many of our members believe Allen was capable of shooting up the Hillsville court house."

First Test of New York Primary Law

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 17.—The first test of the new direct primary law will come today when enrolled voters throughout the state will be given an opportunity to vote on the various candidates designated for nomination by party committees and for delegates to the coming state conventions. Under the new law the progressive party cannot participate, but must file nomination petitions with the secretary of state on or before October 11.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY CONTROLS PIPE LINE

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Officers and employees of the Standard Oil company are still in control of the Buckeye Pipe Line company, a former subsidiary of the Standard company, according to D. S. Bushnell, the Buckeye's president, who testified today before a referee in the Standard Oil-Waters-Pierce litigation.

Mr. Bushnell repeated today his testimony that he had been elected president of the Buckeye, Northern & Indiana Pipe Line companies and the New York Transit company in December, 1911, immediately after the dissolution decree against the Standard became effective. The elections, he said, were held within an hour at the headquarters of the Standard.

WILSON VISITS SIOUX CITY

Democratic Candidate Makes Address at Tri-State Fair.

Earlier in the Day He Speaks to the Students of Morningside College and Holds a Public Reception.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Sept. 17.—Governor Woodrow Wilson became a "good Indian" today, with the proviso, however, that he was not as a consequence "a dead Indian."

The democratic candidate was made a member of the Tribe of the Sioux, a municipal organization, and was presented with a diamond pin and publicly initiated before a crowd that thronged the Auditorium here.

While the crowd cheered the governor took the following pledge set before him by the Tribe of the Sioux:

"On the sacred tomahawk and pipe I solemnly and sincerely promise and vow that henceforth and forever I shall endeavor to be a 'good Indian,' whether successful or unsuccessful in the quest of moose or any other game, and that no matter how exalted my station in life I shall neglect no opportunity to contribute to the welfare of the Tribe of the Sioux."

The governor made a brief response, declaring that he was embarrassed in accepting the pledge only in that he wished to waive the adage that "the only good Indian is a dead Indian," both with reference to himself and his fellow braves in Sioux City.

Addresses students before the students of Morningside college. He argued that student life was not taken seriously enough in this country as compared with Europe, but that he hoped that students everywhere would begin to interest themselves more with the problems of the nation and take part in the formation of public opinion.

The nominee was cheered throughout his visit. After luncheon Governor Wilson motored to the fair grounds, where he delivered his principal address of the day.

Though it had rained continuously for a week, sunshine spread a balmy atmosphere around, and Governor Wilson began the day refreshed by cool, bracing air from the tiresome ride of the last two days.

Anticipating the stops at many points early today, the governor ate breakfast ahead of time and greeted groups of people as they came to the rear of the car. He talked to the farmers about the bumper crops and said he was glad to be in Iowa again, which he had not visited since the primary campaign.

Governor Wilson selected for his speech at the fair grounds the pure food laws and questions concerning their enforcement which, he said, the other two parties were incapable of accomplishing.

Democrats Want Pennsylvania. NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—After a canvass of the political situation in Pennsylvania the democratic national committee today announced that it intended to make every effort to capture the state. Among the speakers assigned to Pennsylvania were Governor Marshall, ex-Governor Folk of Missouri and Louis D. Brandeis of Boston. The speakers will begin their tours of Pennsylvania next week.

The democratic national committee today took up the New Jersey senatorial matter, in which Governor Wilson is specially interested. By mutual agreement Judge Weesock and W. M. Hughes, who resigned from congress to stand for the senatorial nomination, will abide by the decision of the national committee, and one or the other will withdraw. This will leave a single Wilson candidate in the field against former Senator James Smith, who is seeking the nomination.

Allegation that All Nominations in South Dakota Are Illegal

PIERRE, S. D., Sept. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The first case on call in the supreme court today was that in which it is sought to place the name of R. P. Stewart on the democratic ticket as a candidate for supreme court judge for the First district, in which the principal contention of the plaintiff is that the party right to govern itself remains unless there is a specific legislative prohibition, which is disputed by the state.

In the case of Gray against the candidates for elector who are declared not to be republicans and with no right on the ballot, one of the main contentions means political chaos if sustained. It contended that the Richards primary law enacted by the means of the initiative contains an emergency provision and that the law has been in effect ever since its enactment, that there was no legal nomination under the old law in June and that the only manner to legally get names on the ballot this fall is by petition, which would mean the complete elimination of party candidates, and put all on the same footing as independent regardless of party affiliation and further that the right of the use of the name of republican is a property right to that party and may not be used by the followers of another party.

The state presents its case by demurring to all contentions this afternoon.

Disabled Hydroplane is Picked Up by Tugs

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Tugs were dispatched this afternoon to search Lake Michigan for A. J. Engle of Cleveland, O., who started on a hydroplane flight from Clarendon Beach to the aviation meet in Grant Park. Rescuing parties were sent out after he had been missing two hours.

Life savers rescued Engle after he had floated helplessly for more than two hours on Lake Michigan with a disabled engine. He was picked up two miles off shore.

Street Car Service Resumed at Duluth

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 17.—Street car service was near normal this morning. Last night public ownership of the car lines was advocated by the Duluth city council, and the attorney for that body was told to go ahead with a scheme to take over the property. General Manager Warren said today that the backbone of the strike was broken. Union leaders deny this.

Kellar Chosen Grand Sire by Odd Fellows

FRENCH AERONAUT MAKES NEW ALTITUDE RECORD

VILLA COUBLAY, France, Sept. 17.—Georges Legagneux, a French aeronaut, established a new world's record for altitude here today, his machine attaining a height of 5,000 meters (16,400 feet). The previous holder of the world's altitude record was Roland G. Garros, who on September 6 ascended in a monoplane at Houlogate, France, and reached a height of 15,240 feet.

ROOSEVELT MAKES PROMISES

Will Call Special Session of Congress if Elected.

HUMAN WELFARE MAIN ISSUE

He Will Ask Congress to Apply His Theories to Government Employees, Federal Territory and Interstate Commerce.

TUCSON, Ariz., Sept. 17.—Ex-President Roosevelt turned eastward today after his long tour through the northwest and down the Pacific coast. He spent the day in Arizona and was scheduled to make three speeches before starting for New Mexico. His first stop was in Tucson, which was put on his itinerary at the last moment. Colonel Roosevelt made the trip from Los Angeles by special train to save enough time to enable him to speak here and fill his engagements at Maricopa and Phoenix later in the day. From Phoenix Colonel Roosevelt goes to New Mexico for a day, then strikes northward to Denver. Thence he will go through the south.

If Colonel Roosevelt is elected president, he said in a speech here today, he will call a special session of congress immediately after his inauguration is put into effect, so far as can be done by congress, the progressive party's program for social and industrial legislation. The program includes a minimum wage scale for women, a "living" wage, prohibition of child labor, regulation of hours of labor and other measures.

"I am most interested," he said, "in the plank dealing with human welfare. I believe that the issues raised are the great issues of this campaign, which neither of the old parties is facing squarely. The progressive party, if it is put into power, will carry out every promise which it has made in its platform."

"If I am elected president, I shall call a special session of congress immediately to take up these matters."

"I would have congress take up three things: "First is the application of our program to employees of the government. Next is its application to the District of Columbia and Alaska. In third place, we would apply it to interstate commerce as far as we would be possible."

In the District of Columbia, Colonel Roosevelt said he would put into effect laws which would make the city of Washington a model. A great deal of money had been spent, he said, in building boulevards and public adornments in the city and he thought that some of this money should go to the improvement of the condition of the poor.

MOORE MUST ANSWER CHARGES INVOLVING SHAW

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 17.—Judge R. B. Albertson of the King county superior court has decided that he has jurisdiction in the suit brought by James A. Moore, promoter of the Western Steel corporation, against the Metropolitan Trust company of New York. He denied last night the motion of Moore's attorney to remand the case to the Jefferson county court, where the suit first was brought.

The court gave Moore ten days to answer the affidavit filed by the trust company Saturday in which Moore is charged with securing the services of Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, to obtain a loan of $600,000 from the Metropolitan Trust company.

BULL MOOSE TICKET STILL CAUSES MUCH DEBATE AT LINCOLN

Morrissey's Objections Set the Third Termers to Examining Their List of Signers.

WILLIAMS' NAME IS CHALLENGED

Says He Didn't Sign and Governor Says He Did.

HEARING BEFORE WAIT TODAY

Secretary of State Will Listen to the Formal Protest.

PLAYING NO FAVORITES NOW

Corrick Levis Assessments on Candidates, Regulars and "Progressives" with an Even Hand for the Coon.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 17.—(Special.)—The controversy over the right of the bull moose party to appear on the ballot has developed into an interesting condition. The protest filed with the secretary of state yesterday by A. M. Morrissey, democratic candidate for attorney general, among other things set forth that the names appearing on the petition showing that the state convention contained sufficient delegates to come within the law, were secured from men who did not attend the convention and in some cases were coerced into signing because they were afraid of losing their jobs.

On Sunday morning there appeared in a local democratic paper a statement that Superintendent Williams of the state insane asylum, whose name appeared on the petition, claimed that he was a democrat and did not sign the petition. Yesterday the same paper published a statement that Superintendent Williams still stuck to his original statement, claiming that the signature of Williams was written in backhand, a form not used by the superintendent in signing his name, but that it was evidently done so that it would not appear in the same style of writing as that of the man who signed the name.

Governor Becomes Angry. Later when the matter was called to the attention of Governor Aldrich he very vehemently asserted that he was a democrat and did not sign the petition. Yesterday the same paper published a statement that the signature of Williams was written in backhand, a form not used by the superintendent in signing his name, but that it was evidently done so that it would not appear in the same style of writing as that of the man who signed the name.

However, the paper claims to have received no letter from Mr. Williams regarding the matter. When the thing was put up to Private Secretary Fuller of the governor's office, who circulated the petition at the asylum, he said: "You can say that I told the reporter it was none of his d-d business."

This morning a representative of the paper, Mr. Wolf, went to the office of the secretary of state with a photograph for the purpose of taking a photograph of that page of the petition having the names of the asylum employes thereon, and after sticking the paper on the wall he was admonished by Secretary of State Wait that no picture could be taken of the petition, and the same was taken from him. He told the secretary that he desired to publish the picture so that the public could judge for themselves as to the signatures, but Secretary Wait contended that any publication of the matter before the hearing would prejudice the public and that in the interests of a square deal for everybody it would be best to have as little publicity as possible. Mr. Wolf then called upon the attorney general and was advised that it would be best to have no picture taken and the matter was dropped.

In talking with a couple of newspapermen later, Mr. Fuller stated that he saw Mr. Williams write his name on the petition.

Protest Hearing Today. It is evident that considerable work is being done tomorrow, when the matter comes before Secretary Wait for hearing at 10 o'clock in the afternoon. Soon after the controversy between Mr. Wolf and Mr. Wait over the taking of the picture of the office of the secretary of state was visited by C. C. Flansburg, Attorney Clements and one or two other prominent bull moose attorneys and the petition was very carefully gone over. It is understood that the above named attorney with Judge Root, will appear for the bull moose party, when the matter comes up tomorrow.

Reneau Offered Place. I. A. Reneau of Broken Bow was in conference with Chairman Epperson, of the bull moose republican state committee this afternoon. Mr. Reneau has been offered the secretaryship of the committee, but as yet has not decided on accepting.

Moosers After the Cash. That the bull moose campaign managers are playing no favorites as between Taft and Roosevelt candidates for state officers on their ticket is made plain by the notice of assessment they have served upon the gentlemen who are
