(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—The Lincoln Commercial club took up the matter today of planning ways for Lincoln people to get to Omaha during the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

The Nebraska supreme court opened this morning and took up a few minor matters listening to motions for new trials, dissolving of injunctions, etc.

That Daniel Chester French, the sculptor who made the Lincoln statue recently dedicated on the state house grounds, is greatly satisfied with his work is evidenced by the following letter received by Secretary Wait:

May I take this occasion to express to you my appreciation of your courtesy to me all through this matter of the erection of the Lincoln monument.

The Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company, which controls nine different corporations, has paid its annual occupation tax to the secretary of state, amounting to $985.

Employees' Company Appeals.

Petitions from Sixth.

The bull moose petition and certificate of the formation of the new party in the Sixth congressional district were filed with the secretary of state this afternoon.

Blair Business Man and Wife Disappear

BLAIR, Neb., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—Early last spring Tona Minardi of Omaha bought out a fruit and candy store that was being run by another Omaha party here.

On the ground this afternoon for the opening practice are Captain Frank, Har-
