BRITONS WANT PROTECTION

Automobile Manufacturers Plan to Repel American Invasion.

LEAGUE RAISING HUGE FUND

Wages Less Than Half Those Paid American Workmen—Formation of Trust is Considered.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Twenty leading motor manufacturers discussed a campaign to oppose the American invasion at a luncheon given today by the editor of the Daily Mail, which is promoting a movement against American automobiles.

The formation of a big British corporation or the combination of existing companies and the establishment of a protective tariff were plans proposed.

All agreed that British factories should supply the home market with low-priced machines, many thousands of which now come to England from America.

A letter sent by the duke of Westminster, read at the luncheon, disclosed the fact that the Imperial Preference league is raising a fund of $2,500,000 to be used in preparing propaganda in favor of an imperial tariff and an imperial preference scheme which would give some of the colonial market to British manufacturers.

A difference of opinion prevailed regarding the quality of American low-priced cars. S. F. Edge, contended that the British stopped an invasion of American bicycles and boats by producing better articles, but that American cars were in a different class.

Lord Montague of Beaulieu and other speakers combated the inference made by one or two makers that American cars were flimsy affairs. One manufacturer said that cheap American cars initiated into motoring many persons who afterwards bought high-grade English machines.

Another manufacturer said that the wages received by American workmen were more than twice the compensation paid to English employes, while Italians were paid about half as much.

North Nebraska Conference Begins

MADISON, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—The thirty-first session of the north Nebraska annual conference opened this morning when Bishop F. M. Stratol administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Rev. W. A. Rominger was re-elected secretary; Rev. Arthur Atack, treasurer, and Rev. H. G. Langley, treasurer.

Rev. George H. Main, superintendent of the Grand Island district, read his final report. Having served for six years, his term of office expires at the close of the report. Dr. S. D. Bartie, in behalf of the preachers and members of the Grand Island district, presented Dr. Main with an excellent traveling bag.

Dr. Main's acceptance speech Bishop Stratol asked to see the satchel and looking inside found a draft for $125 made to the order of Dr. Main.

Dr. E. T. George, superintendent of the Neligh district; Rev. E. E. Hosman, superintendent of the Norfolk district, and Dr. Edward Hilop, superintendent of the Omaha district, read their reports.

Full reports show a great growth in all lines of church work.

The vote on the subject of unity with the Nebraska and West Nebraska conferences will come before this conference tomorrow. It is expected without a doubt that this conference will concur with the action of the other conferences and unite.

The bishop announced the transfer of Rev. S. D. Bartie to the Nebraska conference and appointed him to David City. He also announced the transfer of Rev. Dr. J. R. Gettys to this conference.

Nebraska Women Seed Specialists

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Nebraska girls connected with the Department of Agriculture are forging to the front, three having gone out from the department in the last few weeks to specialize in state seed investigation bureaus.

Miss Annie Maude Lute of Paxton was the last of the trio to leave Washington for positions in seed laboratories of western states. Miss Lute, who has been in Washington since July, left tonight for a few days visit with her family in Nebraska en route to Berkeley, Cal., where she becomes scientific assistant in the seed laboratory of the university.

Miss Louise Allen of Lincoln is assistant analyst for the state of Washington while Miss Waddell of Aurora holds a like position in the state of Oregon.

President Answers Small Boy's Letter

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 18.—Although President Taft will not attempt to dictate to the New York state republican convention next week, it is probable that he will let leaders in the state know that he would like to see his secretary of war, Henry L. Stimson, made temporary chairman.

The gossip concerning a possible gubernatorial candidate that reached Beverly tonight brought out most prominently the name of Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university.

The president was so touched by one letter he received congratulating him on his birthday that he wrote an autograph letter to its writer, a little boy in Bethlehem.

The boy's letter to the president was as follows:
"My father is dead and my mother said I could write you a birthday letter. I will be 8 years old in October. When I get big I will vote for you. My papa was a republican and I will stay one."

President Taft answered his young well-wisher, expressing the hope that he would grow up to be a good citizen.

Stockton Heth, the new purchasing agent for the county, used to be one of the star performers in the old Omaha Whist club.

It is suggested that Gould Ditch's principal duty as "fly cop" will be to keep himself from being arrested by the motorcycle cops for fly speeing.

MOOSERS OUSTED FROM COMMITTEE

were over 200 voters at the meeting which organized the party. Wells roused for the statement of Van Meter and said 700 or 800 took part. Manuel set the number at 900 and Bothwell at 1,000.

Rot on the Law.

Judge Root confined himself to the legal points in the controversy and said that the convention was plainly within its rights according to the primary law.

Then closing the case for the contestant, Mr. Morning said that the whole matter hinged and was founded on the ambition of one man. He said he had gone into a convention and had been defeated. He had then attempted to defeat the will of his own party by forming a new party.

"The greatest sorehead politician the country has ever known is Theodore Roosevelt," said Mr. Morning in closing. Secretary of State Watt announced that he would render his decision Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Information from a reliable source tonight is given out that in case Secretary of State Watt decides the Morrisey protest in favor of the bull moose party, that plans have already been perfected by the members of the democratic party to call a state convention, organize a new party, call it the Roosevelt party, and endorse the democratic ticket, national, state, senatorial and congressional.

Campaigning as the candidates of two hostile political parties is not as smooth as it is over a single party road, as witness this provoking reply received by Private Secretary Fuller in answering a letter on behalf of his chief:

TAYLOR, Neb., Sept. 18.—L. B. Fuller, Private Secretary to the Governor—Dear Sir: I have at hand your letter of 12th instant requesting me to arrange a date for the governor to speak at this point.

I am chairman of the republican central committee of this, Loup county, but as such chairman I have nothing to do or say when or where speakers for the moosers or democrats shall speak. I was always opposed to the deceitful methods by the democrats and populists in misleading the voters, even when both parties were agreed to the deceit, and I am much more opposed to such methods between two parties when one of the parties objects to it and an unwilling to be a party to such a transaction.

If the governor believes in the party he is supporting, why does he not say so and get off the republican ticket, and if he is a republican, why does he not support to such methods between two parties that he is unwilling to be a party to that ticket. Truly yours,

A. S. MOON, Chairman Loup County Republican Central Committee.

GERMAN CATHOLIC VEREIN HONORS NEBRASKA MAN

Y., as the meeting place for next year and closed the fifty-seventh annual convention here today by electing Joseph Frey, New York, president; Adolph Suss, St. Louis, recording secretary, and Rev. J. Reussing of Nebraska, member of the legislative committee.

SMOKE ORDINANCE IS LEGAL

District Court at Des Moines Holds It Must Be Obeyed.

CITY ACTS WITHIN ITS RIGHTS

Investigation Will Be Made of Hospital for Insane With Respect to D. W. O'Neill—Group Insurance Severely Criticized.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—In district court today it was held that the city smoke prevention ordinance is legal and must be obeyed. It was adopted under a new state law and was resisted by an organization of business men who have claimed that the enforcement of the law will entail enormous losses to them.

The court decided that the city is specifically empowered by state law to fix the density of smoke, according to established smoke charts. The city has a right to specify length of time dense smoke may issue per hour. The smoke nuisance ordinance is legal in placing a penalty. It is empowered to do so by state law.

Probe into Hospital.

The state board of control has been asked to make an investigation into the treatment which D. W. O'Neill, a Des Moines man and former inspector of plumbing for the school board, received during a week he was confined in the state hospital for the insane at Clarinda.

Mrs. O'Neill took her husband, on the advice of attending physicians, before the board, and as a result they promised that a probe would be instituted. O'Neill, who is now at his home, has been suffering from a severe cut across the top of his head. He says that this is the result of blows administered at the hospital. The hospital attendants, however, claim that it is the result of a fall.

Knock for Group Insurance.

Commercial insurance companies which issue what is known as "group" insurance came in for severe criticism in a resolution presented before the Iowa Fraternal congress, in session at the Savery hotel, by John D. Dennison of Dubuque. The resolution refers to this class of insurance as the "wolf of commercialism in the lamb skin of co-operation" and recommends that companies that issue this form of insurance be prevented from invading the field of the fraternal insurance companies.

Bank at Grand River, Iowa, is Robbed

GRAND RIVER, Ia., Sept. 18.—Bank robbers blew the safe of the First National bank here early today and secured about $1,000, afterward making their escape on a handcar. The robbers are said to number six. Several citizens heard the explosion by which the safe doors were blown off, but there was no interference. A hardware store was broken into and a number of revolvers and a quantity of ammunition stolen.

MILITARY FUNERAL FOR NOGI

Bodies of Count and Wife Laid to Rest at Tokio.

FOREIGN ENVOYS ARE PRESENT

United States is Represented by Ambassador Bryan and Brigadier General John J. Pershing.

TOKIO, Sept. 18.—The double funeral of General Count Maresuke Nogi, supreme military councillor of Japan, and his wife, the Countess Nogi, who committed suicide on the night of September 15, just as the body of the late Emperor Mutsuhito passed out of Tokio City on its way to the imperial tomb at Monoyama, was held today with impressive ceremonies at the Aoyama cemetery, in the presence of enormous crowds.

The funeral cortege left the Nogi residence in Akasaka, a Tokyo suburb, at 5 o'clock this afternoon and passed through the streets of the capital. The body of Japan's great warrior was borne on a sun carriage while the casket containing the body of the countess was carried in a hearse. The pall bearers were chosen from the highest ranks of the Japanese army and navy. One regiment of infantry acted as a guard of honor.

Foreign Envoys Attend.

Representatives of the special foreign envoys who came to attend the funeral of the late Japanese monarch and the resident ambassadors and ministers participated in the procession which altogether numbered upwards of 50,000 persons. Marching behind the coffins were great numbers of relatives of soldiers killed at Port Arthur while serving under General Nogi in the spring of 1904.

The special ambassador of the United States, Philander C. Knox, did not participate in the ceremonies, he being absent at Kioto, where he went to visit the grave in the imperial estate of Monoyama close by, of Emperor Mutsuhito. He was represented, however, by Brigadier General John J. Pershing of the special embassy staff. Mr. Knox sent a magnificent wreath.

Diplomats at Temple.

The ritualistic ceremony at the great funeral hall was extremely impressive and was attended by immense orderly crowds. All the foreign diplomats had seats within the temple. Charles Page Bryan, the resident American ambassador, was attended by Secretary Arthur Balfour, Blanchard and Lieutenant Commander Lyman A. Cotton and Captain Hubert L. Wigmore, respectively, the naval and military attaches of the embassy.

Prince Arthur of Connaught personally laid a floral tribute upon the coffin. Many hundreds of wreaths were received from all parts of the world. Ambassador Bryan sent two sacred trees.

After the Shinto rites had been performed bugle salutes blared forth and a triple volley fired over the grave at five minutes past 5 o'clock rang out, thus bringing to an end the ceremony of laying to rest the bodies of the hero of Port Arthur and his wife.

Make Fire Without Matches and Boil Meat Without Pot

ABERDEEN, S. D., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—Reports from Dupree regarding the attendance of Sioux Indians at the Cheyenne River reservation Indian fair held at that place last week vary. Thomas King, jr., superintendent of the reservation, estimating the attendance at about 5,000.

In order to secure grazing ground for the horses of the Indians coming to the fair, the site of the fair was located three miles from Dupree, and covered a large area of ground. On Monday of the fair a horse sale was held at which many head of horses changed hands at good prices, some of the horses going as high as $10, while the lowest price was $25.

The afternoons and evenings of the fair week were made interesting by old-time Indian dances, largely participated in by the older Indians, more familiar with and more interested in tribal customs than the younger generation. The latter were more interested in the base ball games and similar sports, in which they took active part, and showed marked interest and enthusiasm.

One feature of the gathering that attracted much attention from the whites was an example of aboriginal cookery in which a fire was started without matches, and the boiling accomplished without pot or kettle. A steer which had been brought down by an old Indian with a bow and arrow, was killed. The skin was cleaned partially, and the carcass dressed. Then a rapidly revolving stick pressed upon some partially rotted wood started a flame which was carefully nourished. Stones were heated in the flames and placed in water that had been put in the hide of the steer, and when the water had reached the boiling point by this method, the meat was placed therein and cooked.

The grand parade of the Indians was another feature. It reached from the fair grounds to the town of Dupree, a distance of three miles, and it was a most impressive sight.

HAZING FATAL TO OHIO HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMAN

MIDDLETOWN, O., Sept. 18.—Gordon Kyle, a freshman in the Middletown High school, lies at the point of death at his home at Kyle's Station, as the result of a hazing. It is charged that he was compelled to push a pencil across the floor of the school gymnasium with his nose and while doing so he was urged along by being frequently kicked, with the result that his spine has been seriously injured.

Surely Take "Syrup of Figs" If Headachy, Bilious, Constipated

Sweetens your stomach, clears your head and thoroughly cleanses your liver and 30 feet of bowels of sour bile, foul gases and clogged-up waste.

All those days when you feel miserable, headachy, bilious and dull are due to torpid liver and sluggish bowels. The days when your stomach is sour and full of gas, when you have indigestion; the nights when your nerves twitch and you are restless and can't sleep could be avoided with a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs. Isn't it foolish to be distressed when there is such a pleasant way to overcome it?

Give your inactive liver and ten yards of waste-clogged bowels a thorough cleansing this time. Put an end to constipation.

Take a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs tonight, sure, and just see for yourself by morning, how gently but thoroughly all the sour bile, undigested fermenting food and clogged up waste matter is moved on and out of your system—no medicine—griping—no weakness.

You simply can't have your liver inactive and your thirty feet of bowels constipated with sour, decaying waste matter and feel well. The need of a laxative is a natural need, but with delicious Syrup of Figs you are not drugging yourself. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna, and aromatic it cannot injure.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." Refuse with scorn any of the so-called Fig Syrup imitations. They are meant to deceive you. Look on the label. The genuine, old reliable, bears the name, California Fig Syrup Company.
