There's EVERYTHING in a name. When you pick up a suit bearing upon its label the name: "The Row," "The Poole," "The Savoy," or "The Bristol," you've a "Society Brand" suit of RECENT modeling; of a style so correct that you may match up the suit, line for line and inch for inch, with the garments worn THIS minute by the attire "creators" of America.

The SAME importance may be attached to "Society Brand" OVERCOAT names, such as "Stormfair Jr.," "The Lancaster," "The Kingston," "The Braxton," or "The Sheriden." The names SOUND good, but the garments LOOK better. Now, friend Good Dresser, DON'T let some clothier load you up on a garment that HASN'T the name of some style authority back of it. Shop around HERE and learn to roll those English names at the tip of your tongue. Result-a better dressed man.

pathizers in Trolley Walkout Interrupted by Arrival

SUPERIOR, Wis., Sept. 20.-A mob of 000 strikers and strike sympathizers last night attacked the street cars on the main line in Superior, wrecking six of them and capturing the crews and guards. There was furious fighting and more than thirty persons were injured, none, it is thought, fatally. The police fought desperately and finally rescued he car crews, who were being beaten by the mob. The rioting started when a huge parade of striking carmen and hundreds of sympathizers terminated at a hotel at Belknap and Tower streets. Just as the and stopped playing a car came into view from the east end and stopped at Ogden and Belknap. The sound of shattered glass was the signal for the mob to storm the car.

Everything that could be picked up and thrown was hurled at the conductor, Geneva Marsh Goes motorman and pollcemen in the cars. A hail of stones was followed by a volley of clubs, cans, bottles and pieces of metal. At the first volley every pane of glass in the car was shattered and the police in the car attempted to draw the

The conductor and motorman stood their ground for a time but the steady stream of missiles forced them to crawl under the seats, cut and bleeding. Many Hit by Missiles.

Many in the crowd were hit. One aged woman was struck by a rock and a deep gash was inflicted in her head. Patrolman Arthur Zimmerman stood at his post on the car amid a continuous shower. He was slightly cut by flying glass Patrolman Chris Peterson attempted twice to force the car through the crowd. but was forced back. Finally the big police touring car charged the crowd and drew up alongside. Captain Olson and three officers boarded the car and "kidnaped" the crew. The men were placed in the machine, which was driven hurriedly through the mob.

The spiriting away of the men left the crowd to take possession of the car. At 9'o'clock tonight Sheriff McKinnon was ordered to swear in deputies to preserve order and save human life. The damage done to the property of the street railway company was great, as several cars were shattered by the mob. Every policeman on the force was on duty, and late tonight a semblance of order had been restored, although thousands of men and boys paraded the streets in wild disorder.

THE regular use of Resinol Soap, with an occasional light application of Resinol Ointment, stimulates the skin, permits natural, healthy action, and rids the complexion of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, quickly, easily and at little cost.

New York, July 11, 1912:- "For about four years my face has been affected with pimples and blackheads. My face broke out so badly that I thought I would never get cured. After trying all sorts of remedies which claimed to healmy face, I could not get any good results, so I sent for a sample of Resinol Scap and Ointment, and after giving them a few trials I noticed that my face was getting a little better. So I got a large cake of Resinol Soap and a jar of Resinol Ointment, and after using them for about three weeks they healed my face so that it is clear and smooth again. I still use the Resinol Soap, as it keeps the pores clean and free from dirt." (Signed) Allan Jones, 3221 Third Ave.
