Hodnett-Lenhart Wedding in Johns-

An out-of-town wedding of local interest took place at Johnstown, Pa., Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Emily Katherine Lenhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Lenhart of Omaha, became the bride of Mr. Willliam Jarrell Hodnett, a young business man of Tampa, Fla. The ceremony was performed at the country home of the bride's father, "Oak Lawn," in the Allegheny mountains. The wedding lines ware read by Rev. Ira Miller, rector of the Episcopal church, before an altar of palms and white roses in the drawing room. The bride was charming in an ivory eatin gown. The bodice and sleeves were of rose point and duchess lace. Her long real lace veil was an heirloom in the family, being worn by the bride's grandmother and mother. The veil was held by a spray of orange blossoms sent from the country home of Mr. Hodnett at Punta Gordo, Florida.

The only ornament worn by the bride was a diamond and pearl necklace, gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by Miss Eorantha Lois McGavook of Omaha, who wore a yellow charmeuse gown with trimmings of duchess lace and jewels,
