Brokers Report Changes in Wheat Holding from September Option.

CORN HAVING STRONG SUPPORT

Onts Show Additional Strength as I was Helped by Corn-Offers at no Time Were Under Great Pressure.

OMAHA, Sep. 21, 1912.

Brokers claim that there was very important changing of wheat holdings yesterday from the September option to the later months. Aside from the selling occasioned by this changing there has been little long wheat coming on the market. The trade is without the normal hedging sales. These things count against the short seller who is forced to cover soon after he put out his line. On the other hand, offerings are absorbed on the dips by the commission people with resting to the commission people with resting the commodities.

Part of this buying, of course, is one, end of the changing operations rejected to. Wet weather is reported again over the northwest country on both sides of the line. Tals fact is likely to give firm northwest markets and offset the casier Liverpool cables next week. Cash wheat unchanged to lack higher.

Two of the strongest interests in the trade are lined up on the bull side of corn. They have given the market unsual support for the last few days. It is hard to estimate how much corn they have bought. Messages from all over the petit give no chance for a frost scare so far as can be seen at present. The weather is cool and wet in most quarters. Conditions are not at the best for the maturing of the crop. The absence of the maturing of the crop. The absence of the maturing of the crop. Cold wet weather northwest brought about a mid-season rally in the wheat market. Exporters were unanimous that foreign business was out of the question with even a further break of ic here.

Country elevator holdings of wheat in the Dakotas and Minnesota appeared more than ample to avert a stoppage in the crop movement. Weakness of the corn market acted also as a hindrance to the bull side in wheat. December ranged from 314c to 91%c, closing %c net lower at 91%@31%c.

Abundant pasturage until snowfall was said to have been assured by general rains last night and today. As a result corn prices took the down grade. De-cember closed steady. 4c down at 53%@ Cash grades were in fair demand. Vo. 2 yellow, 74c. Oats displayed more strength than any other grain. The reason lay in the fact that the September shorts were covering in a lively manner, and that shipping demand was good. December sold from $25 to 33c, with the close 4c off at

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.-On a volumne of business uncommonly large for a week-end, today's two-hour session of the stock exchange added very mater-lally to the advance of the preceeding day. The movement was perhaps less day. The movement was perhaps less broad than yesterday's speculation, centering largely around the old time favorities, such as United States Steel which established another high record for the year, Reading and Union Pacific. Lehigh Valley also rose smartly on advices pointing to excellent trade conditions. This was shown not only in the company's August statement, with a net increase of $25,000, but in the unprecedented demand for anthricite coal in the west at higher prices.

Steel was assisted by the higher price for pig iron and certain finished pro-

London Stock Market.

LONDON? Sept. 21.—During the week on the stock exchange, business was generally small, with occasional bursts of activity in the speciaities, making changes irregular, while the undertone remained steady. American securities were a shade more active on good crop and trade reports, and closed firm at advances ranging from 1 to 3 points. Morris & Co...... Swift and Company... of cattle of any consequence, but the total for the week was quite liberal, ai-though showing a falling off as compared with a year ago.
Cornfed cattle were exceptionally scarce all the week and have commanded good, strong prices. Common and inferior cornfeds have shown some meakness, as buyers neglect that kind, preferring good grassers. Range beef cattle have been in good demand throughout the week and show very little change as compared with last week's close.

Cows and helfers were active selers during the first ball of the week but during the first half of the wack, but during the latter part eased off, becoming decidedly duff, with the pretty good kinds a little lower than last week. On the other hand canner and stocker cows con-tinued in good demand throughout the week, with prices about steady.

The market on good feeding steers was

The result was that prices were 10%15c higher and the trade very active at the advance. The bulk of the very light receipts changed hands in such a short time that the flurry was over with simost as soon as it had started, leaving three or four cars still unsold, with four cars reported back to arrive on a late train. After the urgent orders were filled the market flattened out and a good share of the early advance was lost.

The market this week has been the most changeable of any experience in a long time. Shippers who have cut a big figure in the trade for some time back have either been out of the market altogether or have been moderate buyers, with the result that packers were able to deal the market some hard blows. Dry Goods Houses Report Steady Volume of Duplicate Business and Distribution of Cotton Goods is Satisfactory.

NEW YORK, Sept. ZI.-R. G. Dun &

All the developments of the week confirm and strengthen the improvement in business activity.

Each week brings a higher price level in iron and steel, and the resumption of several merchant furnaces that have been idle for two years is expected. Firmness prevails in pig fron, with substantial ad-vances noted in some districts, Pittsburgh reporting sales of Bessemer at Valley production continues on a heavy scale, yet the output is apparently inadequate. Premiums paid for prompt shipments indicate that consumers are in urgent need of material and new busi-ness is pretty evenly distributed. Export business in all lines continues brisk and rails sold for foreign shipment are bring-ing higher prices than home deliveries. Dry goods houses report a steady vol-ume of duplicate business. Fall distribu-tion of cutton goods is much better than iast year.

Conditions in the wool and worsted markets and at the mills are satisfactory.

Trade in siks is steadily improving, both in New England and at nearby points.

The lumber trade is heavier.
