University of Omaha Lines Up Team for Foot Ball Season

Joy and gloom took alternate possession of foot ball, circles at the University of Omaha Monday. Joy first held sway when it was learned that George Parish; quarterback on last year's cleven and captain of the basket ball team, had registered for work and announced his intention of donning the moleskins again this year. Parish is a senior and talked some of staying out this year and completing his course next year.

Almet Soloman, who also won a letter last year, put in his appearance for the first time this semester and will increase the number of veterans to ten. Another new man who has lots of beef is Van Avery. Yesterday was his first appearance on the foot ball field, and though a trifle short on experience, he is a husky lad and handles himself well,

There was a great deal of disappointment when it was definitely learned that Larson, captain-elect of the team, will not return to school this year. Larson In 1911 and his loss will be keenly felt.
