FORD ASKS FOR INJUNCTION

Contractor Would Keep Fanning from Paving Chicago Street.

SAYS HE WAS THE LOW BIDDER

Hearing to Be Had Some Time Next Week on the Application for a Perpetual Injunction Against Fanning.

A temporary order restraining the city from consummating its contract with Charles E. Fanning for paving Chicago street from Twelfth to Thirtieth streets was issued by Judge Sears of the district court at the behest of the M. Ford Paving company, which alleges it should have the contract because it was the lowest and best bidder. Hearing on the Ford company's application for a perpetual injunction against the Fanning contract will be had some day next week.

NEW STATE ATTORNEY FOR THE NORTHWESTERN ROAD

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Friends of Rev. J. M. Bothwell Rejoice Over Appointment.

FOUR YEARS CHURCH PASTOR

Will Preach Over District in Which He Was Ordained—J. B. Erlon in City to Make Brief Visit.

While regretting his removal from the post which he has filled during the last four years, friends and followers of Rev. J. M. Bothwell, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city are rejoicing over his promotion to the superintendency of the Grand Island district. Rev. Mr. Bothwell was elected district superintendent at the conference just held. He has been four years pastor of the South Omaha Methodist church before, which time he occupied the pulpit of the First Memorial church of Omaha. During his stay in the Magic City he has thrown himself into the work of gathering funds for a new church. The plans for the building have been completed and the work will probably start with the opening of spring. Mr. Bothwell leaves his congregation in flourishing condition with funds aggregating $13,000 ready to be expended upon the proposed new building.

Wild West Cowboys Have Expensive Time

Frank Douglas and Harry Jones, two fire-eating sure-shot cowboys who are here to take part in the wild west show in connection with the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities, have come to the conclusion that Omaha offers more terrors than all the bad men the west ever turned out. These two wild west men went out to paint the town red. They ran across a couple of girls who agreed to help put a crimson color on all parts of the city. Douglas later found he was short $45 and Jones $77. Emma Cain and Winnie Keller were arrested later in the evening and identified by the cowboys. The girls were sentenced to thirty days each in the county jail.

Bank Clerk Admits Stealing Package Containing $55,000

PENSACOLA, Fla., Sept. 25.—William H. Bell, a 30-year-old bank clerk, tonight confessed that he robbed the local First National bank on Tuesday of a package containing $55,000 of the Louisville & Nashville payroll and substituted a worthless package in its place.

D. E. THOMPSON SPENDS THE DAY IN OMAHA

D. E. Thompson, former ambassador to Mexico, stopped in Omaha en route to Lincoln after a summer spent in Europe. Mr. Thompson will then go to the Pacific coast, but that trip may be delayed because he has been asked to appear before the Clapp committee at Washington which is investigating campaign expenses. Mr. Thompson says he calls Lincoln or Mexico his home, just where he happens to be.

DANCE IN OLD COURT HOUSE TO BE CALLED OFF

Because of the cold weather and the impossibility of heating the old court house, the projected farewell ball in the old building probably will not be given. Instead, there will be a grand opening in the new county building when it is completed and all the offices are established in it. Plans for the opening ceremonies will be made by the county commissioners within a few days.

TWO SCHOOLS DISMISSED BECAUSE OF THE COLD

The new high school of commerce was dismissed yesterday on account of the cold. The temperature in two rooms could not be raised above 40 degrees. Long school was also dismissed. The boilers at this school are not completely installed. New boilers were put in during the summer and connections have not all been made.

WADE IS BOUND OVER TO THE DISTRICT COURT

Richard Wade, who attempted to murder W. C. Piatou last Friday at the Piatou hotel, was yesterday bound over to the district court, where he will undergo preliminary examination and be held over to the district court with bonds placed at $1,000.

WOMEN TO MEET AT THE CITY HALL

The Women's Democratic club will meet today at 3 p. m. in the council chamber of the city hall to arrange for the organization of a state league in the Paxton hotel at 11 a. m. Saturday.

FAREWELL GIVEN COTT BY IMPROVEMENT CLUB

About fifty members of the Southwest Improvement club congregated last evening at their rooms at Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth streets to bid farewell to George Cott, former president of the club, who is soon to move to Sioux City. The meeting opened with the general business of the club, during which period Dr. Holovitchner, president of the Board of Education, and Secretary W. T. Bourke of the same board, told what has been accomplished within the last year with the Omaha schools. Both spoke most favorably of the new Commercial High school and urged the club to father this institution, as well as lend support to the proposed industrial school, in which all branches of skilled labor shall be taught. The co-operation of the club was also sought in demanding better lighting facilities in the vicinity of Leavenworth and Twenty-fourth streets, improved paving in that district and the filling up of an unsightly hole at Twenty-seventh and Mason streets.
