(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 26.-(Special.)-F. W Brown, former mayor of the city of Lincoln and probably one of the best posted femocrats in the state, was at the state nouse this morning and, in discussing the political situation, said:

The cause of Theodore Roosevelt is apidly loosing ground. I see it on every hand, and it can be only a question of a ery few weeks before we will see his ollowers flocking over to one or the other of the two old parties, though at the present time Mr. Taft seems to be getting the benefit of the losses sustained by the drop in bull moose stock. As a democrat I had hoped that the bull moose cause would stay at par, for with Teddy well up in the race and the fight standing between Wilson and Roosevelt, I was pretty confident that Mr. Wilson would get most have lopped off about half of some of of the Taft republican votes, but with the the rest, and in consequence there is fight between Wilson and Taft, of course much howling among those who joined epublicans will stay with Taft

"I think Mr. Roosevelt will be third in the race, not only on the electoral vote, Sheriff Hyers has paid them out of his but in the popular vote as well," replied Mr. Brown. "Wilson will be elected, Mr. Taft will stand second, while Mr. Roosevelt will be a bad third. > Demos in Trouble. Democrats of Lancaster county have been in trouble for some time. Carl O. Johnson, who was elected a few years ago on the republican ticket for county commissioner, has made such a good at the primary last April. Now some democrat has discovered that he wants the democratic nomination, and Mr. Bryan's motto, "Let the People Rule," has been smashed all to smithereens. For weeks they have been devising ways and means to get Mr. Johnson of, of the democratic ticket, but to no avail. Now they propose to get out mandamus proceedings to compel the county clerk to wipe Mr. Johnson's name off of the democratic ticket and substitute the name of a man by the name of Curyea.
