WILSON CALLS UPON TAFT

Leading Candidates Meet for First Time Since Campaign Started.

HEARTY GREETINGS EXCHANGED

Humorous Discussion Concerning the Hardships of Travel--Secretary Hilles Writes of the Tariff.

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—President Taft and Governor Woodrow Wilson met for the first time since the campaign started at a hotel here last night. They greeted each other heartily and chatted for several minutes.

Gov. Wilson's party of Massachusetts was brought to the hotel by the International Congress of Chambers of Commerce, at which the president had made a speech. Governor Wilson had arrived at half past eight and spent the night at the same hotel and expressed a desire to pay his respects to the president.

For a few minutes secretaries and members of the banquet committee were busy and the meeting was soon arranged. The corridors of the hotel were jammed with men and women who had attended the banquet and the democratic candidate made his way with difficulty to the elevator and visited the president in the latter's room.

Both in Merry Mood, Governor Taft and Major R. E. Green of his staff escorted the New Jersey governor to the president. The governor and the president exchanged greetings and both laughed heartily about the difficulties of campaigning.

The president inquired of the governor how his voice was holding out, and the democratic candidate said, "Very well, considering the way campaign committees impose on the personal comfort of candidates."

The president, with a smile, said: "There are only three other living candidates who can sympathize with you in these strenuous days of campaigning--an Roosevelt, Mr. Bryan and myself." Governor Wilson replied that it would not be so bad if campaign committees did not insist on making the candidates everywhere and travel so much.

With a hearty handshake the two men parted, the president to go to his summer home in Beverly and Governor Wilson returning to his room to rest for his program of speeches in Boston tomorrow.

Statement by Hilles. BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 26.—Chairman Hilles of the republican national committee, after a day with President Taft and New England republican leaders, issued a statement tonight, taking issue with Governor Woodrow Wilson and declaring that his views on free trade and protection were to be measured by the effect upon business conditions. Mr. Hilles said in part:

"I see it is intimated by Governor Wilson that the republican party is trying to evade discussion of the tariff. It seems to me that in that respect the boot is on the other leg. I have yet to find in any of the democratic speeches a clear definition of what they propose to do in regard to the tariff if they control the government. There have been a great many platitudes talked and pious expressions uttered of interest to the workman, but it has not yet been pointed out how they propose a revision of the tariff to a revenue only point, without injury to existing industries."

"In my opinion this is the vital question which the democratic candidates must face before the campaign is closed and is the issue upon which the thousands of democratic business men who voted for President Taft four years ago will be found voting for him again this fall."

Points Out Question. The essential question is not whether any of us would like to see the consumer benefited by tariff reductions, but how we propose to make those reductions without injury to labor and American business enterprise. The real question to the business community is not as to abstract merits of free trade or protection, but what effect will be produced upon business conditions by radical changes in the existing tariff.

"The opposition should answer the question clearly and definitely, whether they propose to so far reduce existing tariff duties as to bring foreign goods into effective competition with American goods of the same character and thereby to increase imports. If they do not mean it, their platitudes about tariff reform are a fraud and a delusion upon the American people."

CAUSES OF DIVORCE EVASIVE

Speakers at Hygiene Congress Deplore Lack of Statistics.

INTEMPERANCE CALLED DISEASE

Member of Indiana State Board of Health Asserts that Farm Hygiene Presents a Dreary Picture.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Technical causes on which divorces are granted are seldom the real causes, declared Rev. Dr. Samuel W. Dike, secretary of the National League for the Protection of the Family, in speaking today to the International Congress on Hygiene and Demography. There is great difficulty in getting at the truth of divorce, Dr. Dike asserted.

Ambition for dress and social features he classed as a leading cause for divorce, while unwillingness to bear children, influence of sex vice, influence of property and quarrels over its distribution, inadequate wages and unwholesome foods he named as other sources.

"If we are ever going to have a clear view of marital tendencies," said Dr. Frederick L. Hoffman of Newark, N. J., "we must have accurate data on the divorce question. Proper statistical information is necessary to advance in legislation not only on this subject, but on all social problems."

"If alcoholism were the cause of mental diseases we would all be imbeciles today," asserted Dr. Maximilian P. E. Grossmann, Director of the National Association for the Study and Education of Exceptional Children, "for our ancestors drank excessively and took big 'night caps,' and," he added, "all the Germans would be imbeciles, whereas they are a nation of strong-minded artisans and scientists."

Intemperance, he said, is a disease, and would occur in families suffering from mental weakness, but until it had been proved that it was a cause it should not be classed as such.

Farm hygiene presents a dreary picture, according to Dr. J. N. Hurty of the Indiana Board of Health, who told the delegates that the farmer was in the "patent medicine stage." The life of farmers should be from 30 to 50 per cent longer, he said, most of the ills which they suffer being self-imposed.

"They overwork the frying pan on the farm, pickles being used to whet the appetite, and cram the victims full of overfermented and insufficiently baked bread and too much smoked, pickled and salted ham," added the speaker.

Philpot Opposes Woods. FORT DODGE, Ia., Sept. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Major S. B. Philpot of Fort Dodge today announced his candidacy on the bull moose ticket in opposition to Frank P. Woods of Estherville, candidate for re-election to congress. Philpot declares his campaign will be strenuous and he is confident of success.

MOOSE PARTY LOSING OUT

Chairman Currie of Republican Committee Ready for Work.

TELLS OF BROKEN BOW CASE

Custer County Supporter Travels to Lincoln to Hear Roosevelt and Goes Back Disgusted, Changing to Taft.

F. M. Currie, chairman of the republican state committee, reached Omaha yesterday afternoon to take charge of the campaign for the president. Mr. Currie is very much encouraged over the political situation and said he could see many indications of a break in the ranks of the bull moose party. He told of a man in Custer county who was a strong supporter of Mr. Roosevelt who traveled all the way to Lincoln last week to hear the big bull moose and returned so much disappointed and disgusted with Mr. Roosevelt's speech that he has renounced bull mooseism and is for President Taft.

"I can see the sentiment changing on every hand," said Mr. Currie, "and it means victory at the polls in November for President Taft."

Women Are Forming Democratic League

At a meeting of the Omaha Ladies' Democratic league at the city hall yesterday afternoon arrangements for a meeting at 10:30 o'clock on the morning of October 5 at the Paxton hotel to effect a "safe organization" were completed.

The managers of the Wilson visit to this city have promised the lady democrats that they will call at this meeting and speak briefly to them.

Out-of-town members of the league will attend the meeting at the Paxton. A luncheon will follow the assembly at the Paxton and then the entire league will go to hear Mr. Wilson speak.

Mrs. Harvey Newbrach is chairman of a reception committee of twenty-five. The luncheon committee consists of Mrs. C. L. Hempel, Mrs. J. D. Hiss and Mrs. Earl Stanford. Mrs. Cuthbert Vincent is chairman of the committee on decorations and badges.

"These women have accepted vice presidencies of the league in their home towns: Mrs. W. J. Bryan, Mrs. G. M. Hitchcock, Mrs. James C. Dahman, Mrs. Dan V. Stephens, Mrs. W. H. Thompson, Mrs. J. H. Morehead and Mrs. Charles A. Tracy.

TO ENJOY ANNIVERSARY

W. J. Bryan always makes it a rule to spend the anniversary of his wedding day with his family. This year it will be a hard matter to accomplish, but he will get home on the evening of the anniversary, which is October 1. C. W. Bryan of Lincoln, brother of W. J. Bryan, said when in Omaha that Mr. Bryan would finish his present western speaking tour September 30 at Cheyenne, Wyo., after a two days' tour of that state. He will then leave there at once for Lincoln and Fairview, reaching home on the evening of October 1.

Friday, October 2 he will start on another tour, speaking at Beatrice and Fairbury that day and at Belleville, Kan., that night. On October 3 and 4 he will tour the state of Kansas on a special train provided for him by the democratic state committee of Kansas. The special train is to return him to Lincoln by October 5 in order that he may be there to preside at the meeting at which Woodrow Wilson is to speak. The following day he is to entertain Woodrow Wilson at his home at Fairview.

Political Notes

The Kansas prohibition candidates failed to get their petitions filed in time for their names to appear on the general election ballot in the November election. Winston Churchill of Cornish was nominated for governor by the progressives of New Hampshire and a platform largely confined to national issues was adopted.

William J. Bryan's campaign tour carried him to the picturesque mining towns of the Comstock lode in Nevada. He spoke in Virginia City, Silver City, Carson and Reno.

Total contributions to date to the democratic campaign fund amount to $28,750. It was announced by Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the democratic national finance committee.

The democratic state convention of Michigan, harmoniously adopted a platform substantially as strongly progressive, and defeated an effort to retire a majority of the old members of the state central committee.

$1,200 to Strangers

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 27.—J. W. Springer, a farmer of Burlington Junction, Mo., was victimized by two strangers here today to whom he entrusted $1,200. Springer met the men while viewing the ruins of a wrecked building.

The strangers soon began to match dollars and later the farmer joined them. Before the game was finished he had won $1,400 in premises and the men said they would pay if he would show that he could have paid an equal amount if he had lost. Then Springer produced a draft and the losers insisted that to show "good faith" he must cash it. This he did. "Let me take this money and I will go into my bank and draw an equal sum," one of the men said. The farmer complied and the men left the bank. Springer told the police of his loss.

Auto in Mudhole

Delays Governor

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—Governor Aldrich was to have spoken at the county fair today but did not reach here until tonight from Syracuse in an automobile in company with State Treasurer George. The machine became stalled in a mudhole and delayed the party three hours. Governor Aldrich and J. H. Morehead, democratic candidate for governor, will speak here tomorrow afternoon.

"If they do mean it, then certain American interests must suffer. Demand for certain goods cannot be shifted from the American producer to the foreign producer without compelling the American producer to slacken his mill wheels to reduce his payroll and dismiss some of his men."
