Don't wait till you begin to cough and sneeze or it may take longer—it pays to keep "Seventy-seven" handy. All Druggists 25c. Book free.

Couple is Married at Mother's Bedside

With her mother within a few feet of her on a sick bed in Immanuel hospital, Eliza Anderson carried out the parents' wishes when she married John Olsen, an employe of the Union Pacific shops.

Miss Anderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Swan Anderson of Florence, Neb. The mother has been seriously ill for some time and will soon undergo an operation. The mother, on account of her illness, did not wish her daughter to postpone the wedding, so plans were laid for the ceremony, and it was performed Friday in the hospital.

The couple was attended by bridesmaids, ushers and best man, all of whom marched up to the bed, which served as an altar.

The room was profusely decorated with flowers. Rev. W. M. Dahl officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Florence, and Anna Burkhardt of this city, and the bridegroom by Mr. Burkhardt, also of Omaha.

Following the ceremony the bridal couple, attendants and friends went to the home of the bride's parents, where all made merry at a wedding supper. After October 1 Mr. and Mrs. Olsen will be at home in Florence.

Colonists' Rates Make Travel Heavy

Officials of railroads operating to the west are pleased with the business that is being done by the colonists' trains. While the rates have been in effect less than a week, officials feel sure that the number taking advantage of them will be largely in excess of former years.

Last year when the colonists' rates went into effect business was heavy the first day or so and then there was nothing doing until a few days before the close. This year it is different. The first day the rates were on travel was heavy and it has been growing heavier each day since.

This year it is noted that the majority of travelers on the colonists' trains are farmers from Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota and other states of the middle west who are going to California, Washington and Oregon to spend the winter.

School Kids Are Enjoying Highway

Forlorn indeed are the school kids of Omaha today. Samson had set it aside as their time to take possession of the King's Highway, but Pluvius interfered.

Not to be disappointed by the weather, however, several hundred children took advantage of the half price admission charge and entered the carnival grounds where the show managers conducted their entertainments especially to their liking.

Rain does not affect the child as it does the grownup, so it would seem after seeing them frolicking about the grounds. In fact, it appears to have the opposite effect for the little water pools were a source of almost as much amusement as the snake chamber and the merry-go-round.

BLUFFS MAN HELD FOR ROBBERING IOWA VICTIM

Joe Lenora, living at 215 North Nineteenth street, was arrested Friday night by Detective Joe Hill at Ninth and Dodge streets for robbing A. J. McCall in the Bevere hotel in Council Bluffs last night of $17 and a watch.

Lenora induced McCall, who lives in Hamburg, Ia., to go up to the hotel and touched him for the money and watch. He immediately left Council Bluffs and came to Omaha in an automobile.

When searched at the police station the watch was found in Lenora's possession, but the money was gone. He denied his guilt. He is a switchman for the Illinois Central Railroad company in Council Bluffs, he says. The Bluffs authorities took him in charge this morning.

Mohler Takes Flight to Ducking Grounds

Ducks in great numbers are reported in northwestern Nebraska, it being said that in many localities in the sandhills the lakes are black with them. The same reports are to the effect that when they take flight from these lakes, they are so numerous that the sound of their flapping wings resembles the onward rush of a cyclone.

A. L. Mohler has heard of the report of the enormous flight of ducks. He has gone, in his private car, accompanied by Mark Wood of Lincoln, N. B., Uplike, Ward Burgess and W. T. Ferguson, for a hunt of several days' duration.

Mr. Mohler's car will be parked at Wood lake and from there, in two automobiles, he and the members of his party will go to a hunting lodge on a small lake forty miles to the southwest. This lake is one of a chain of about a dozen, all of which are filled with wild rice, constituting fine feeding grounds for ducks and geese in season.

The members of the Mohler party take cooks and servants, tents and bedding, intending to spend a number of nights away from the lodge in the event the shooting should be some distance from the lake, on the banks of which the shooting lodge is situated.

Several people at the carnival grounds were hung in mid-air for over an hour early yesterday afternoon when one of the foot braces of the Ferris wheel broke. An iron rod on one of the carriages caught the foot brace while swinging around and twisted it so that the wheel refused to move. Every carriage of the large wheel was occupied and the couples in the upper carriages were compelled to stay in their seats several feet above the ground until they were extricated by firemen who were called and hoisted ladders to the top.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.
