CROWDS AT THE OUTDOOR CLUBS

Two Big Weddings—Bride-to-Be Selects Sister Debutantes as the Bridesmaids at Her Wedding.

Social Calendar.

MONDAY—Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sweet, dinner for Whiting-Sweet wedding party; Miss Elizabeth Hamling, tea for Miss Doris Keeney of Warsaw, N. Y.; Miss Ruth Slabaugh, bridge party at Happy Hollow club; Miss Katherine Krug, theater party at the Boyd for Miss Katherine Torrance of Los Angeles.

A number of women have made definite plans to ride in the automobile flower parade next Tuesday. Miss Beatrice Coad will drive her electric machine and have Mrs. Ellen Coad Jensen with her.

Whiting-Sweet Wedding at Trinity. One of the large fall church weddings will be that of Miss Elizabeth Sweet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sweet, and Lieutenant G. W. Whiting of the Fourth infantry at Fort Crook.

The best man will be Lieutenant Whiting's brother, Brian Whiting of Marshall, Va., and the ushers will be Lewis Sweet, who arrived yesterday from Chicago for his sister's wedding, and Lieutenants Selbie, Griffith and Wilson of Fort Crook.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Sweet will entertain at dinner for the wedding party, Saturday evening Lieutenant and Mrs. Fulton gave a dinner preceding the hop at Fort Crook in honor of Miss Sweet and Lieutenant Whiting.

Bride Chooses Sister Debutantes. Miss Ruth Hammer has chosen as bridesmaids for her wedding four young women, who, with herself, were debutantes last season. One of them, Miss Elizabeth Davis, was queen of Ak-Sar-Ben last year, and Miss Hammer and the other three bridesmaids were special maids on that occasion.

Miss Nash to Study Abroad. Miss Frances Nash, society belle, musician, horsewoman and former queen of Ak-Sar-Ben, will be absent from this winter's social festivities. She has decided to spend the winter studying instrumental music in which she has already made some success locally.

Uhl-Milroy Wedding. One of the first large autumn weddings was that of Miss Katherine Milroy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Milroy, to Mr. Mel Uhl, Jr., which was celebrated last evening at the First Presbyterian church.

The bride was charming in her wedding gown of white satin charmeuse, with bodice and sleeves of duchess lace and embroidered with rhinestones and pearls. The skirt was bordered with a wide band of duchess lace and draped with chiffon.

Mrs. Herbert Hays of Stella, Neb., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and was gowned in pink crepe motté, trimmed with crystal lace and brilliants.

Travelers Return for Ak-Sar-Ben. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Love are home from New York. Miss Sadie Kirschbraun has returned from a short visit in Chicago.
