

DEBATING TO BE TAKEN UP

Coach Will Be Employed to Round High School Squad Into Shape.

MAY SECURE PROFESSOR BURKE

Promising Candidates for the Debating Team Are Carlisle Allan, Barney Kulakofsky and Robert Wilbur.

Debating at the high school will be much more interesting this year than in past years, since the squad will have a coach to develop all debating candidates who wish to take up that branch of training.

Promising candidates for the debating team are Barney Kulakofsky, Carlisle Allan and Robert Wilbur.

Debates will probably be arranged with West Des Moines, Lincoln, Council Bluffs and perhaps with the University of Omaha.

High School Notes.

Guns were issued to all cadets yesterday afternoon in preparation for the military parade next Thursday.

Carlisle Allan, a candidate for senior class president, has withdrawn his name from the list of candidates for that position.

About December 1 a joint meeting of several societies will be held in the new auditorium, which will be completed by that time.

Each separate club has been assigned a room in which to meet semi-monthly. These rooms will be at the disposal of the clubs only during the meetings.

A new routine has been established for the literary societies at the high school, which will come into effect next Friday, when all clubs will hold their business meetings for election of officers or have program.

A call for candidates for manager of the tennis team has been issued by Mr. Orchard of the athletic board, and also for the position of assistant manager of the foot ball team.

Two candidates for the junior class president have handed in their applications. Glen Paxton and John McDonald are the candidates.

Good prospects are in sight for the societies, for with the continuation of the single session the societies are able to grow and to create interest among new men.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Proof Accumulates of Developing National Prosperity. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade today says:

Proof accumulates on every hand of a developing national prosperity, some and quite independent of controversial issues that usually breed uncertainty and hesitation.

In the iron and steel trade the pressure in the market for deliveries is reflected in the sharp demand for pig iron this week, quotations being higher and the market as a whole being in a very strong position.

Copper production and consumption are both enormous. Not only is the distribution of dry goods in the various branches of the trade larger than last year, but the leading merchants anticipate a continuance of the demand and are looking forward to a year of general prosperity.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW

Buying Main Activity in Various Lines of Retail Trade. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Bradstreet's today says:

Buying in person, by mail order or through the medium of road sales maintains activity in the various lines of the distributive trade.

The shortage of cars is becoming more noteworthy and some coal mines in the west have been compelled temporarily to cease operations until cars can be received.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending September 26 were 23, against 79 last week.

Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending September 26 aggregate 5,500,000 bu., against 3,807,477 bu. last week.

SNEED WEEPS IN COURT OVER WRECK OF ONCE HAPPY HOME

AMARILLO, Tex., Sept. 28.—Tears welled in the eyes of John Neal Sneed, the Amarillo banker, slayer of Al F. Boyce, today for the first time, when his attorney referred to the once happy home of the Sneeds and its alleged ruin by the man he killed here on September 14.

Contrary to expectations, arguments in the habeas corpus proceedings were not concluded today. The chief counsel for the defense will begin his argument tomorrow morning when at his closing, Judge Browning will consider the application for bail for the prisoner.

ULSTERMEN SIGN COVENANT

Sir Edward Carson is First to Affix His Signature.

UNION RELIGIOUS SERVICE HELD

Sermon is Preached by Presbyterian Clergyman, Who Declares Home Rule Bill is Aimed at All Protestants.

BELFAST, Ireland, Sept. 28.—Sir Edward Carson today wrote his name as the first to sign the solemn covenant of the Ulster men which forever binds them to "use all the means that may be found necessary to defeat the present conspiracy to set up home rule in Ireland."

The weather was doubtful early in the day, but before the Ulster men had begun to gather for the religious services which preceded the signing of the covenant, sunshine flooded the streets.

The town was gaily decorated, the union jack being everywhere predominant.

Edward Carson in such a dramatic manner last evening.

Shops and Factories Close. Most of the shops and all the big industrial works were closed, so that every man desiring to do so might be able to participate in the manifestation.

The spirit of unity prevailing among the Protestant denominations was illustrated by the selection of the officiating clergyman. Rev. W. McLean, formerly Presbyterian moderator, preached the sermon, and he was assisted in the services by ministers belonging to the Anglican, Methodist, Baptist and Congregational churches.

A semi-military aspect was not lacking in the meeting, as 200 picked stalwart members of the unionist clubs and Orange lodges, wearing bright sashes, acted as a guard of honor, standing around the pulpit, while 500 of what is known as the "reserve guard" occupied seats in the gallery.

The great congregation was unable to restrain itself as notable personages came into the hall. Among the first was Lord Charles Beresford, who was greeted with a loud cheer. Captain James Craig, the unionist member for East Down, reminded the audience that the service was a religious one and said Sir Edward Carson wished it to be looked upon as such in the real sense of the word.

When Sir Edward Carson and Frederick E. Smith arrived, however, the people forgetful of the appeal that had been made, again broke into cheers, which continued as the two leaders proceeded to the platform behind the Orange flag of the Battle of the Boyne, presented to Sir

Edwards for Sermon. The service opened with the hymn, "O, God, Our Help in Ages Past," after which a short prayer was offered and an appeal made to the Almighty to "Stretch forth Thy arms and help us in this time of national danger."

Rev. W. McLean's sermon roused the audience to another burst of cheering, which was suppressed from the pulpit. Dr. McLean declared the Irish question at bottom was a war against Protestantism and an attempt to establish Roman Catholic ascendancy in Ireland and begin the disintegration of the British empire by securing a second parliament in Dublin.

The service concluded with the singing of the National anthem.

PRINCESS BARELY ESCAPES BLOW FROM FALLING TREE

NANAIMO, B. C., Sept. 28.—During the reception to the governor general, the duke of Connaught, here today, an evergreen tree, which formed part of the decorations in front of the court house, toppled over. It would have fallen on Princess Patricia had not W. R. Baker, secretary of the Canadian Pacific railway, who is a member of the royal party, happened to step back just at that time, with the result that the tree fell on him. He was not seriously injured.

GAY CHANTICLER TO RULE

Gay Fowls of All Variety to Be at the Omaha Auditorium.

POULTRY SHOW THIS WEEK

Game Warden Miller Will Exhibit State's Collection of Wild Game Birds—Many Exhibitors to Be on Hand.

There will be one spot in Omaha this week where the cry of "Oh you chicken" will not be considered an insult, where the Johnnies may congregate to their hearts content and ogle the young fowls out of countenance and terms of endearment will be followed by a trip to the lockup with a twenty-five dollar fine as a possible chaser.

This particular occasion is the Omaha Auditorium where the United Fanciers of thirty states will hold a big poultry exhibition. Representative exhibits of all varieties will afford the visitors the opportunity of comparing western birds with those raised in the east, with dressed poultry, egg exhibit and appliances forming an important part of the display.

A fine dining room with plenty of spring chicken will do all in its power to inoculate patrons with "chickentitis" while moving pictures will serve to amuse those who might wish a short respite from the cackle of the old hens. The show will throw wide its doors Monday and will continue throughout the week.

Tinsman Chairman of Railway Board

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—W. S. Tinsman, assistant to President Mudge of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad, was today chosen chairman of the General Managers' association of Chicago and of the Association of Western Railways.

There are thirty-two railways affiliated with the General Managers' association. Mr. Tinsman entered the service of the Rock Island road as an office boy in 1882.

VOLCANO AGAIN IN ERUPTION; VINEYARDS AND CROPS SUFFER

MESSINA, Italy, Sept. 28.—The volcano Stromboli again is in eruption. Cinder, ashes, and incandescent sand are being ejected from nine craters and dust is falling in large quantities over the surrounding country and outlying islands. Vineyards and crops generally are suffering heavily. The spectacle of the volcano at night from passing steamers is a magnificent one.

Midwest Millers Fight New Ruling

WICHITA, KAN., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Asserting that if a new ruling of the Interstate Commerce commission on milling in transit is enforced the mills in this part of the country will have to go out of business and move elsewhere, mill operators from Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Texas and Nebraska met here today to plan a fight against the ruling.

The millers say that under the new ruling mills in other localities have an undue advantage. They employed former Senator Chester I. Long to fight their case. The ruling complained of annuls the old rule whereby a miller could ship in wheat, grind it into flour and send the Political Notes

William J. Bryan addressed a large crowd at Ogden, Utah, in referring to the republican and progressive candidates, Mr. Bryan said he believed President Taft to be sincere and honest, but he had made mistakes, said Colonel Roosevelt, the speaker said, had asked him to explain.
