Dealers in Wheat Do Not Take Bull Influence Seriously.

LEADERS IN CORN NOW BUY Influenced by Wheat and Corn, Oats Futures Had About Three-Eighths Cents Advance Over Wednesday.

OMAHA, Oct. 2.

Most of the conservative leaders in the local wheat trade do not seriously regard the bull influence of the foreign political or war news. Naturally the shorts covered on the advancing market yesterday. Short sellers were cautious late in the day because they feared even worse political news from the other side. At the first sign of a more peaceable outlook there is little doubt that selling pressure in wheat will return from all quarters. In regard to the developments on the other side of the ocean and cable rumors during the day, one trader can judge as well as the other. Cash wheat, unchanged to %c lower.

Some of the leaders in the cash corn rade were taking a stand on the buying side yesterday because of renewed shipping demand and the material decline which has already been recorded in old cash corn prices. The action of cash corn has very little to do with the new crop months. The political news from the other side and the temporary firmness in wheat helped corn months to a little gain yesterday. Then conceding some injury to the late corn from the frost of last week, the outcome of the crop will be sufficiently large to be a bearish con-

HOGS—As often is the case when the receipts are comparatively small speculiators were active in their operations on the early market. Most of their purchases were fully a dime higher and in some instances 15c higher when compared with the general trade yesterday. Shippers and speculators together took about half of the offerings out of first hands, packers buying the other half at prices showing the same advance as at the opening. The packer buyers apparently were anxious for hogs and in order to meet their requirements were obliged to take everything from the speculators Business was brisk all the morning, Business was brisk all the morning, a complete clearance being made by 10:30 o'clock. SHEEP-Although the sheep and lamb offerings on yesterday's market were the most numerous of the year, practically everything on the fat order was taken over by the packers fairly early in the day. As was onted in yesterday's paper there was a general decline of about 10@15c on both killing sheep and lambs. Bulk of the stock bought as feeders changed hands in the afternoon and was disposed of as soon as it was sorted up into selling shape. Feeder trade was very uneven from start to finish and prices anywhere from steady to 10@15c lower. Feeding lambs and ewes were here in large numbers, wethers and yearlings being relatively scarce. While sales were made in fairly lively fashion a pretty fair clearance was effected in the feeder division considering the very liberal supply. Twenty-five or thirty loads were carried over for today's market. According to first estimates about 68 more cars or around 18,500 head were yarded this morning. Today's receipts are almost 4,040 head short of last Thursday, but only about 210 head less than on the corresponding day a year ago. The buyers were not very active early and apparently had only small orders to fill. As receipts have been very heavy this week the packers bought heavily and apparently were not anxious to make many purchases.

While a lairly active trade was done in killing stuff in the forenoon, the packers were slow buyers all the morning. Prices were generally steady with yes-with yesterday and the feeling on some of the better and more desirable kinds was if anything strong.

The demand for strictly good feeders continued active and the market firm on everything coming under that head. Inferior and trashy stuff as a matter of course was a little slow and hard to move, but stfit prices on that kind were about steady.

Gym at Bellevue is Well Under Way

Work on the new Bellevue gymnasium is progressing rapidly. A large force of men and teams have been employed at grading for over a week and the material for the concrete foundation and retaining walls will be laid down soon.

The site chosen, which is on the top of the hill facing the tennis courts, is so laid out that the slope of the hill is utilized in the excavation for the swimming pool. Foreman Cartwright says that the grading force will be increased as fast as the work permits, and that the excavation will be completed within a week or ten days. The dirt from the excavation is being utilized in the construction of a boulevard leading from the regular thoroughfare along the foot ball field to Fontanelle hall, where it joins the

Failure to Protest Costs Pirates Game

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.-Manager Fred Clarke of the Pittsburgh National league club allowed Cotter, catcher for Chicago, to fire out of his turn in the terth inning of today's game without protesting and his single won the game for Chance's men by 6 to 5.

Umpire Owens doffed his mask and waited for Clarke to put in his protest, for the rules read that a batsman hitting out of regular order shall be called out when such protest is lodged. Clarke grasped his sweater coat and raced for the club house. Owens watched the retreating manager for a few paces and then turned and left the field. The game was over and Clarke's chance to rectify

No Glidden Tour to Be Held This Year

Glidden automobile tour this year. This was announced today by the national tour committee of the American Automobile association, which decided to postpone the contest until some time next

The principal reason given was that many automobilists who wanted to enter the contest did not care to be away from their homes three weeks just before election. It was stated also that objections had been made to many sections of the proposed route from Detroit to New Orleans.

Next year an earlier date will be chosen and meantime changes will be made in the route.
