PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—Fast fielding by Philadelphia was largely responsible for the home eam's victory over Boston here today, 4 to 3. The visitors secured eight hits and drew nine passes, four batsmen being hit by Houck, but two of them were caught trying to steal second base. Houck caught two men napping at first and Egan caught a runner off third, thus spoiling their chances. The home team tested Carrigan's throwing arm and four times in five attempts the Boston backstop was successful in catching base runners.
