Reasons Why Prosecution of Lincoln Company Was Ordered.

DID NOT WAIT FOR ORDER

Discontinued Free Telephone Service Between Wymore and Other Towns Before Commission Granted Permission.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The state railway commission has ordered a criminal action to be begun against the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company for changing rates without permission of the commission.

Some time ago the Lincoln company applied to the commission for permission to discontinue free telephone service between Wymore, Liberty, Burmeston and Odell. A hearing was had in the matter and several citizens from the towns interested appeared before the commission and protested against the discontinuation. However the company seems to have discontinued the service without waiting for a decision in the matter by the commission, according to information in the hands of the commission. A fine of $10,000 is the law in case the company has violated the statutes, which read:

"It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any railway company or common carrier to change any rate, schedule or classification until application has been made to the railway commission and permission had for that purpose. Any railroad company or common carrier violating this provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $10,000."

Railroad Moves Yards.

For the past few weeks the town of Kenesaw has been with the use of stockyards and as a result farmers have been taking their stock to other towns to ship. A short time before the yards were closed by the railway company, the city council declared the yards a nuisance and appealed to the courts to have the yards moved from their location within the city limits to a location about three blocks away. The Burlington then closed the yards. An application was made to the supreme court to compel the company to re-open the yards in a new location and Judge Tibbets of Hastings appeared before the court yesterday in an effort to have the court compel the Burlington to rebuild. As a result, Secretary Allen of the railway commission was called up by telephone by Attorney Byron Clark and instructed to agree to a settlement in which the road was given sixty days from October 3 to re-locate and rebuild the yards.

Trains Called Off.

Permission has been given the Burlington railroad to discontinue trains 4 and 11 between Oxford and Red Cloud, to go into effect November 8. This will not interfere with service between the two towns as the through trains will run as locals in the place of those taken off.

Inspects Sholes Schools.

State Superintendent DeLozier has returned from a trip to Shigeto inspect the modern high school in that little town. He says that the Sholes school is a model one and will without doubt be followed by other schools of a like nature in other places. The town has a population of eighty-three, yet supports a three-room school and eleven grades. There are three teachers and one assistant. A large barn has been built near the school house and the children drive in from a distance of three miles and a half and less to attend to school, putting their horses in the barn. The school house is frame building which cost $7,000 and contains besides the school rooms a hall which is used for public and lodge meetings, which pay a small sum for help to keep up the building and pay the expense of heating, which is done by a hot air furnace. Prof. Moritz Brakemeyer is principal of the school.

Quarantine in Montana.

Governor Norris of Montana has issued a proclamation forbidding Nebraska and Kansas horses to enter the state. He says that "an unknown disease, dangerous, contagious, communicable and fatal," prevails in those states and the proclamation is issued to prevent spread of the disease. Dr. Eostrom, state veterinarian of Nebraska, has received a copy of the proclamation.

Appeal Taken in Case.

Francis T. Giblin & Co., a Utica, N. Y., concern, has appealed from a judgment secured against it in the district court of Douglas county by Fred L. Nesbit, an Omaha traveling man, in the sum of $1,043.23. Mr. Nesbit held a contract for one year to sell heating plants, but the company failed to pay him for a portion of the year and he sued for the full time unpaid.

Manuel Files Report.

Superintendent C. B. Manuel of the Industrial School for Boys at Kearney has filed his report with the Board of Public Lands and Buildings and shows that a decrease in the membership for the month of September, 18 boys answering to roll call against 26 the previous month. Thirty-one boys were paroled during the month and eight received.

Information of Certificates.

Information has been asked of Secretary of State Wait as to the proper manner of filing certificates of nomination where a legislative district contains more than one county. He has answered that while the statutes call for the filing with the secretary of state of certificates in cases where a district comprises one county, to prevent any possible error he advises that the certificate be filed with the county clerks in all of the districts comprising the district.

License to marry was issued yesterday to Harold H. Gay, aged 28, of Omaha and Macy M. Cummings, aged 25, of Lincoln.

Complaint Over Gasoline.

Fire Commissioner Randall swore out a complaint against A. Kapplin, a Lincoln tailor, yesterday charging him with keeping gasoline in cans which were not painted red and with maintaining a nuisance. He was before County Judge Rieser and pleaded guilty. A fine of $12 and costs was assessed against him.

Speaking of the matter Commissioner Randall said: "I am getting tired of fooling with these people who are breaking the law every day, and from now on I propose to get after them and spare none of them. This man Kapplin was running a cleaning establishment close to the rear of the Lindell hotel, and it was a menace to other property around it. The gasoline was kept in a milk can, and when I went there he had a garbage can partly filled with hot water and gasoline. Clothing saturated with the stuff was hanging in the building, and you

Store Greatness is Measured by a Store's Accomplishments

No matter how great we may claim this store to be—it must stand upon its accomplishments. If they are sufficiently noteworthy then our claim to greatness is justified. A little over four years ago this was the "deadest" corner in Omaha. We were just beginning. We didn't have a single customer. No one knew whether or not the clothing we offered was worth more or less than the prices asked for it. Today, this corner is one of Omaha's busy spots. This store enjoys the confidence and support of the largest body of well dressed men and boys in the country. Thousands upon thousands know that our clothing is right and that our prices are the lowest ever. By our deeds are we known. On the strength of past performances and present greatness we ask your patronage.

VENETIAN NIGHT FEATURE OF BEATRICE CARNIVAL

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Venetian night on the Blue river was the last of the fall festival events, but on account of the unfavorable weather last week it was postponed until last night. The program consisted of a parade of beautifully, brilliantly lighted and decorated boats, twenty in number. It was one of the most elaborate affairs of the kind ever attempted in this city, and hundreds witnessed the parade from the river banks. The first prize, a camping kit, was awarded to Miss Ethel Hopkins, whose canoe was gondola in shape and covered with thousands of yellow and white chrysanthemums. Boyd Raynor and Miss Viola Sears received second prize, a camera. Their canoe was handsomely decorated in pink and green with floral arches placed over the canoe. Third prize, a sweater coat, was awarded to Harry and Morris Rumbaugh. Pillars were placed on either side of their canoe, and it was covered with a canopy decorated with flowers, etc.

Eva Crosby, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Crosby, died suddenly yesterday following an operation for appendicitis.

The case of the state against R. E. Postel, charged with shooting Albert May with intent to kill on the night of June 18, last, was dismissed by Judge Ellis yesterday morning, as it was shown at the hearing that May was the aggressor during the trouble.

FORTY CATTLE AND THIRTY SHEEP KILLED IN WRECK

DOWS, Ia., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—There was a bad wreck here between a stock train which was standing partly on the main line of the Rock Island and partly on the branch line of a gravel train. The stock train was taking water. The gravel train came around the curve under a full head of steam and did not see the stock train until it was right upon it. The engineer and fireman jumped and were not injured. The engine pulling the gravel train plunged into the stock train hitting it about in the center of the train and demolishing three cars and tipped over by the side of the track. Forty head of cattle and thirty head of sheep were killed outright and a good many more injured.

BRIDAL COUPLE HAZED BY FRIENDS AND MISS TRAIN

WYMORE, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Mahlen Neumann, married at 10 o'clock this morning, were prevented from taking an afternoon train for the east by a number of friends, who insisted that they ride to the depot in an old delivery wagon specially decorated and placarded for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Neumann declined to go in the old rig and missed their train. They later drove to a nearby town to catch another train.

Fairbury Banks Consolidate.

FAIRBURY, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—An important change in financial circles occurred in Fairbury this week when the Bonham National bank purchased an interest in the First National bank. The two banks will consolidate and assume the name of the First National bank. Mr. Isaac Bonham is president of the new institution and Luther Bonham, cashier. D. B. Crosey, president of the First National, will be vice president under the new institution. Directors J. O. Evans and B. W. McClucas will retire from the new institution. Mr. Crosey, the retiring president, has been president of the old bank for the last thirty years. For the present the two banks will run.

Ancestral Reflections.

ROOSEVELT MAKES DENIALS

Colonel Says He Never Made Promises in Return for Funds.

DID NOT AUTHORIZE ANY

Neither Mr. Bliss or Mr. Cortelyou Asked Him to Act or Refrain from Acting Because of Contributions.

Colonel Roosevelt said he knew nothing about contributions by life insurance companies or by beef interests.

"I had already moved against the 'beef trust' and I don't believe it contributed. I suppose it was against us," he said.

"You say you moved against the Standard Oil company before the 1904 campaign. Why do you suppose it changed its attitude and contributed?" asked Senator Pomerene.

"I have no means of knowing," said the colonel.

Senator Pomerene asked if it would not be natural for corporations which contributed in 1904 to expect favors.

"It's impossible for me to say that any man who gives a dollar does not expect a return for that dollar," said Colonel Roosevelt, "but when I tell him he will get no return, I can prevent his expecting it."

"As a practical man, colonel," said Senator Pomerene, "don't you believe that at least some of the big contributors expected returns?"

The colonel grasped the arms of his chair and laughed.

"Speaking as a practical man of high ideals, who has tried to put these ideals into practice, I believe that when I tell a man he will receive no return, if he then insists upon giving and expecting a return, he is either a crook or a fool."

A wave of applause swept over the committee room and Chairman Clapp banged his gavel.

Senator Pomerene asked if the colonel "coal trust" had contributed.

"My dear sir," returned Colonel Roosevelt, "after the revelations that have been made here, I wouldn't be surprised at any one having contributed." He said no report was made to him as to the receipts or the contributors.

"I think Mr. Bliss would have resented any inquiry from me as to the contributors," said Colonel Roosevelt.

Made No Inquiries.

"You made no inquiries of Mr. Bliss or Mr. Cortelyou?"

"No, none," answered the colonel.

"Were you ever advised as to the proportion of the campaign funds of 1904 contributed by corporations?"

"No, never; I never heard it discussed," said the colonel. "I never made any inquiries. I did not even know the contributors until Mr. Hooker published them before this committee," said the colonel, and, turning to Senator Clapp, he volunteered: "I've had a fairly strenuous life in this campaign on my part."

Bliss had told him it had not been made.

"Do you know who contributed to the $20,000 fund raised by Mr. Harriman?"

"I don't know. I see Mr. Morgan said yesterday he contributed to it. Remember, I don't know that such a fund was ever raised."

"Was there any reason why Mr. Cortelyou should not have full knowledge of whether the $100,000 Standard Oil contribution was returned?" asked Senator Pomerene.

"Not that I know,"

Colonel Roosevelt said that in reply to his letters demanding the return of the Standard Oil subscription Cortelyou and Bliss telephoned to Loeb, and Cortelyou came to Washington and assured him no such contribution had been received.

Colonel Roosevelt said he had no knowledge of any conference of his financial interests in New York to devise ways and means to support the republican candidates. He knew nothing of the appointment of a secret "advisory committee" in 1904 or whether Mr. Harriman had been asked by Mr. Cortelyou to serve on such a committee.

Senator Paynter asked if the colonel knew Herman Freshch of New York.

"Freshch of New York?" repeated the colonel, trying to recall his name.

"I know so many 'Fresh' men I feel as if I must ask if I know the man."

So he turned to Mr. Loeb, who said Mr. Freshch was in the sulphur business.

"You see," interrupted the colonel, "it may be some one who has said to me, 'I am the man who waved the flag when you came into the station, or something of that kind.'"

Freshch Gives Ten Thousand.

"This one seemed to be extremely anxious to wave your flag, for he contributed $10,000 to your pre-convention campaign."

"Then I shall make his acquaintance at once," said Colonel Roosevelt with energy.

Senator Paynter said it had been suggested that Mr. Freshch was at one time connected with the Standard Oil company.

Colonel Roosevelt leaned back in his chair, laughed and exclaimed: "My dear senator, if anyone connected with the Standard Oil company is contributing now he is doing so at his own peril. I don't feel obliged to warn him. Do you think from Mr. Archbold's testimony he was in favor of me?"

This brought forth a wave of laughter.

HALF-MINUTE STORE TALK

Our plan of having our full force of salesmen remain in the store between 12 and 1 has proven quite an accommodation to those busy fellows whose working day is the same length as ours. These fellows must use their noon times for shopping and it puts them to considerable disadvantage to come in and find half the salesforce busy and the other half out for lunch. It's a little inconvenient for our salesmen to take their luncheon before 12 or after 1, but what care they when a little sacrifice by them will add so materially to the high class service for which this store is far famed?

Lincoln Democrats to Welcome Wilson

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The democrats of Lincoln are making great preparations to greet Governor Wilson, democratic nominee for the presidency, when he reaches Lincoln at 5:45 p. m. Saturday afternoon. About 1,000 vice presidents more or less, have been appointed, and any man who does not have an office of some kind can blame no one but himself, for the machine manufactured for grinding out offices has been in working order for several days, and no man who wanted recognition has been turned away without a commission.

When the governor arrives he will be escorted to the Lindell hotel by presidents, vice presidents, committee members, marching clubs, generals, colonels, captains and a host of other major officials, and a dinner will be served to all party workers who have the price. After the eats have been destroyed the dignitaries will go over to the Auditorium, where National Committeeman P. L. Hall will introduce Mr. Bryan and Mr. Bryan will introduce Mr. Wilson. Senator Hitchcock will occupy the stage with other prominent democrats of the state.

OSCEOLA, Neb., Oct. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—The Polk county Wilson and Marshall clubs have arranged with the Union Pacific railroad for a special train to be run from Grand Island to Lincoln on Saturday, October 5, on the occasion of the Woodrow Wilson meeting at Lincoln. The special leaves Grand Island at 12:45 p. m.; Central City, 1:25; Osceola, 2:30; David City, 3:35. Returning the special will leave Lincoln after the meeting at the Auditorium. A large attendance of the Polk county democrats is expected to accompany this train.

"Cascarets" Best Bowel Cleanser

No Billousness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Costed Tongue or Constipation.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Advertisement.
