CITY EXTENDS ITS WELCOME

Mayor's Committee and Reception Committee Put Off to Flagship and Exchange Greetings with Admiral.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Headed by the flagship Connecticut bearing the pennant of Rear Admiral Osterhaus, ten gray ironclad warships steamed up New York bay today—the backbone of the battleship division in the naval gathering of which the harbor will be the scene for the next ten days.

Thousands of sight-seers were awaiting the battleships, whose arrival was heralded by screaming of innumerable whistles on river craft. The din kept up continuously as the formidable line of sea fighters slowly felt its way up the Hudson to the anchorages assigned its units for the reviews and other ceremonies incident to the gathering here of the more than six score war craft, which are to participate in the biggest naval demonstration the port has ever known.

Today's arrivals, beside the flagship, were the battleships Ohio, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Nebraska, Kansas, Louisiana, Delaware, Utah and Florida. No sooner had they dropped anchor than the fleet of small craft, prepared to convey the thousands who will visit the warships during their stay, was put into commission ready for the afternoon's visiting rush.

The official opening of the programme in connection with the review began when the mayor's committee and the reception committee headed by Herman Ridder and Dr. John H. Finley, the chairman, put off to the flagship and gave the city's formal welcome to Rear Admiral Osterhaus and his men. The committeemen were cordially received and there was an extended exchange of felicitations.

The delegates voted to petition President Taft to defer the appointment of a successor to E. G. Valentine, Indian commissioner who resigned a month ago, until after the election.

Among officers elected for the coming year were: Rev. Dr. Sherman Coolidge of Fairbank, Minn., president, and Thomas L. Sloan of Fender, Neb., first vice president.

Canadian Serves Term as Judge in South Dakota

PIERRE, S. D., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—It is reported from up in Harding county that a lot of homesteaders in that section are wondering just where they are at, all because of the actions of County Judge George H. Jackson of that county, who has held that office for the last four years and is now a candidate for state attorney. It appears that while Jackson has held the position, that he has for all that time been a citizen of Canada, and this has just been brought out by his application for citizenship papers at this time. In the four years that Jackson has been county judge he has taken hundreds of final proofs, as judge of a court of record, and those who have made such proofs are fearful that they may be voided. Jackson up to the time he applied for citizenship papers had no application for state attorney, but it is reported that an independent candidate will be put in the field by petition.

Denizens of Levee Spread Through City

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Chicago has no south side "leaves" tonight. The segregated vice district which has been a brightly lighted, crowded quarter in the heart of the city, ever since the great fire of '71, was dark and deserted for the first time in forty years.

The "leaves" is populated, according to statistics collected by the vice commission, with 4,000 denizens of the under world, 2,200 of whom were women. The vice keepers today decided that State's Attorney Wayman meant war. They turned their inmates into the street and ordered them to seek lodgings in other parts of town. They closed their houses and dance halls and fled, some to conceal themselves in other cities. St. Louis was the mecca for many.

Meanwhile inmates of the illegal resorts to the number of nearly 1,500 poured into Michigan boulevard, the wide automobile driveway that is the main artery of communication between the north and south sides, and in the afternoon is the main thoroughfare for a fashionable parade of automobiles. The women had been ordered by resort keepers to dress themselves in their gaudiest dresses, to paint their faces with extra brilliance and to go out and find other places to live, for the present, at least.

Presidential Party on Long Auto Trip

DALTON, Mass., Oct. 6.—Under a cloudless sky the president and Mrs. Taft and Miss Mabel Boardman, their guest, rode for 182 miles today in a White House automobile from Beverly to Dalton. The party left Parametta, the president's summer cottage, shortly after 8 o'clock and made the run to Senator W. Murray Crane's front porch just outside of Dalton in six hours and twenty minutes.

The presidential party will rest in Dalton until Monday morning, when it begins the second day of the six-day motor trip through Vermont and New Hampshire.

The president made no speeches today and expects to make but few on the entire trip. He passed through many little towns, however, where the streets were filled with persons who evidently had heard of his coming. Frequently he was accorded hearty cheers. At the Palmer fair, outside Springfield, the White House car was driven around the race track, the president bowing to the crowds that rushed to the fences. He shook hands later with some of the fair's victors.

AUSTRIA ACCEDES TO BALKAN PEACE PLAN

Quick Action by United Powers Yet Result in A. P. T.ilities

COLLECTIVE NOTE TO BE SENT

Ottomans Must Give Guaranty of Reforms in Macedonia.

LEAVES NO EXCUSE FOR A WAR

Balkan States Will Have Accomplished Ostensible Object.

SLIGHT CHANGE IN PROPOSAL

Allies All Accept Suggestion with Exception of Great Britain, Which Will at Once Fall in Line.

PARIS, Oct. 6.—Australia has given adhesion to the plan formulated by the French and Russian foreign ministers to deal with the Balkan situation. Austria, however, suggested a slight change in the wording of the proposals, which met with the immediate approval of both M. Poincaré and M. Sazonoff. The only effect of the amendment is more sharply to define the intentions of the powers and present a more precise statement of them.

It is understood the proposals do not include a demand for the autonomy of Macedonia, but urge the adaptation of the provisions of Article No. 23 of the treaty of Berlin providing for a larger measure of home rule. It is believed here the proposals will remove any lurking suspicions in England that the continental powers possibly were contemplating a settlement wholly at the expense of Turkey. Germany and Italy have approved their ally's modifications; so that, with full adhesion of the British government which is expected tomorrow, the powers will be in position to say to the Balkan coalition that the Balkan states will no longer have to depend on the promises of Turkey, but in the pledged word of Europe.

Powers to Act Quickly.
The French government is confident that all the preliminaries will be completed in time to permit Russia and Austria, as the mandataries of Europe, to present a collective note to Sofia, Belgrade, Athens and Cetinje, tomorrow, or at the latest Tuesday. As soon as this is done, Turkey will be invited to give guaranties, which will render effective the promise that Europe will take upon its shoulders the responsibility for the realization of the reforms.

In official circles the feeling prevails that this guaranty offered by the powers ought to satisfy the Balkan states. As they profess their sole motive in mobilizing against Turkey was to force the reforms provided for in the treaty of Berlin.

Turks Win Fight on Border.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 6.—An engagement has taken place at Berana near the Montenegrin frontier between Turks and Montenegrins. The Montenegrins were repulsed, according to advices received here. The Turkish government, it is understood, views this affair as practically the beginning of hostilities.

Asim Bey, ex-minister of foreign affairs, has gone to Roumania to seek the support of that state in the Balkan difficulty.

A circular note has been addressed to the powers in which it is said: "The Ottoman people being ready to accept the latest challenge thrown down to it, is prepared to repel any attack on the security and dignity of the empire."

"The situation is therefore extremely grave and if the powers take too long to agree upon the forcible measures which the circumstances dictate, hostilities may be precipitated before intervention can be effected."

Customs Officers Seize Gould Gems

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Thirty-six pieces of baggage which Frank J. Gould, his wife and her three sisters brought to America when they arrived from France yesterday, are being held up by the customs authorities. With their contents of gems and gowns the trunks and cases are said to be valued at $100,000.

The seizure of the baggage has been made upon a technicality. Gould claimed he was entitled to have the baggage all entered free under the nonresident clause of the customs giving such right to an American who for two years has maintained a bona fide residence abroad. The customs authorities claim that Mr. Gould is not strictly in the nonresident class.

JUDGE COSGROVE RULES AGAINST SHERIFF M'SHANE

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Judge Cosgrove of the Lancaster district court has rendered the demurrer of the state to the petition of Felix J. McShane, jr., sheriff of Douglas county, yesterday. By this decision Sheriff McShane will receive but 19 cents per day for boarding prisoners after conviction.

On September 5, Sheriff McShane filed with the state auditor a claim for boarding a prisoner four days after conviction and for bringing him to the penitentiary. He charged 50 cents a day, or a total of $2. The auditor cut the claim to 19 cents per day and the sheriff appealed to the district court. It is understood that the case will be appealed to the supreme court, although the claim is but $124.

MOOSE ELECTORS TO RESIGN Will Quit Republican Ticket if Court Gives Progressive Place Upon It.

CULVER FILES TAFT PETITIONS
Practically Every County in State is Represented—Dr. J. Everist Cathell to Make Campaign Tour.

It is stated by prominent bull moosers that if the supreme court finally rules that the progressives shall have a place on the ballot this autumn under the party name "progressives," the six bull moose electors who are now holding places under the name of republicans will consent to resign and go on the ticket as the nominees of the progressives. F. M. Currie of Broken Bow, chairman of the republican state central committee, at headquarters in the Paxton, yesterday said he had talked with some prominent progressives of the state who had assured him that the state candidates were willing to have this done in case the supreme court grants the moosers a place on the ticket.

Vice Chairman Culver of the republican state committee late Saturday afternoon took the petition for Taft electors to Lincoln, where he filed it with the secretary of state. The petition carried 5,388 names, representing all of the counties of the First, Second, Third, and Fourth congressional districts. Of the thirty-six counties in the big Sixth district, all but seven are represented by the petitions and these are counties that either have no railroads at all or are barely touched by a railroad, so that the mail was very slow in getting there and back and the time for circulation of petition was short.

Of the Fifth district all but three have returned the petitions. The same conditions with regard to railroads and mail service exist in the measure in these counties.

In case the bull moosers should be given a place on the ticket in this state by a decision of the supreme court, and the six moose electors now holding places under the names of "republicans" should resign and go on the progressive ticket, the six filled by petition yesterday by the Taft forces could resign, and allow the six nominated by the state committee to go on under the regular republican head.

Chairman Currie says there is a surplus in store for the democrats this fall, as they are not the unit many believe they are.

"I have learned from both democrats and republicans," said Chairman Currie, "that a large number of the democrats, especially the old line ones who were popular years ago, are not going to support Wilson. I have been told this by some prominent democrats in the state and by some republicans. Besides this, there are a considerable number of democrats who are satisfied with the material conditions of the state and do not believe it wise to hazard a change of administration. These will support Taft. This latter class is not saying much about it, but Taft will receive a considerable vote from them."

Employ Dr. Cathell.

Dr. J. Everist Cathell has been employed by the state committee and is to start out this week to cover the First congressional district, speaking at the following places: Weeping Water, Syracuse, Auburn, Tecumseh and Haystack. Jacob Hauck of Omaha, the noted linguist who can speak fluently in some five languages, is to make a number of addresses during the latter part of the campaign throughout the state. He will be busy in Iowa until the last few weeks of the campaign.

Girl Killed by Rattlesnake.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Struck by the fangs of a rattlesnake and dying a few hours later was the fate of the little daughter of Mrs. Fannie Duchesneau, living in the Moreau river valley. The father of the child died some time ago.

Eight Lose Lives in Triple Collision of Autos on a Bridge

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—A collision on a bridge in which three automobiles were involved resulted in the deaths of eight men late tonight at Thirty-third and Thompson streets in this city.

One of the machines containing nine men came on the bridge at terrific speed. Its rapid approach was seen by John J. Spade, a Philadelphia contractor, who was going over the bridge in the opposite direction in a motor. He tried to avoid the car, but he was too late in steering out of its way and a collision occurred.

A third automobile was directly behind the speeding car, which ran into it with the result that the first machine was catapulted over the bridge and down into a coal yard, alongside the Pennsylvania railroad tracks.

The drop was about forty feet. The other two cars were damaged, but their occupants were unharmed and immediately went to the rescue of the others.

SEIDEL PREACHES SOCIALISM Former Mayor of Milwaukee Expounds His Party's Doctrine.

LAMBASTS THE BULL MOOSE
Accuses Roosevelt of Stealing the Socialist Platform and Trying to Steal His Way into Third Term.

Ernst Seidel, former mayor of Milwaukee and candidate for vice president on the socialist ticket, lammed the everlasting tar out of the bull moose movement and the "progressive" Colonel Theodore Roosevelt at an enthusiastic meeting at Washington hall Saturday night.

"He pleads for honesty," said Mr. Seidel, addressing nearly 400 comrades, "this man who was in the president's office for seven and a half years and discovered that he had to form an 'honest' party only when he couldn't get back in."

"And is it an honest party? Mr. Roosevelt has pilfered twenty-one planks of his platform from the socialist party. He had to call in a socialist to help him write planks that would appeal to the workmen."

"A few years ago Theodore Roosevelt raked together all the sins of modern society, all the greed, the lewdness and prejudice, and put it into an article and published it in the Outlook and said, 'See, this is socialism.'"

"And today Colonel Roosevelt, who charged Eugene V. Debs with supporting a policy that embraced all the conceivable vices and was too good to be his friend, walks up to this same Eugene V. Debs and says 'My brother, I have stolen our platform and our principles, but there is, we must admit, something of virtue in such a theft. But he has not only stolen our thunder. He has gone to every party and taken something from it."

"There is a story told to the effect that young relatives of the scientist, Charles Darwin, went into the fields and found many bugs and they took all the insects they gathered and using a part of each made them into a composite bug. Then they went to Darwin.

"See what a bug we have found. Tell us what it is," they said.

"Darwin examined it carefully and asked the boys if it hummed when they caught it, and he was assured that the way it hummed was marvelous.

BIG JACK ZELIG MURDERED Prospective Witness in Becker Trial Shot in Street Car.

REVENGE MOTIVE, SAYS SLAYER
Police Investigate Reports that East Side Gang Leader is Lured to Scene by Telephone Message.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—"Big Jack" Zelig was shot to death tonight. The east side gang leader and prospective witness in the trial of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, was seated in a Second avenue open trolley car when Philip Davidson, who says he is a fruit dealer, jumped on the running board and fired the fatal shot.

Davidson leaped from the car and ran away, but was caught, weapon in hand. He admitted the shooting and declared it was for revenge, the police say. According to the prisoner, Zelig had held him up at the point of a revolver late today in an east side hallway and robbed him of $400.

The police were at a loss whether to believe Davidson's story and at a late hour reports that Zelig had been lured to the scene of the shooting by a telephone message were being investigated.

Becker's Trial Will Begin.
Patrons of a Second avenue restaurant some distance away said Zelig, who was in that neighborhood earlier in the evening, had received a telephone call from someone who made an appointment to meet him at Fourteenth street and Second avenue. Zelig jumped on a car, the story ran, and a few moments later word flashed back to the restaurant that he had been shot.

Zelig, mortally wounded, was rushed to Bellevue hospital, but before the ambulance reached that institution he was dead. On his body, the police say, only $234 was found, although a well-dressed woman, whose identity was not learned, visited the Bellevue morgue not long after Zelig's death and asked the authorities to turn over to her $500 which she said Zelig had in his possession when he was shot.

The woman was detained by the morgue authorities they asserted. The police also detained Hyman Givervh, an east side resident, as a material witness. Givervh says he saw the shooting.

Slayer; Stranger to Police.
Little is known about Davidson. He told the police, they say, that he came to this city from Peekskill, N. Y., five or six days ago. He had been a fruit dealer, he said, but was not now in any business.

Only one shot was fired at Zelig. The bullet took effect back of the gang leader's right ear.

District Attorney Whitman, who is to conduct the Becker trial, interested himself in the Zelig murder as soon as he was notified. On Zelig's body several letters were found, including one signed "Whitey" Lewis and other prospective Becker trial witnesses are confined.

"Frank, Louis and Gyp send regards to you," a postscript to the letter read. "I want you to stop worrying about us," was another clause, "we are only up here on a very short vacation to have a good rest and fatten us up."

WAR DEPARTMENT FAVORS POST AT FORT RUSSELL

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—"The War department has never considered abandoning Fort D. A. Russell, and I believe that the department never will," said Brigadier General Clarence Edwards, who arrived today to assume command of the big brigade post.

"I understand it is the intention of the War department to make Fort Russell either an infantry or a cavalry brigade post within a short time."

WILSON SITS WITH BRYAN AT FAIRVIEW TALKING POLITICS

Democratic Leaders Agree Upon How to Handle Rocky Mountain States in Campaign.

NO DENIAL OF CABINET STORY

Commoner Does Not Say Would Not Accept Such Offer.

WIT AND HUMOR IN EVIDENCE

Distinguished Statesmen Vic with Each Other in Brilliance of Retort—Wilson's Adjectives Complimentary.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 6.—Governor (Woodrow) Wilson, presidential nominee of the democratic party, and William Jennings Bryan, three times democratic candidate for the same office, had a heart to heart talk here today on the political situation throughout the country. Both unhesitatingly predicted a democratic victory.

In the radiant sun parlor of Fairview, Mr. Bryan's home, the veteran campaigner and the new comer in national politics sat for hours, discussing the progress of the campaign, but with particular reference to the Rocky mountain states, where Mr. Bryan had just completed a six weeks' tour.

"We did not have time to go into the matter very thoroughly," said the governor. "We sat up late last night and agreed upon a method of handling the mountain states. That is as far as we got."

The governor did not think it would be possible for him to go to the Pacific coast.

"We are keeping open the last two and a half weeks of the campaign, however," he said, "and I do not know yet what use the campaign committee will make of them. I set out to make trips in the campaign, but the local committees have been making tours out of them."

The governor was delighted with his receipt in Nebraska.

"I think the demonstration in Lincoln was very remarkable, indeed," he said. "I have had a splendid time, especially with Mr. Bryan."

Thinks Thirteen is Lucky.
The candidate again spoke proudly of the fact that his "lucky number" followed him in Lincoln. He occupied room No. 113 at a hotel, which is on Thirteenth street, and delivered a speech at the Auditorium, which is also on Thirteenth street, besides making thirteen speeches in Nebraska.

The governor and his host, Mr. Bryan, went together to the Westminster Presbyterian church, where Mr. Bryan is an elder. After the services, the congregation gathered around the two men and an informal reception followed.

When the newspaper correspondents called at Fairview, Mr. Bryan and the nominee were being photographed together.

"These men," said the governor, introducing the correspondents by name, "have been my companions throughout the campaign."

"I only had four with me when I ran for office last and you seem to have a baker's dozen," remarked Mr. Bryan.

"Apparently it takes more of them to watch me," said the governor with a laugh, as he walked away seemingly happy that the newspaper were concentrating their attention on Mr. Bryan.

"They'll compare news with you after awhile," called Mr. Bryan after him.

Mr. Bryan said he watched the governor closely in his five speeches here and sized him up as a "first-rate campaigner, who adapts himself admirably to his crowds."

Conceded Nothing.
"I wouldn't concede any of the western states to either Taft or Roosevelt," he said speaking of the western situation.

"I wouldn't pick out any state and concede it to either Taft or Roosevelt. Not even California. I put Roosevelt and Taft in the same class. They may tie for second place. Governor Wilson is gaining strength so rapidly from both sides that he is certain of election by an overwhelming vote."

Mr. Bryan's attention was called to the fact that some newspapers were speculating as to what cabinet position he might occupy if Governor Wilson were elected.

"The newspapers haven't as much of importance to discuss then, as I have."
