MINNESOTA HARD AT WORK PREPARING FOR NEBRASKA

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 7.-With dinnesota's next game, that with Nebraska, scheduled for one week from next Saturday, the squad began today its heavy grind, which, it is hoped by the coaches, will result in marked imured in the game with South Dakota, was back in uniform again today, but it is said he will have a hard fight to regain his place in the backfield. McAlmon last Saturday played a fine game on one side of Tobin, and Hayward on the other side by his forty-three-yard run made possible three points of the five made by Minnesota. While Tobin and Tollefson today showed signs of hard work done in the Ames struggle, none of he team was seriously injured.

SYDNEY, Oct. 7.—Jack Leater, the American heavyweight puglist, was the victor today in a fight with Jack Howard, a middleweight boxer of New South Wales. The contest was stopped by the police in the thirteenth round. The sports ground in which it took place was crowded.

M. Schwab made a speech on the development of the steel industry. In the course of his remarks he mentioned a few of the men who has addisted in rollingmill development. One of them, it seems, was on his vacation when he fell in love with a handsome German girl. Upon his return to the works, he went a little further time off. Mr. Carnegie appeared much interested.

"Tell me about her," he said. "Is she short or is she tall, slender, willowy?" "Well, Mr. Carnegie," was the answer, and J. C. Great Britain for Intervention. PARIS, Oct. 8.-No confirmation of the report that Montenegro had declared war on Turkey has been received at the French Foreign office. The moment is one of great suspense. Great Britain today informed Premier Poincare that it now agrees to the suggestion that intervention at Constantinople should be made collectively by the ambassadors of the five great powers. An effort of the Bulgarian government to borrow $1,000,000 from a bank here has failed, Premier Poincare having advised against it.

Sage Restores Gray Hair to Natural Color

The old idea of using Sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Surely try a "Dondarine Hair Cleanse" ticle of Dandruff; cleanses, purifies and Our grandmothers had dark, glossy hair at seventy-five, while our mothers are gray before they are fifty. Our grandmothers kept their hair soft and glossy with a "Sage Tea," which also restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it. This objection has been overcome by the Wyeth Chemical Company of New York, who has placed on the market a superior preparation af Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp, and thin, weak, falling hair.
