CORONER COMES TOO LATE

Parents Hasten the Burial of Lad Killed by Automobile. JURY IS WITH THE CORONER They Hasten to the Home and Then Hurry to the Cemetery, but Are Too Late to Hold an Inquest. The body of Arthur Friedman, the 19-year-old boy, run over and killed by H. C. Boyles' automobile, driven by William Haynes, his colored chauffeur, Saturday afternoon at Fourteenth and Chicago streets, was buried Monday afternoon, scarcely nine hours after the boy died at St. Joseph's hospital. It was the intention of Coroner Crosby and County Attorney English to hold an inquest, but the sudden burial frustrated their plans. Shortly after the boy died the body was taken to the home, 1716 South Thirtieth street. Plans were made for immediate burial, without even notifying the coroner. About 12 o'clock Coroner Crosby heard that the boy was to be buried that day, and impelling a jury, rushed out to the Friedman home in order that the jury might see the body before it was buried. When he reached the residence the funeral procession had been on its way to the Fisher Jewish cemetery nearly an hour. Followed by his jury the coroner started for the cemetery, believing he could reach there before the body was buried. When the cemetery was reached the mourners were just leaving and the undertaker had just finished filling up the grave. William Haynes, the colored chauffeur, is out under $500 bonds for appearance in police court October 14. SASS TALKS TO AD CLUB MEN ON SALESMANSHIP N. P. Sass of the Thomas Kilpatrick company addressed the Omaha Ad club at a luncheon in the Pompeian room of the Brandeis stores on the subject of retail salesmanship. "We have four types of salesmen," said the speaker. "The promoter, the specialty salesman, the traveling salesman, the retail salesman. The retail salesman plays an important part, as 90 per cent of the world's product is sold at retail. Salesmanship is the convincing of another mind through superior knowledge and reason, and it is also called (positive politeness). "There are four essentials to successful salesmanship. They are endurance, reliability, ability and action. No man can be a successful salesman without any one of these. We have fifty-two positive or success qualities. One of the greatest is enthusiasm. Enthusiasm is the jacking screw that lifts mankind. Tact is saying the right thing at the right time and lack of tact loses many and many a sale." Key to the Situation—See Advertising.

PROPERTY BADLY DAMAGED

Appraisers Place 28th Avenue Dis-order at $12,000. REPORT LAID OVER TWO DAYS Special Meeting of Council Will Be Called Thursday Morning to Hear Protests from the Property Owners. Appraisers appointed to ascertain the damage to property holders due to the opening of Twenty-eighth avenue for the new forty-eight-inch water main reported to the council that property would be damaged in the sum of $12,000. This report was laid over until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, when a special meeting to discuss it will be held. Property owners are invited, if they have any protests, to attend this meeting. The council considered postponing action on the report until next Monday, but Water Commissioner Howell urged as quick action as possible, as contractors are now ready to work on this section of the main. Mr. Howell says these contractors will be held to their contract to complete the main within the next two months, and all claims for extension of time will be avoided if possible. Contractors are working large forces of men seven days a week. Sixth District to Name Man to Run in Place of Kinkaid A meeting of the district republican committee in the Sixth congressional district will be called within a very few days to nominate a candidate for congress to fill the vacancy left on the ticket by the resignation of Moses P. Kinkaid. Vice Chairman Culver of the republican state committee talked with Kinkaid on the telephone. Mr. Kinkaid reiterated the statement that he had resigned on account of ill health and said that plans were being made for a district meeting to nominate a man to take his place in the race. German Societies Go to Lincoln for Alliance Meeting

Representatives of all the German societies of Omaha, together with a large part of the membership of the Concordia society, left yesterday for Lincoln, where they will attend the annual celebration of the German Alliance of Nebraska. The Omaha delegation numbers about 150 persons, included among whom are prominent state officers. Val J. Peter, president of the alliance, is with the delegation and will make an address. He has just returned from Leavenworth, where he delivered the principal address at the German celebration there on Monday. Theodore Rudolph Reese is also a member of the Lincoln party, and he will direct the singing of the Concordia society. M'GOVERN WOULD HAVE FENDERS ON ALL AUTOS City Commissioner McGovern introduced an ordinance at the meeting of the council which, if passed, will compel all auto vehicle owners to provide their machines with an automatic fender to protect pedestrians. This ordinance, Hummel says, was introduced by request. A firm has patented a fender which it asserts will prevent fatal accidents. The fender is lowered by a foot clutch and scoops up anything in the way and bobs it around without battering it. An ordinance prepared by Commissioner Ryder designed to regulate all automobile traffic on the streets was also introduced. When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Grain Men Watch the Big Ball Game

Bulls and bears on the Omaha Board of Trade Tuesday pretended to be interested in grain quotations, shipping activities and scattering damage reports, but they were inclined to neglect serious thought of business and take earnest note of the base ball returns as they came in. There was no organized effort to receive returns among the grain men, but in all the commission offices the results of the game were wired in, and large crowds were gathered in all of the offices during the afternoon to see what was happening. CITIZENS MUST MAKE ALL FURTHER IMPROVEMENTS Citizens in the northwest part of the city who have requested the city commission to make street improvements will be told that any such improvements will have to be made by the property owners, owing to lack of funds in the several departments of city government. Commissioners Hummel, Butler, Kugel, McGovern, Ryder and Withnell made a tour of inspection and reached a decision that such improvements, while necessary, could not be started under existing conditions. Nobody is Too Old to learn that the sure way to cure a cough, cold or sore lungs is with Dr. King's New Discovery. 50c and $1.00. For sale by Beaton Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Letters of a Slim-Made Woman to Her Fat Sister

Second Letter: On the Horrors of Over-fatness. Dear Sis—You've heard the adage "Like Father, Like Son." Well, I never before thought of it applying to over-fatness until today. Clara Moore was here with her 18-year-old boy. He is enormous—weighs nearly 300 pounds. She came to ask how I reduced myself to my present slim trimness. Of course I told her about Marmola Prescription Tablets—how they contain exactly the same ingredients as the Marmola Prescription that took off my fat, and assured her they were perfectly harmless. said she'd be willing to buy a ton of them if they did any good at all. The boy is a tremendous eater and he is too lazy to take any exercise (all fat people are), but you know I stopped starving and exercising long before I started to take Marmola. That's the beauty of this wonderful method—it isn't dependent upon any other treatment. And I know I'm doing that boy a favor. In a few months, he'll be solid and smooth-skinned, with better figure and health than ever before and he need never again dread the extreme obesity that is now such a family trait. If more parents knew that for the they could purchase a large box of Marmola Prescription Tablets from their druggist or the Marmola Co. (Farm, Bldg., Detroit, Mich.), hereditary over-fatness would be a thing of the past. Don't you think so? Advertisement. BETTY.

This recipe makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough—stops even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price. Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 20 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (five cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, croup, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles. The effect of pine on the membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula. This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe has obtained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has often been imitated, though never successfully.
