The Declaration of War.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 8.—Prior to receiving his passports from the Turkish government the Montenegrin charge d'affaires, M. Plemenatz, handed the following note in behalf of his government to the port:

"I regret that Montenegro has exhausted without avail all amicable means of settling the numerous misunderstandings and conflicts which have constantly arisen with the Ottoman empire.

Cook Turns Mooser and Is Endorsed
COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—The Third district bull moose convention was held in this city today.

Instructions Given Sunday.
M. Plemenatz received instructions Sunday to declare war today, according to the Russian calendar, is the king of Montenegro's birthday.

Montenegrin forces, early this morning, attacked Barana, which at noon was surrounded. Skirmishes also are reported on the Serbian frontier and with Greek bands in the neighborhood of Diskata.

The opinion is deepening here that Montenegro was used as a catspaw by the other Balkan states in order to forestall European intervention and confront the powers with a fait accompli.

Late tonight the Bulgarian, Serbian and Greek ministers were still without instructions from their governments, but their baggage was packed in the expectation of a rupture at any moment.

SCOTT TELLS OF 'PHONE TALK

President Roosevelt, when Mr. Perkins was indicted, that he who had benefited by his contributions, supply funds to replace those he would have to return and for the use of which he was in trouble, I said I was willing to return the amount sent into West Virginia.

But the president said no; that if the money was to be returned it should be returned by the party as a whole.

Judge Lovett a Witness.
Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the executive committee of the Harriman system of roads, testified.

"I knew of Mr. Harriman's visit to Washington in October, 1904," he said. "He told me the national committee was 'in a hole' and owed the state committee $300,000. He said 'the president wants to help it out and I've got to do it.'"

"Some days later he came to my office and gave me some checks and cash, Mr. Bliss came and got them. The sum was $250,000. The checks were brokerage house checks and were endorsed to Mr. Bliss. I told him to send receipts to the contributors if he knew them. Less than $50,000 of the contributions were in currency."

Judge Lovett could not remember the names of any of the contributors, but after some urging, said he thought W. K. Vanderbilt was one.

"Mr. Harriman thought of making a contribution in 1908, but as it would have to be made public 'it would do more harm than good' under conditions existing then," added Judge Lovett.

The witness knew nothing of contributions in the pre-convention campaign of 1908.

Charles Taft Called.
Charles F. Taft, the president's brother, today told the Clapp committee he contributed $50,000 to the national campaign in 1908 and that $100,000 was re-

FIREMAN'S HEROISM SAVES LAD FROM DEATH UNDER ENGINE WHEELS

SIoux CITY, Ia., Oct. 9.—In a daring act of heroism, Milo C. Dodge, fireman on the Milwaukee railroad, last evening saved the life of Gerald Allard, the 24-year-old son of J. Allard, a South Dakota farmer, by crawling out on the pilot and kicking the child from the track as the train sped by.

The little boy, who landed in a ditch by the track, suffered minor injuries about the head and body.

When Engineer Ben A. Rose looked out of his cab window along the Milwaukee right-of-way between Jefferson and McCook, S. D., he observed a tiny form playing on the track. The engineer strained at the brakes and the whistle shrieked alarm.

The child was picking up pebbles and the train was approaching at thirty-five miles an hour. Seeing the train could not be stopped, Fireman Dodge jumped out on the running board and made his way to the pilot. While the train was going fifteen miles an hour he reached out with his foot and knocked the little boy from the track.

MONTENEGRIN ARMY IS ANNIHILATED BY TROOPS OF SULTAN

hope now that the representations of the powers will avert general hostilities.

Montenegro's move is considered in Paris to be part of a prearranged plan. It is asserted that Greece was first affected by the Balkan confederation to force the issue and inaugurate war.

Montenegro was then picked. It had a long standing quarrel with Turkey over the boundary question and Turkey's refusal to grant satisfaction was seized upon as justification for Montenegro's resort to arms.

It is not doubted here that cooler heads in Bulgaria have been against the war from the start, but popular excitement is at such a high pitch that the country will practically be driven to war to satisfy public opinion.

In the failure of intervention, every fiber of energy will be exerted by the great powers to prevent the war flame from engulfing Europe. It is realized that all depends upon the eventual attitude of Austria, which, according to late advice, has already mobilized four army corps in Croatia, Bosnia, Herzegovina and southern Hungary—and stands ready to occupy the sanjak of Novi-pazar should this coveted strategy territory be occupied by the Serbians and Montenegrins.

Great Nations Outwitted.
The real story of how the Balkan powers forestalled and outwitted European intervention is told in official advice from Cetinje.

The Declaration of War.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 8.—Prior to receiving his passports from the Turkish government the Montenegrin charge d'affaires, M. Plemenatz, handed the following note in behalf of his government to the port:

"I regret that Montenegro has exhausted without avail all amicable means of settling the numerous misunderstandings and conflicts which have constantly arisen with the Ottoman empire. With the authorization of King Nicholas I have the honor to inform you that from today the government of Montenegro ceases all relations with the Ottoman empire, leaving it to the arms of the Montenegrins to secure recognition of their rights and the rights, which have been ignored for centuries, of their brothers in the Ottoman empire.

"I am leaving Constantinople. The royal government will hand his passports to the Ottoman representative at Cetinje."

Shortly after the presentation of this note, which was accepted as a declaration of war, a council of war was held at the grand-vizierate. The session continued late into the night. The noted General Mahmoud Shekiet Pasha, who commanded the constitutional army and was formerly minister of war, was present. The city is patrolled by strong detachments of cavalry and infantry.

A state of siege prevails and there is much excitement, but no demonstrations are permitted.

Instructions Given Sunday.
M. Plemenatz received instructions Sunday to declare war today, according to the Russian calendar, is the king of Montenegro's birthday.

The Turkish view, as expressed by officials, is that Turkey was ready to enter into negotiations about the frontier disputes with Montenegro and hence Montenegro's complaint on this score was a mere pretext to precipitate a conflict before the powers were able to intervene.

Montenegrin forces, early this morning, attacked Barana, which at noon was surrounded. Skirmishes also are reported on the Serbian frontier and with Greek bands in the neighborhood of Diskata. An exchange of shots also has occurred near Djumabala, on the Bulgarian frontier.

The opinion is deepening here that Montenegro was used as a catspaw by the other Balkan states in order to forestall European intervention and confront the powers with a fait accompli.

Late tonight the Bulgarian, Serbian and Greek ministers were still without instructions from their governments, but their baggage was packed in the expectation of a rupture at any moment.

Greece has a standing army of about 25,000 men, and all subjects are required to serve eighteen months. Thus, most of the Greeks in this country, except the boys, are actually trained for service.

Lieutenant Colton says that 500 trained men can soon be mustered to advance upon the Turks. These, together with those of the Balkan states, will make a very formidable army.

Cold Coming? Go To Your Doctor
You may cough tomorrow! Better be prepared for it when it comes.

Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine at hand. Your doctor's approval of its use will certainly set all doubt at rest. Do as he says.
