THE OMAHA DAILY BEL FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR. BEE BUILDING, FARNAM AND 17TH. Entered at Omaha Postoffice as second-

TERMS OF SUCSCRIPTION. Evening and Sunday, per month..... 400
Evening without Sunday, per month... 25c
Daily Bee (including Sunday) per mo.. 35c
Daily Bee (without Sunday), per mo.. 35c
Address all complaints or irregularities in delivery to City Circulation Dept.

Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing company. Only 2-cent stamps received in payment of small accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha and eastern exchange, not tocepted.

OFFICES.
Omaha—The Bee building.
South Omaha—2218 N St.
Council Bluffs—14 No. Main St.
Lincoin—28 Little building.
Chicago—1041 Marquette building.
Kansas City—Reliance building.
New York—34 West Twenty-third.
St. Louis—448 Pierce building.
Washington—725 Fourteenth St. N. W.

CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and literial matter should be addressed make Bee. Editorial Department.

SEPTEMBER CIRCULATION.

50,154

Btate of Nebraska, County of Douglas, as:
Dwight Williams, circulation manager of The Bee Publishing company, being duly sworn, says that the average dally pirculation for the month of September, 1912, was 50,154. DWIGHT WILLIAMS, Circulation Manager.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn before me this 1st day of October,
ROBERT HUNTER,
S12. Notary Public.

Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as re

What a dark brown time they will have at Armageddon the morning bad years for the people? While each after.

Judge Parker must be the official convention chairman of the democratic party.

"Don't paint," Mayor Gaynor adures young women and girls. Another slap at art.

When it comes to money raising. the bull mooser says, "Let George do July$ 44,138,791 July$ 58,876,796 it." And George does.

A St. Louis clergyman calls bachelors moral cowards. Yes, and also tightwads. Soak 'em, parson.

Hard times can only come through ruth-ses tariff ripping.—New York Herald. And the democrats promise, iven power, to do the ripping.

Mr. Harriman doubtiess would have mjoyed being around about now.

Whether he goes back to belp save s country or not, the American eek has the price of the trip, all

At the risk of being slugged, we ire constrained to remark that the alkans are balking on the Turkey

ober beauties are more charming in lew York or Boston, base ballically

Certainly not. Mr. Morgan simply rave that $150,000 in 1904 in order to be giving. It is the way of philan-

Buenos Ayres has a grandstand built of solid marble. Suitable background for some ball players of Does Governor Wilson think he i telling anything new when he says the steel interests are backing the third term candidate?

If a wife is never justified in lying to her husband, what about the husbarrassing questions?

"Mr. Sulzer," says the New York Evening Post, "has been an unblushing spoilsman." Hence his nomination with Mr. Murphy's consent.

The candidates on the local democratic ticket have put it in writing vards or pavilions or menageries or that they favor the democratic na- parklets filled with deer, it has only tional, state and congressional nominees! Whom would they be expected to favor?

The colonel announces that he has something startling in store for the According to all present indications, the country also has something startling in store for the

The New York World calls the collection of large sums by high officials from big moneyed men "Government by Blackmail." What would it call denying the whole business in the face of incontrovertible truth?

The annual election of the Union of all directors, who in turn will reelect the present officers. A big corporation does not change its management when it is giving satisfaction.

It goes without saying that the ing the last two years with which no gonfallon of liberty and be done with him to a second term that it has been of this postmaster will be, except careers. "Take all three of them," he the invariable custom in this state to that it can scarcely be commensurate says, "and not one of them ever had to look for a job." From which it is to be sward in recognition of faithful ser- with even the helinous offense he has inferred that "all three" at the present vice in that strice.

War and War Clouds.

over eastern Europe so ominously that the formal declaration of war by the Balkan states against Turkey is not the startling piece of news it would otherwise be.

Conditions of unrest in eastern Europe, and around the Mediter- Thirty Years Agoranean, are such that open hostilities have long been threatened, and the $50,000 paving bonds. possibility of their spread clearly

War clouds have also been folappear alarming to us, our obliga-

None will gainsay that the Ameriers, that we prefer to remain in honorable peace with the world.

No one will question either that President Taft is sincerely devoted to resort. the cause of peace, and in all our foreign relations has peace for his guiding star.

With the clanking of arms resounding from the far east, and the smoke of battle rising in the south, the American people, before they vote at the coming election, should ask themselves these questions:

Whose hand is steady enough and experienced enough to be depended them to lend a hand again in completing on to avoid complications?

Under which president is the nation most likely to remain at peace and escape the horrors of war?

Prosperity Talks-III. President Taft been good years or one can best answer that question Dr. R. McDonald was home from th ter way of measuring the prosperity of a community has been found than the exhibit of bank clearings. How do this year with the corresponding period before President Taft became our chief executive? There is no trouble to get the figures, and here they are:

August ... 47,064,729 August ... 61,502,115 September. 48,525,120 September. 63,365,008 October .. 58,872,394 October .. 68,277,588 November. 43,224,839 November. 61,811,450 December.. 44,014,438 December.. 62,369,148 January .. 51,173,896 January .. 68,269,943 February . 41,811,803 February . 67,707,243 March 56,727,364 March 72,810,120 April 48,160,008 April 67,429,135 May 48,312,787 May 73,769,259

June 48,448,813 June 67,120,283

In four years the volume of Omaha's bank clearings has increased ing backward, or its business be sufmagnificent showing.

lief from the heat, but the Omaha undulating surface templed with of Commi October blend into a landscape of coloring no artist's brush could portray. It must have been such a place Walt Whitman had in mind when he wrote: "-leaves thick-falling, the ground brown with them already: rich coloring, yellow of all hues, pale and dark green, shades from lightest earth and gray of the sky."

In Riverview park, which gently recades from the Missouri river, affording commanding views off into vening between the hills and dales seemingly to add to the sweet melancholy of the autumn time. Where the hand of man has touched nature's been to enhance the beauty and appeal of nature.

And, besides Riverview, there are other beautiful parks in Omaha which make "loafing in the woods" as joyous as ever Whitman found it mid-way 'twixt winter and spring.

Confiscating Garden Seed.

A Vigrinia postmaster is under arrest for confiscating a package of man to one of his constituents. What obtuse cross-roads postmaster does not know that, though he might with impunity tamper with the pa- Jersey, reared in New York, trained in Moreover, must the most solemn presubject to the whim of a mere received 1302. C. W. Shaw received a Nasby? Take away from him his total of $6 in one day from different crats want the job, but the fact light to frank garden seed to all his persons for the privilege of picking in constituents and what would he have left? Might as well strike down the committed.

War clouds have been hovering looking Backward COMPILED PROM BEE FILES

OCT. 10.

The city council authorized the sale

New officers of the Yountg Men's Christian association are: President, P. C. Himebaugh; vice president, J. L. Mc-Cague; secretary, J. E. Davidson; trealowed by actual war, still waging in urer, William Fleming; directors, Warrer Mexico and in Central America to the Switzler for the Second Presbyterian, Dr. south of us. While in none of the P. S. Leisenring for the Lutheran, Dr. O. southern republics does the situation S. Wood for the First Baptist, E. L. Ware for the Congregational, J. W. Muir for the United Presbyterian, M. A. Lartions under the Monroe doctrine are sen for the Swedish Lutheran, George H. such that we cannot be insensible to Kerr for the Christian, M. G. McKoun for the Methodist, J. W. Johnson for the Eighteenth Street Methodist, N. W. Mercan people are a nation of peace-lov- rill for the South Methodist, E. E. Raynolds for Trinity.

The Pries brothers are stocking their lake one mile north of Florence with

Rev. C. W. Savidge of Minnesota has been appointed pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city by Bishop Merrill. Emma Abbott and her opera company

Mrs. Marble has removed her employment bureau to 1706 Burt street. The sisters in charge of St. Joseph' hospital publicly acknowledge assistance rendered by the women on two days in the making of bed clothing, and invite the work.

Twenty Years Ago-

are playing in Omaha.

Edgar Scott, referee, and John C. Wharton and E. M. Bartlett, attorneys for the interested parties, were back from Chicago, where they had been for Have the last four years under a week on the case of Nels Morris against Andrew Haas, involving $55,000. The suit was the outgrowth of a disputed partner-for himself as an individual, no bet- Pacific coast, where he spent two weeks. Henry Gibson returned from Colorado where he had been for some weeks, taking in Denver on the way home.

H. E. Palmer got back from New Jerthe bank clearings in Omaha compare sey and New York. He said the talk down east was all for Harrison. They regarded Adial Stevenson as a greenback democrat and Cleveland was steadily losng ground. H. C. Crumb left for Chicago in response to a telegram announcing the death of an intimate friend. B. H. Robison and other residents appeared before the Board of Fire and Poice Commissioners and asked for a fire alarm box near Twenty-sixth street and

Capitol avenue. Sol Smith Russell began his annual engagement in Omaha at the Boyd theater in "A Poor Relation."

Ten Years Ago-

Miss Lillian Miller won the final round

Morris E. Ward, representing a large from $579,464,967 to $792,108,090. eastern rallway supply house, was in the A pretty good increase. A city like city as the guest of E. L. Lomax, genours could not possibly have been go- eral agent of the Union Pacific. Mr. Ward was one of the editors of the old Omaha Daily Republican during the days fering seriously from vicious govern- of St. A. D. Balcombe's proprietorship. ment policies, while making that It was announced that Congressma.

speak at Schlitz' roof garden. The sum of $2,500, tied up by an junction issued by District Judge Scott The city man thinks mostly of his in 1897, became available for use by the county board in macademising the Florence road or boulevard. The injunction had been granted upon petition of Willman who forgets them in the autumn jam Van Dohren, William Peters, John misses much of their grandeur and H. Cryer, John McDonnell and Peter est primeval of 111 acres; its rolling, of Center street road. At the request for any purpose other than the paving trees of many descriptions, which in agreed to have the injunction dissolved.

People Talked About

palaces of New York City that placing a price tag on bread and butter does to richest red-all set in and toned not foreshadow a charge for a look-in. down by the prevailing brown of the Going out is where the fine work is George M. Camsey, reported about to retire after seven years as special agent of the Carnegie hero fund commi has traveled nearly 1,000,000 miles in that the adjoining state of Iowa, there are period and unearthed 115 genuine heroes little streamlets and lakelets inter- out of over 1,000 cases brought to his at-

Miss Margaret Valentine Kelly, who recently resigned as examiner of the bueau of the mint, will be succeeded by a man. She was assistant director of the masterpiece with walks or boule mint and received the highest salary paid any woman in the employment of the government.

James B. Haggin, the New York horse man and multi-millionaire, is now the tucky. He is credited with 10,000 acres The oldest living American railroad engineer is C. Augustus Jeffries, who is also the oldest pensioner of the Pennsylvania destroy the nation that the Pennsylvania railroad. He is 60 years of age, having been born in 1822 at Lancaster, Pa. He

Hon. William Sulzer, demor didate for governor of New York in man on his mother's side, born in Nev Tammany hall, and works a voice rated in the six-cylinder class. If that combine-

The extent of the blueberry Maine this year is indicated by the fact and Louislana country editors seem most time are running away from a job.

A YEAR WHICH MADE HISTORY

World-Shaking Convulsions of a Century Ago. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Let those who imagine that great over a large part of the country. With things never converged into such a short the creation of the courts in October, time in the past as they have done occaionally in our day, take a glance at the Delegations from all the Spanish-Amerinumber of centennials which are taking place this year, and see how widely they are distributed over the earth. Only three and a half months ago came the 100th anniversary of the beginning of the second conflict between the United States and England, an event which received attention from the leading journais of the two countries on June 18, the centenary of the declaration of war by the insurrections were under way which the United States congress. Immediately both countries started to consider what sort of recognition should be given to the peace anniversary, which arrives on December 24, 1913. On June 23 the French. Russian, British and other newspapers gave some space to the centennial of the crossing of the Niemen by Napoleon and the beginning of the war between France and Russia, a conflict, which, in one or other of its phases, had a vital effect on the subsequent history of Europe. A few days ago Russia observed the centenary fish, with a view to making it a popular of the burning of Moscow, which compelled Napoleon to evacuate that town, and begin the most disastrous retreat of

> And now, in Cadiz, the people are celebrating the 100th anniversary of the establishment of the first parliament which Spain ever saw. Why Cadiz? Because Madrid, at the time, was in possession of the French; Joseph Bonaparte, Napoleon's brother, was king of Spain; that country's native monarch. Ferdinand VII, was in retirement, and virtually a prisoner and absolutism was triumphant > > Areaway and Subway Tax.

of the thing proposed to be taxed, and of the rights of the city and of the prop-

The ownership is of two kinds. In on right of eminent domain, condemnation under them. Any good lawyer will find

A Plea for the Deaf.

of The Bee: an article headed "Dwyer for the Deaf at Omaha. His opposition joining the present school site is based in buying land out in the country some-

It don't not seem to matter much that ings of the deaf children should be made as beautiful as we can possibly make on are all right, and it cannot be of any more we allow them to mix with us the

Nothing surely can be gained by setting our regular schools self-supporting? No.

deaf at Omaha, and let us make it one of the best in this country. I know your Patriotism.

MINDEN, Neb., Oct. 8 .- To the Edito of The Bee: How old veterang look at

it. An old Pennsylvania veteran writes:

father of the democratic candidate was a

Virginia confederate soldier, fighting to

The Pennsylvania veteran's fears are shared also by nearly all his few hundred thousand remaining comrades-that,

Woodrow Wilson being elected president, will surely change from dogmatic to dropped from the rolls; shocked many to instant death, and then it took four years with his Hoke Smith in power and his

"order 228." to find friends to be restored.

kept all the old vets busy. And Cleveland was not a born traitor; simply had persistent proclivities to the southern as-veteran was fighting to save.

pragmatic so far as able.

FRANK FALBAUM.

our children.

dvantage to the children to be isolated be made nearly self-supporting.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 9.-To the Editor

XX.

erty holder therein.

easements are.

they stand.

demagogue rushes over the nation with shouts and screams, 'I am the original only 'progressive,' all others knaves or fools;" detracting attention from the real danger. Meanwhile the best qualified for momentous modern issues, calmly and wisely handling, determining questions which the intellectual giants of the world OMAHA, Oct. 8 .- To the Editor of The Bee: In all the discussion about area say are of vast import, of the gravest ever of consideration. and subway taxing, I have never seen a It makes a patriot sit up and think. question raised concerning the ownership

1812 the story of modern Spain began the southwestern end of the United States, belonged to Spain at that time

although in many parts of that region resulted in their separation from the par-

Manifestly, 1812 was a year of world-shaking convulsions. Directly or indirectly almost every country on the globe

York, St. Louis and San Francisco remind the world that our own age has no ground for boasting about the wonderful things which it has seen. Half way betweeen 1812 and 1912 stands a year in which some important contributions to history were made, although these con-operations at Forts Henry and Donelson.

Hampton Roads, Shiloh, New Orleans,

the Chickahominy-James Peninsula, the other places, and ending with Fredericksburg and Stone River, 1912, is, or will be, the semi-centenary of events whose influence every American feels to this hour.

JOEL HULL

A Conclusive Argument. CLINTON, Ia., Oct. 8 .- To the Editor of The Bee: In man's effort to be right, the city is the owner of the fee, and the what laws will stand the test for a base? property owner has acquired certain Inasmuch as great harm comes from easements, of which the city cannot dewrong laws, first consider, with the prive him, except by the exercise of the writer, the natural laws, the obligations resting on man to reason, to determine proceedings and payment of value to right from wrong; truth, to avoid decepproperty holders. Those easements exist tion of one another; equity, to withhold on the surface of the streets, and also taking from one another without respect to the right of the other. Those three in the decisions of the courts plenty of vital principles used together, being natcases that will define just what these ural laws, will test the correctness of any subject pertaining to civil control of Another kind of ownership is where the man. property holder has dedicated the street | All constitutions and all laws must conto the use of the public-retained the fee cede natural laws, obligations and prac--giving the public an easement for pas- tice. Why not nominate and elect all sage over and under the surface for officers by popular vote, with recall for water, gas, etc. These rights, it will be cause, to be determined by that vote and first place in the ladies' ping pong found, the courts have largely deter- without party lines? Then our republic It will be well that the city authorities bridled and sovereignty lodged in the citi--before they embark in this schemezens instead of in officials. That is a echo around the globe to develop the human race. It will cost less to live, and life will have fewer burdens. The leadership and the press of the past were unfair, and the obligations of the natural Opposed to Purchase of Land for the law were right all the time. It has fallen Deaf Students" has been printed here over to the people of the twentieth century to the name of T. O. Dwyer, one of the light the globe. As citizens we should board of trustees of the Nebraska School teach citizenship in all schools which conform to the obligations of natural law. on the roughness of the land. He seems to be greatly influenced by a scheme that Now is the opportunity to review. Evervone is wondering where to begin. where possibly isolated the school might | Keep cool and the light will show what to do. Economy in the cost of living can MARK MATTHEWS.

Bouquets All Around. Bee: Omaha's efficient police force has been deservedly complimented for the splendid manner in which Ak-Sar-Ben visitors were taken care of this year. Now, it occurs to me that the Omaha & Council Bluffe Street Railway company is entitled to a few deserved compliments as well. The immense crowds of people who thronged our streets during the ten days' season of Ak-Sar-Ben festivities were admirably handled, only two minor accidents being reported, and these, I am told, were due to rank carelessness on the part of the injured passengers, who us not look so much to trying to make admitted the fact. Omaha can truthfully this school self-supporting as to the boast of having the best street car servmental progress and enlightenment of ice of any city of its size in the United States-another thing to be prous of. And On the contrary, we cannot do enough with its modern equipment. The fire boys are surely there with the goods, which fact has frequently been demonstrated by the prompt subduing of big fires which might easily have resulted in great disaster but for the efficient work of Omaha's army of brave and cool-headed fire conscience agrees with me. Let Nebraska fighters. CHARLES E. FIELDS. 2210 Spencer street.

IMPOSING DOUGHBAG FIGURES.

Pittsburgh Dispatch: But if there were orders to return contributions from the Standard in 1904, were there none regarding $100,0000 contributions from other con

New York World: May not contrib tions to the doughbag at Armageddor also be linked to giving to the Red Cross! Perkins and Film in the uniform of nurses would give a new touch of holiness to the great battle.

Baltimore American: A practical candidate in discussing his need of cam paign contributions with a practical millionaire would never make the imprac tical blunder of soliciting his aid openly Nor does the walter openly ask for his tip, but both have a way of getting what Philadelphia Record: Of course Bos favors for every $100,000 of cold cash he spends in boosting Colonel Roosevelt. Flinn is "practical." There is no keener sport in the game of grab and graft than Flinn.

Philadelphia Ledger: No man of Mr. Flinn's type would expend $144,000 to When disloyalty, treachery, even treason, political contractor in Pittsburgh.

GRINS AND GROANS.

"I suppose you'll be glad when the elec-"I suppose you'll be glad when the elec-tion is over."
"I duna," replied Farmer Corntossel.
"Every little demand for farm products helps some, and I take it that some of us agriculturists ought to be doin a big business furnishin' straw for straw votes,"—Washington Star.

Jones-What's the matter with Poorley? ican countries, from the Rio Grande to He's been goin' with Miss Budd for some time. Hasn't he got the sand to Cape Horn, are taking part in the exercises. The event which they are cele-Brown-Oh, yes; but not the 'rocks' to get married.-Judge. brating meant much to them, for all of them, as well as Texas, New Mexico. Arizona, California and other parts of Hokus-I tell you, an operation for appendicitis is no joke!"

Pokus-No, but if it were it would be a side-splitting one.-Life.

"The dog you sent here this morning bit at us and then ran away." "He evidently determined he would show you a case of snap and go."-Balti-

"Coming into the city this morning I sat just behind two lawyers."
"Well, there was nothing remarkable was affected by them. The references to them which have been and are being about that." "There wasn't, ch? They were not talking shop."—Chicago Record-Herald. made by newspapers from St. Petersburg, Paris, Madrid and London to New

"I can't learn how Ptrimmer is going to vote this year. What ails him? "It's a complication of allments as usual. He has symptoms of Wilsonitis, moosopla, and elephantiasis, and he's Chafin under the collar."—Chicago Tribune.

"I'm very fond of watermelon," re-marked Mr. Gummey, "but it always gives me cramps." cerned the United States chiefly. This "Just wait till my idea is perfected," replied Mr. Glanders, "and then you can was 1862. Beginning with the battle of Mill Spring on January 19, including eat watermelon with impunity."
"What is your idea, may I ask?"

"To graft the watermelon to the malca ginger plant."-Lippincott's Magasecond Bull Run, Antietam, Corinth and

> "This assault on the witness' character is impossible to verify, because she is a dressmaker." What has that to do with it?" "A dressmaker is naturally obliged to live a pattern life."—Baltimore Amer-

"That sensational Mrs. Garble has been out shooting deer in Colorado with a "Did she shoot any?"

"Mercy! How did she contrive to hit She invariably aimed at the

"What is going on?" asked the terrified stranger, in Central America. "Revolution." replied the man in the

"Who is leader of the rebels?" "Don't know yet. That's what this fight is about."—Washington Star.

Mrs. Shortley was discussing the latest fashions with a young lady caller.
"Did you say your husband was fond of those clinging gowns, Mae?"
"Yes; he likes one to cling to me for about three years."—Lippincott's Maga-

Wife-Oh, George, do order a rat trap George—But you bought one last week.

-Wife-Yes, dear; but htre's a rate in that."-Philadelphia Bulletin.

Knicker-How does Jones manage to ave so much out of his salary?

Bocker—Inherited talent; his father a policeman and his mother was a chorus girl.—Judge.

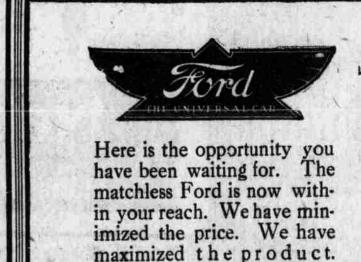

ROAD TO HAPPINESS.

Pacific Monthly.

This is the road to Happiness;
Start now from where you are;
"Turn to the right and keep straight on,"
And you'll not find it far.
Along the Path of Willing Feet,
And over Heartless Hill,
Across the field of Sweet Content,
The stream of Glad Good Will;
Then through the lane of Loving Heart,
The gate that's called Today,
And down the steps of Little Things
Into the Common Way.

And take the Cloak of Charity,
The staff of Wise Employ,
A loaf of Bread of Daily Grace,
A flask well filled with Joy;
A word of cheer, a helping hand, Some good to give or share, a bit of song, a high resolve, A hope, a smile, a prayer.

And in the Place of Duty Done, Beside the Door of Home, You'll find the House of Happiness— For happiness does not roam.

a Model T-for you. Runabout - - - -Touring Car . . . 600 800 Town Car · · ·

And we have made possible

These new prices, f. o. b. Detroit, with all equipment. An early order will mean an early delivery. Get particulars from Ford Motor Company, 1916 Harney street, or direct from the Detroit factory.

All automobile routes are shown in THE BEE ATLAS of Douglas, Sarpy and Washington counties, Nebraska: and Pottawattamie and Mills counties, Iowa.

It contains maps showing all the best wagon and automobile roads, as well as the street car lines, railroads, rural routes, etc.

It has maps of the large cities and the small towns; it shows all the land divisions, with names of owners; it gives the name and address of every farm owner; it has the population of all towns, and contains all census in-

This atlas, to be issued October 15, is so valuable that every automobile owner and every business house in these counties should possess

Bound in Cloth-Leather Back. Out October 15.

Send in your order now.

The Bee Publishing Co. Omaha, Neb.

SOLE DISTRIBUTORS

Elderly Folks! Calomel, Salts and Cathartics Aren't for You.

Harmless, gentle "Syrup of Figs" is best to cleanse your stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels of sour bile, decaying food, gases and clogged-up waste, the easy chair. You, whose steps are You must realize that your liver and ten Syrup of Figs. Then you are not drug-

Don't regard Syrup of Figs as physic. thartics. The help which Syrup of Figs gives to torpid liver and weak, sluggish bowels is harmless, natural and gentle. When eyes grow dim, you help them, Do the same with your liver and bowels when age makes them less active. There is nothing more important. Costive. enting food is clogged there and the

You old people. Syrup of Figs is par- bowels suck this decaying waste and poisake, please use only gentle, effective ging yourself, for Syrup of Figs is com posed of only luscious figs, senna and aromatics which cannot injure.

Price $5.00.

A teaspoonful to-night will gently, but thoroughly, move on and out of your system by morning all of the sour bile. poisonous fermenting food and closgedup waste matter without gripe, nausea or weakness

But get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." Refuse, with conclogged-up bowels mean that decaying, bears the name—prepared by the Califorperes of duots in these thirty feet of Advertisement.