Art Guild to Show In County Building

A meeting of the Omaha Art guild was held last evening at the Omaha public library and plans for the exhibit which will be held in the rotunds of the new county building for two weeks, commencing November 2, discussed. It was settled that the hours of the exhibit shall be from noon until 10 o'clock at night during week days and from 2 until 6 on Sundays. It was suggested by Doane Powell, who presided, that the exhibitors $25, a check for $1,000 and a note for $250 taken from him.

The highwaymen left him nearly unconscious on the street and he was found by Patrolman Unger, who took him to headquarters. Detectives were put on the trail of the robbers, but as the victim was unable to give good descriptions of them, slight hope is entertained for John Miller of Manila, Ia., was also held up and robbed by two white men in the same neighborhood. Two dollars were taken from him and he received three bad scalp wounds from a blackjack when he attempted to resist.

BARTENDER WOUNDED

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to

Undesirables Coming From Other Cities

With Chicago, Denver, Des Moines and Kansas City undergoing municipal "cleanups" and hundreds of undesirable men and women being deported daily, Omaha is becoming a veritable meeca. Although the city is "closed" in a strict meaning of the word, the undesirables are coming in squads and platoons. On Douglas street between Twelfth and Fourteenth early last night were nearly fifty women, and of these the majority were newcomers. On North Sixteenth street a like number of outcasts "worked" while on South Sixteenth in the vicinity of the larger hotels where traveling men and visitors congregate, many more

Many of these women are accompanied by men who, in some cases, are burglars and confidence men.

The police are almost powerless to act for the reason that the newcomers are unknown to them and only by the strictest vigilance can a few be caught and shipped out of the city.
