Charges Patent Infringement-The New York Scaffolding company of New York City has filed a bill of complaint in the United States district court against Egbert Whitney, a carpenter living at 1801 Vinton street, for infringement on a new scaffolding of which it claims to have the patent rights. The company asks damages to the extent of $5,000 and demands that Whitney be enjoined from further use of the invention.

Girl Issues Defi to Nellie Nakoyama

Taking exception to the statement made recently by Nellie Nakoyama, the champion woman jiu jitsu wrestler of Tokio, Japan, in which she said she could not find an American woman who would wrestle with her, Alma Faust of Des Moines visited the sporting editor of The Bee yesterday and challenged the girl from the orient. Alma Faust is the wife of Harry Faust, the American exponent of jiu jitsu, and is known over the country as the champion jiu jitsu wrestler of the United States. She is American born, and said she would wrestle Miss Nakoyama for any amount of money, anywhere, any place and at any time. Miss Nakoyama was informed of the challenge issued by Alma Faust, and said she would be more than glad to meet the American woman anywhere, and the sooner the better, and is confident she can throw her. The two girls will stage the match early next week.

HANDS ITCHED AND BURNED

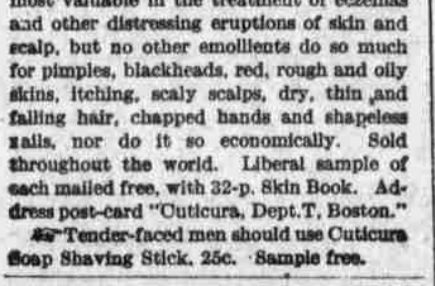

So Sore Could Not Close Them. Started With Rash. Just Terrible. Broke Into Sores, Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Him Entirely.

Abbottford, Wis.-"My son had eczema on his hands for about one year. The eczema started with a rash. His hands were sore so he could not close them, and when he wet his hands they hurt him so he could hardly wash. His hands itched and burned just terrible and if he would scratch them, they would break out into sores. He could not get any rest or sleep, and his hands looked quite bad.

"We had medicine and salve and it kept getting worse all the time. I got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after washing his hands with the Cuticura Soap and putting some of the Cuticura Ointment on two times a day and tying cloths on them for about six months they got well and have not broken out since. Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured him entirely." (Signed) Mrs. Laurence Kiehl, Feb. 12, 1912.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczemas and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but no other emollients do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough and oily skins, itching, scaly scalps, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapeless nails, nor do it so economically. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 22-c. skin book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

42-Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

WOMEN TO CENSOR SHOWS

Ryder Instructs Police Women to Visit the Theaters.

WILL CLOSE IMMORAL SHOWS

Visits Theater with His Wife and Finds Nothing He Thinks is Bad-Vulgar Stunts Must All Be Cut Out.

Police Commissioner Ryder has directed the policewomen to visit and censor shows, ordering all salacious parts cut out, and to see that the productions in the playhouses are not immoral the police commissioner will himself visit and inspect shows henceforth. He said he had visited one show and was displeased at the "cracks" several players made. The management told him that these players got away with such "stuff" on the opening night, although they had been instructed not to use it. They thought it was "cute" to say shady things. Mrs. Catherine Drummy, policewoman, was detailed to "cover" the Gayety and made a note of the parts of the performance that ought to be cut out and the management was so directed. Mrs. Drummy said the next night the play was given without the vulgar stunts. Mr. and Mrs. Ryder visited a show last night for the purpose of investigating some complaints that had been made, but the police commissioner said he found nothing offensive in the show. "If some of these shows are as bad as they are reported," said Police Commissioner Ryder, "I will close them up. They will be inspected frequently during the winter and we will not permit the production of immoral shows."

Prisoners Are Set Free from Jail on Forged Releases

Police Commissioner Ryder, Chief of Police Dunn and the Board of Education will investigate charges that prisoners have been released from the Douglas county jail on forged releases. Sheriff McShane made these charges to Police Commissioner Ryder Wednesday night and the police commissioner yesterday had the city commission pass a resolution ordering an investigation. Chief of Police Dunn says Police Judge Foster had denied issuing a "release" for Emma Coin, sentenced to thirty days in county jail for vagrancy and released five days later on a "release" which a rubber stamp signature of Foster was attached. Tom O'Connor, clerk of the police court, says he knows nothing about the forged releases. The handwriting on the Emma Coin document will be used to ascertain if any city employee has been toying with the instruments of justice. This Emma Coin release says the prisoner furnished a bond of $300, but the police judge asserts he never heard of her furnishing a bond and never signed the release, nor authorized anybody else to sign it. This was the only case McShane could discover, although he indicated that others had been called to his attention and that he would probably "spring" them in a day or two.

Motorcyclists in Future Must Leave Best Girl at Home

Motorcyclists must henceforth ride alone unless they have machines built especially for two. An ordinance was passed by the city council yesterday making it a misdemeanor for a young man to carry his best girl on a motorcycle, or anybody else for that matter. This prohibitory legislation was passed as an amendment to the "automobile regulation ordinance," which fixes new rules to govern auto traffic in the congested districts. Police Commissioner Ryder, who drew up the auto ordinance, submitted the amendment as an afterthought. He said motorcyclists were accustomed to carrying a passenger on the handle bars or above the gas tank right through the crowded streets, regardless of the danger. The auto ordinance prohibits automobiles from crowding at the curb in the congested districts, fixes the distance apart they shall be at all times, and regulates other vehicle and pedestrian traffic.

Pioneer Resident of Omaha Dies

Mrs. Anna Wille, aged 57, for forty-two years a resident of Omaha, died Wednesday morning after a lingering illness at her home, 1036 South Twenty-eighth street. She was born in Bohemia in 1855 and came to Omaha when 15 years of age, and has lived here since. She is survived by her husband, Christian Wille, and five children-Charles, Frank, Mrs. Eugene Atkins, Mary and Ruth, all of Omaha. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence. The body will be taken to Davenport, Ia., for cremation.

MEMBERS OF ART GUILD EXHIBIT CREATIVE WORKS

At the instigation of E. V. Parfish of the publicity bureau of the Omaha Commercial club, the first exhibition of the creative works of the members of the Omaha Art guild will be held during the meeting of the Nebraska Teachers' association the first week in November, when it is expected 2,000 state teachers will be in the city. The Douglas county commissioners have granted the guild the use of the large southeast room on the main floor of the new court house in which to hold the exhibition.

GRAFF'S AUTO IS STOLEN AND IS STILL MISSING

Superintendent E. U. Graff has lost an automobile. He left the machine standing in front of the Brandeis theater Wednesday night and shortly after 10 o'clock it was gone. Superintendent Graff notified the police and with the aid of the Ford people and the insurance companies, a search was made, but the machine was not found. The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

If you have ever fumed and fussed, because of dirt and grime and rust, and said unto yourself, "Oh, dear! This household work will kill, I fear!"-then it is time that you should find some other method far more kind.

Of all the woes a housewife bears, one always fills her day with cares: The kitchen after-meal-time mess, is quite enough to make one fuss. What, with the pots and pans, and the knives and forks and plates and cans, no task of man, however grim, the half as mean is handed him.

Two little willing workers aim to enter in this household game: their job, the lessening of work, a task that neither of them shirk. With active little hands and brains they grab the irksome household reins, till soon each kettle, pot or dish, is just as bright as you could wish. And not until the chores are done, from sink to silver, sun to sun, could anything inspire the two, to drop the tasks they have to do.

Therefore, if you have never known, assistance such as we have shown, your troubles end, where joy begins. Now, Mrs. Drudge, the Gold Dust Twins! Henceforth, as dishes congregate, and dingy pots that cannot wait; when cutlery, in sad array, awaits you at the close of day-"Cheer Up!" Forget the labor planned: You have two aids at your command.
