The worst thing Charley did, according to Jack's testimony today, was to borrow 10 on an automobile tire from an automobile company on Michigan avenue.

"He wrote a receipt on the tire in my name," said Jack. "He promised to redeem the tire and didn't do it. He also tried to get his hands on $3,000 worth of sable that belonged to my dead wife, but I didn't let him get away with that.

"It's just a case of too much brotherly love on my part. I let him have lots of money and then he goes and four flushes around and sponges on my friends. So I'm having him taken into court for his own protection.

"Ain't it better that I protect him than circles in Chicago and is a leader among anybody else? Ain't that brotherly love? "What gets me is that people should ring was a striking piece of jeweiry and, take that boy for me and think he's a world's champion."

Charley is 23 years old and undersized. "I ain't a fighter," is his frequent remark. "My eyes is too prominent. It pains me to be hit on them." Jack said he was mortified that his brother should "How could any sensible person let him sign the name of 'Jack Johnson' to a check and get away with it is a mystery to me," said the champion.

Mrs. Tiny Johnson, mother of Jack and Charley, was in court and pleaded for er erring son, but Jack would not give way and Judge Newcomer declared he couldn't listen to her. "This case is, being conducted under Marquis of Queensbury rules," he said.

Charley demanded a jury trial. The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to

RID OF RHEU

Rubbing with liniments, blistering the affected parts, plasters, etc., are usually helpful in relieving the pains and aches of Rheumatism, but such treatment does not get rid of the disease, because it does not reach its source. Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the blood. This acid circulating through the system acts as an irritant to the nerves, muscles and joints, and produces the inflammation and swelling, and sharp cutting pains characteristic of the trouble. Then Rheumatism becharacteristic of the trouble. Then Kneumatism be-comes chronic and not only a painful but a dangerous disease. S. S. S., the greatest vegetable remedy, goes into the circulation, neutralizes and removes the uric acid, and by building up the thin, sour blood, safely and surely cures the disease. S. S. Western Muffins.

Mix together one and a half pints of flour. half pint of cornmeal, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one table spoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt. Work in one tablespoonful of butter or lard, beat and add three eggs, one pint of milk and beat the whole quickly into a firm batter. The muffin rings should not as a rule be more than half filled. The griddle should be hot and well greased to receive the rings. When the batter rises to the top the muffins are usually ready to turn.

Peach Jelly.

The juice of a can of peaches with a gill of lemon juice, making a pint in all, is very nice if when the jelly begins to harden you stir in the peaches cut small. You may cool this jelly in layers, and as each layer gets firm put in a layer offresh peaches, sweetened and cut small. Pour over more of the cool but not stiffened jelly and continue until the mould is full. When firm and cold serve with whipped cream.

Ginger Apple or Pear.

Pare, slice and throw in cold water. Make same old syrup, add ginger root and let simmer slowly till red and transparent.

Mustard Pickles. 2,209 One quart large pickles, cut in cubes; one quart small green tomatoes, one quart small onions, one bunch of celery, one large head of cauliflower, four green peppers, cut fine, will be needed for this recipe. Make a brine of four quarts of water, one pint of salt. Let them 2.010 soak in this twenty-four hours, then heat just enough to scald. Turn into colonder to drain. Mix one cupful of flour six teaspoonfuls ground mustard and one teaspoonful tumeric, with enough cold vinegar to make smooth paste. Add one cupful sugar and enough vinegar to make two quarts in all. Boll until it thickens. stirring all the time. Add the pickles and cook until heated through.

Madras Omelet.

Boil a tablespoonful of rice in milk until soft, add to this a tablespoonful of butter, salt, pepper and a very little nutmeg. While the rice is cooling prepare a filling of vegetables. Any vegetables will do, but there must be three or four kinds, and all in small pieces. Saute these slightly in butter and with a little curry paste. Melt a tablespoonful of butter in an omelet pan and add rice into which have been stirred the beaten whites and yolks of two eggs. When cooked turn it on a hot platter and add vegetables. Summer Plum Pudding.

Press rich stewed plums through a coarse sieve and measure the pulp. To each pint allow one and one-half tablespoonfuls of cornstarch. Mix the cornstarch smoothly with a little cold water 1.735 Bring the plums, pulp and juice to a boil,
