

Brooks "Society Brand" Clothes S. E. Corner of 16th and Harney Sts.

I Want to Show "Society" Brand Suits & Overcoats to the fellows who cast critical eyes o'er a garment—the chaps who match, measure and mark. I want to catch their opinions, expressions, and "Side remarks."

I seek no favors because I am "George;" all I want is a frank expression of approval, if approval is due. There are NO other ready-to-wear clothes so perfect in outline as "Societies;" I know it; there are NO fabrics more timely or wearworthy and I know THAT too.

The "Tax" is NOT prohibitive; My smartest "Society" Brand Suits and Overcoats sell at $20 to $35

But Listen!

There must be a "next best" to "Society" brand suits and overcoats and yours truly HAS it. For snappy, authoritatively styled, excellently materialized garments at EXCEEDINGLY popular prices, I would respectfully suggest "Brooks' Own" at—

$15 - $20 - $25

Nebraska STATE FAIR SETTLEMENTS Board of Managers Meets to Discuss Various Plans.

AGRICULTURAL HALLS NEEDED Next Legislature May Be Asked for Money to Construct Needed Buildings—Reputation of Fair is Widespread.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—The state board of managers of the state fair met yesterday afternoon and took up various matters, among them a proposition to build a new swine judging building and new swine pens. Several members of the swine breeders' association were present and urged the board to take some action in the matter, but announced that they would not insist too hard as they desired some action taken toward an appropriation for the manufacture of hog cholera serum. The last legislature made an appropriation of $15,000 for its manufacture, but the association claims that more money is needed.

Another matter which came before the board was that of asking the legislature for an appropriation for a horticultural and agricultural hall combined. They said that both of the old buildings would need extensive repairs before another fair and it would be good economy to put that money into a fund for new buildings. It was thought by the board that floors should be laid in the buildings recently built and Secretary Mellor and Mr. Ridge were appointed a committee to ascertain the cost of flooring the machinery hall, grandstand, coliseum and put new roofs on the auditorium and the automobile hall.

Mellor Hits Back. H. M. Bushnell, editor of the Lincoln Trade Review, one of the head bull moosers of the city, has assailed the manner of nominating candidates of the Lincoln Commercial club and says it is too much like the way they elect officers on the board of agriculture, where they perpetuate themselves. Secretary Mellor of the State Board of Agriculture, call Mr. Bushnell and says: "All nominations on the state board are made in open meeting and the elections are in open meeting, and if Mr. Bushnell is a progressive man he should know that fact."

When asked about the method of electing officers on the state board this morning, Mr. Mellor said: "The nominations for officers are made in open meeting and any outsider has right to nominate any person he chooses. In fact, that has been done. Then the election is held under the Australian system and every member of the board has the same chance as any other member to select the officials."

"I do not know why Mr. Bushnell should go out of his way to knock the state fair board, unless he considers that a progressive prerogative. We have been electing officials on the state board of agriculture in the progressive way for several years and Mr. Bushnell ought to have known it."

Mr. Mellor then exhibited one of the ballots used at the last election, which shows that there were three candidates for members of the board from the First district, two from the Second, five from the Third, six from the Fourth, six from the Fifth and one from the Sixth.

Fair's Reputation Wide. Frank Odell, secretary of the rural life commission has returned from California and says that the reputation of the Nebraska state fair as an educator, has gone to the Pacific coast and that Secretary Mellor's contention that the state fair was a greater educator than the university, or at least that it reached farther is already bearing fruit and other state fairs are awakening to the fact that they too can accomplish results by following in the lead of the Nebraska state fair and make their institutions instruments of great benefit along educational lines.

Republicans Organize for Support of Taft NEBRASKA CITY, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—The regular republicans were busy circulating petitions for the purpose of organizing a National Republican club. It will start out with a membership of at least 100. Members will be known as supporters of Taft, but will have nothing to do with local politics. The followers of Roosevelt have so far made no effort to organize and it doubtful if they will.

NORTH BEND WOMAN MARRIED IN THE BLUFFS NORTH BEND, Neb., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—The marriage of Mrs. Louise Gorgen, proprietress of the Gorgen hotel of this city, and Frank Mahar of St. Louis, foreman of the steel bridge construction work, took place at Council Bluffs yesterday. They were accompanied by George Neumeyer and Ethel Neumeyer of Fremont.

Half-Minute Store Talk

A fellow came in here the other day to look at a suit and it only took him a few minutes to find and buy one. He said he had gone to another store because they put up a pretty good line of talk, but that their clothing stock was so much smaller than their talk that he considered he had wasted his time. He said there was only one place, after all, where a fellow could readily find what he wanted at a price he wanted to pay and that place was this store. We've often hinted at that, but some fellows will persist in looking around when down deep in their heart-of-hearts they know they can't be satisfied elsewhere. However, they always land here at the end of their wild goose chase.

OMAHA'S ONLY MODERN CLOTHING STORE King-Swanson Co. 16th & HOWARD STS. F. S. KING, PRES. THE HOME OF QUALITY CLOTHES A. S. PECK, SEC. TREAS.

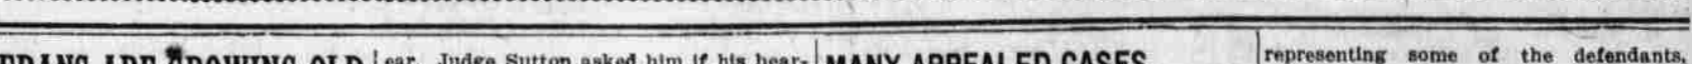

Perhaps you don't believe what you read in advertisements, but-- you'll believe this if you visit our store.

We know there is a deep-seated prejudice in the minds of some people against store advertising—and we don't blame them, to a certain extent—every store claiming to be the best and selling the best clothing, when common sense tells any one that there can be only one "best." Common consent confers that title on this store. It is the largest, lightest, airiest store in the Western country. No one disputes it. It maintains a store service so pleasant, so painstaking, so different, that puny attempts at imitation are found on every side. Its stock is always new and clean and noticeably the largest hereabouts. Being able to buy in larger quantities by reason of our larger outlet, we are able to sell for less money, and it is fast and easily demonstrated upon investigation. More than that, our interest in the merit of our clothing doesn't end when the garments leave the store—we stand back of them in the way of our behavior afterwards. These facts are indisputable. Can you refuse to believe our advertised claim that this is the "best" store in which to buy your clothing?

Boxing Carnival Planned. RAVENNA, Neb., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Arrangements for what is believed to be the best boxing program ever arranged here have been completed and were announced yesterday. Tom McCarthy of Ravenna will engage Joe Miller of Lincoln for ten rounds, Joe McCarthy and Billy King will mix for four rounds and "Fifty" McCarthy and "Mose" will open the show with a three-round preliminary. The boxing is to be held at the Turner Hall next Wednesday evening.

Admits the Charges. BROKEN BOW, Neb., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Inmates of the Custer county poor farm have brought charges of cruelty against J. T. Radcliff, superintendent, claiming that he had beaten them. He does not deny striking some of the inmates, but says it was necessary.

West Point News Notes. WEST POINT, Neb., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Mrs. Elizabeth Lomemann reached her eighty-fourth year on Monday in good health. She was one of the first settlers in Cuming county. William Ward, an old resident of Bancroft, is dead. He was president of the Citizens bank of Bancroft.

Walnuts Plentiful While Vegetables Are Getting Scarce

Walnuts probably are the newest edible on the Omaha market. Pickers have beaten the frosts to them and other nuts known to this immediate locality and are bringing them into the stores to be sold. Home grown walnuts may be bought now at 20 cents a half peck, which is not much profit for the small boy who gathers them and stains his hands. Several kind of vegetables which have become almost necessities of the table are becoming scarce. Tomatoes especially are becoming scarce. They are selling at 50 cents a market basket. String beans have risen about a nickel a quart in the last week, selling now at 15 cents a quart. Wax beans are the same in price. Cauliflower is selling at 15 cents a pound, while Brussels sprouts may be had at 35 cents a quart box. Spinach is becoming scarce, having now reached the price of 35 cents a peck. French endive for salads is something new on the market. Enough for a meal for a medium sized family may be bought for 50 cents. Cucumbers have advanced mightily, those of ordinary size selling at two for 25 cents. Rutabagas may be had at two pounds for a nickel. Grape fruit are 19 and 25 cents apiece. Beets and carrots are retailing two pounds for 5 cents. Concord grapes are priced at 25 cents a hand basket, while Tokay grapes are 5 and 10 cents a bushel. Oranges are rather high. In fact, they have advanced 15 cents a dozen in the last couple weeks and are now selling at 45 and 50 cents for the best. Limes are priced at 30 cents a dozen, the same price as peaches.

Grand Island Institution Must Have Hospital Facilities.

OFFICER BACK FROM INSPECTION

Supreme Court Listens to Argument in Corryell vs. State Automobile Law Test from Nemaha County.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Secretary of State Wait and Land Commissioner Cowles returned from Grand Island this morning, where they inspected the soldiers' home and looked into the matter of buying a steam heater for one of the buildings. Mr. Wait says there are 535 members enrolled now, 215 of whom are women. There are forty-one out on parole and 100 in the hospital. "The hospital proposition is one that will confront us to a large extent in the next five years," said Mr. Wait. "Many of the old boys are getting along in years and a large number are suffering from disease contracted in the army and it is natural to expect that as they grow older that they will grow weaker. Many of them have been able to stave off any serious complications because of a more or less rugged constitution, but as the years come on they naturally give way and we have got to see that their last days are made as comfortable as possible. In years to come many will have to be employed and the institution will as a matter of natural consequence develop more into a hospital than anything else."

Automobile Law Test.

The case of Corryell vs. state, which came up from Nemaha county was heard in supreme court yesterday. This is the case where a man by the name of Corryell had been arrested for allowing his young son to run an automobile contrary to the law. The case came up on three counts. One for allowing a minor to run an automobile, one for turning into the road within thirty feet of another vehicle after passing and the other for allowing the boy to drive the machine while passing the other vehicle Mr. Corryell made the defense that while the boy was operating the steering wheel, he himself had his hand on the wheel and his foot on the brakes. He also set forth that the law was unconstitutional in that the title to the bill gave greater power than did the bill itself.

Complaints of Agents.

So many complaints have come to the office of the state superintendent of public instruction of book agents who are working schemes in the country to sell books to children that Superintendent Deibel has found it necessary to issue the following letter to county superintendents: Several county superintendents have recently called our attention to certain unscrupulous book agents now abroad in the state, who enter the school houses and take the time which properly belongs to the children, soliciting the purchase of books. This office is opposed to giving agents any time during school hours and recommends that the county superintendents use their influence in checking any such system of solicitation. I also caution you to keep on the guard so that your teachers may be notified, in case the agents enter your county, before any material headway can be made. A general letter at once from you to the teachers of your county in regard to this matter will place your teachers on their guard.

SCIENTIFIC HEARING DOES NOT GO WITH JUDGE

Scientific action is no substitute for hearing in the case of a man serving as a juror. Judge A. L. Sutton of the district court so held when a jury was being impaneled to try the damage suit of Paul Nickel against Robert Butke. Julius Lund, one of the prospective jurors, when being examined by the attorneys, leaned forward and cupped his ear. Judge Sutton asked him if his hearing was poor. "I can't hear very well," said Lund, "but that's all right. I don't go by talk, I go by scientific action." The court excused Lund, saying scientific action might be all right, but jurors must be able to hear. D. Condon, another juror, was excused on account of defective hearing. He didn't know anything about scientific action. Nickel is asking damages of $5,000 because while he was working for Butke, a contractor, his foot was caught in a gasoline engine and severely crushed.

MANY APPEALED CASES DISMISSED BY LESLIE

Appealed police court cases to the number of 150 were continued indefinitely by Judge Leslie in district court. Six police court appeals were dismissed for want of prosecution. It appears likely that the entire number ultimately will be dismissed as the prosecuting witnesses in nearly all the cases cannot be located now. Some of the cases originated as long ago as 1906; many are two or three years old. John M. Macfarland and Carroll Wright, representing some of the defendants, moved to dismiss because the cases were not brought up for hearing in the first district court term following the police court convictions, but these motions Judge Leslie overruled.

DEATH RECORD

Mrs. J. Talmage. AMOY, China, Oct. 11.—Mrs. J. Talmage, sister-in-law of the late Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage, died here this morning and was buried in the afternoon. Interment took place in the mission cemetery at Kuliangau.

WHAT'S LEFT, MUST BE SOLD BY NOVEMBER 1ST

Our Ak-Sar-Ben business was very fine. Better than we expected. Several orders that were to be here for Ak-Sar-Ben trade, did not get to Omaha until two days before the end of the festival. Therefore we have on our floors about thirty (30) of the

GREATEST OF PIANO BARGAINS

THE CAREFUL AND ECONOMICAL BUYER should come and see what we are offering. For the next few weeks, we have decided to deny ourselves all profit from our Piano business. Being convinced that our purchases for the Xmas trade will require every inch of floor space in our Piano warehouses and that the space occupied by the instruments we now have is more profitable than the profits we usually get from the Pianos now occupying the space means

A Saving of From 30 to 60 Per Cent on any purchase you may make. It would pay you to buy now for your Xmas present if you are thinking of giving to someone so desirable a gift as a piano. Think it over.

We never carry Pianos of the inferior grades, although our prices are as low as some that do.

We sell for cash or if you wish TERMS they can be so arranged that the payments will not inconvenience you in the least. We give to each and every purchaser a Guarantee that Protects.

The fact that we always sell the HIGHEST QUALITIES at the LOWEST PRICES and on the EASIEST TERMS should compel you to visit us before making your Piano Purchase this Fall.
