morning of fresh receipts and in sequence values remain nominally seme as on Friday and the day before. Sellers have had a very satisfactory week in sheep and lambs. The tetal supply has been moderately large, but short of last week and less than two weeks ago. The receipts also fell below Wyoming is now the chief contributor. Although the market has been fairly well supplied on most days for this time of the year, everything on the killing order sold almost as readily as the packet buyers could conveniently get at it. The packing interests evidently had a good outlet for the big majority of the fat outlet for the big majority of the fat offerings and in consequence a very fair ciedrance was effected daily in good season. A bullish feature of this week's 2,623 for dressed mutton in the east. Another uplifting influence was the strong posi-tion of the general trade at other live stock centers. Prime killing iambs trade was the revival of a broad demand stock centers. Prime killing lambs reached as high as $5.60 during the week reached as migh as solo during the week with the buik of the good killers selling around $6.2566.40. The consensus of opinion among salesmen seems to be that lambs are anywhere from strong to 1000 ago, par yearings show about the same improvement as lambs. Plenty of buyers were here from the country wanting feeders. As both feeding sheep and lambs were in sufficiently large ing around of and so round's were selling late in the week at $6.0075.20, the coarse heavy kinds and extremely fine woold grades being disposed of less readily than the most desirable kinds. The small end of the offerings in first hands was taken by the packer buyers at about a nickel advance, while the majority of the holdings was secured by speculators and shippers at prices gen-erally 561cc higher. As is usual when the supply is comparatively light speculators brought freely, thus competing the pack-ers to finish filling their orders with hogs if form second hands. Although a strong tone was apparent in the trade, business at no time could be described as any bet-ter than fairly lively, the yards being well cleared by 10 o'clock. Two or three loads that came in on a late train sold in about the same notones as the previous sales. It magint be mentioned that the general trade at other markets, accord-ing to early messages, was in very satis-factory shape, prices being reported as strong and a shade higher. A feature of today's local trade was the fact that the $3 limit was reached with a load of very theice pure-bred Berkshits hogs. This is the high mark for the year and the record price since October. 1800 when $9.05 was paid. Buik of 15day's offerings sold around $5.5558.95. Considering the size of the receipts quite a sprinkling of pigs was in evidence, in the neighborhood of 400 head being re-ported in. They sold iargely at 35.559 6.75. The whole supply amounted to about thirty-four cars, or 2,300 head, as agains 3,322 head a week ago, 2,310 two weeks ago and 2,249 on the same day last year.
