Our Magazine Page will interest every woman who likes good heart-to-heart talks with other sympathetic women THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

THE WEATHER. Generally Fair

IS SLIGHTLY HURT

ASSAILANTTAKEN

Former President Hit by Bullet

While Resting at a Hitel in SEIZES

Man Hurried Away to Police Station

in Patrol Wagon.

COLONEL SAYS HE IS NOT HURT

Goes on About His Business as Usual

Denying Injury.

PUTS QUESTIONS TO ASSAILANT

Man Who Attempts to Kill Colonel

Roosevelt Reported to be Socialist, According to Early

Information.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 14 .-

Theodore Roosevelt was shot and Milwaukee.

VOL. XLII-NO. 102.

OMAHA, TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 15, 1912-TEN PAGES.

SINGLE COPY TWO CENTS.

WYOMING CONVICTS CHASED TO HILLS SOUTH OF RAWLINS

Another Outbreak Occurs, During Which Number of Prisoners Escape from Penitentiary.

ONE IS SHOT IN RUNNING BATTLE Citizen of Town Killed While Walking Upon Streets.

PEOPLE OF COUNTRY IN TERROR Prisoners Believed to Have Been Trapped in Canyon.

HAVE GUNS AND REVOLVERS Hard Fight is Expected When the Officers Attempt to Capture the Men Who Are Now at Large.

trapped in a canyon just south of Rawthroughout the night is expected momen-

The men in hiding were among the Jacob H. Schiff gave $2,500. dozen or more convicts who escaped from the state prison here late yesterday after they had overpowered the guards within the prison, took their weapons from them and fled down the main streets and through yar is of private homes, terrorizing men, women and children.

The convicts paused in their mad rush for freedom when they came upon a livery barn, secured mounts, then sped Governor Hugh L. Nichols, of Ohio, mantoward the hills before citizens could arm and give chase.

escaped, it was said, would not be known definitely at the prison until those remaining are lined up for roll call sometime today. Owing to the excitement in witnesses to testify today. Rawlins the total causalties are unknown.

Mexican Leaders Shot. Antone Pazo, a Mexican, who acted as liberty, was shot today by Deputy Sheriff started on horseback for the hills after knowledge. slashing Bert Talbert across the face and head with a butcher knife. Talbert is the owner of the livery barn. Charles Stressner, a barber, was shot to death while walking along the street, apparently unaware that the convicts had escaped. A negro convict was seen to fire at Stressner.

Five of the convicts who escaped yesterday-Eliott, Frazier, Stewart, Burke and Gilmore-were captured last night, They had sought refuge in cellars of private homes, in box cars and in outfered little resistance.

Desperate fighting was reported in the killed there, were unconfirmed.

Convicts Join Forces. Eleven of the twenty convicts who broke out of the penitentiary Saturday were at large this morning and it was believed those escaped vesterday have joined forces with their fellows who escaped Saturday.

Warden Felix Alston and a posse of citizens and prison guards were return. paign. He said he had no knowledge of ing to Rawlins after a fruitless search for the convicts who escaped Saturday and did not know of the second delivery until he reached Rawlins today. A company of Wyoming state militia under arms were late in the night informed from Governor Carey's office that their services would not be needed. Governor Carey by telephone gave his sanction to a request made by the mayor of Rawlins that he be authorized to surround the prison with armed citizens. The line was quickly established and had a quieting effect upon the 300 or more con-gang of bandits who terrorized Wyoming for months, was said to have succeeded Antonio Pazo as leader of the convicts now in the nills.

PRISONERS MUTINY AND ESCAPE

Fice to Hills, Where Desperate Battl eTakes Place. inside the walls with hundreds of mutinous prisoners a few guards are fighting desperately to restore order and prevent a wholesale jail delivery. Camped outside the walls is a force of citizens, heavily armed, ready to drive back the convicts if they murder the remaining guards and make a rush through the gates. Shoots and occasional shots tell the story of desperate fighting within the walls and it is rumored that several guards and convicts have been killed.

Quiet at Last Restored. The mutinous prisoners were subdued Inter tonight and locked in their cells. Early reports of the killing of several men inside the penitentiary have not been

Another battle is in progress in the (Continued on Page Two.)

The Weather

Trial is Resumed

superior court. The men are charged with being responsible for the death of Anna Lopizzo during a strike riot at Lawrence last July, Caruso as a principal and Ettor and Giovannitti as accessories before

CASH TO HELP OUT WILSON Clapp Committee Resumes Investigation of Campaign Contributions.

CHAIRMAN M'COOMBS ON STAND

Two Hundred and Eight Thousand Dollars to Aid in Nomination of Democratic Candidate for the Presidency.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.-William F. McCombs of New York, chairman of the national democratic committee, told the Clapp committee investigating campaign funds today that $208,000 had been contributed to the fund this year in behalf of Governor Wilson's nomination.

"I began this campaign for Governor Wilson in May, 1911," he said. "For the first month or two the campaign was directed from my office, and I paid the expenses out of my own pocket. Then I established headquarters in New York. think I spent about $10,000 myself." Here McCombs produced a list of contributors to the Wilson fund. Following were the principal prenomination contributions:

Frederick C. Penfield, $12,000; William F. McCombs, $11,000; Charles N. Smith, $1,000; Charles R. Crane, $10,000; H. J. Barrett, $2,500; F. B. Robert, $2,500; George RAWLINS, Wyo., Oct. 14.-Armed with F. Handel, $2,500; R. Magill. $2,500; Abram shotguns, rifles, revolvers, cleavers and J. Elkus, $2,500; Harvey Thomas, $5,000; butcher knives, a half dozen or more of James D. Pheiand, $1,000; Daniel Fellows dangerous criminals were said to be Platt, $2,500; Henry Morgenthau, $20,000; Cleveland H. Dodge and Princeton lins early today. A battle between these friends, $85,800; Irving T. Bush, $1,000; escaped prisoners and the posse of 100 Joseph F. Guffey, a Princeton friend of men, camped on their trail in the hills William F. McCombs, $1,850; Samuel Untermeyer, $7,000; collected through William G. McAdoo, $3,600, of which amount

McCombs testified that the $12,000 credted to Frederick C. Penfleid was all of the money that contributor had given. Senator Dixon of the Roosevelt forces said he understood Penfield had made "huge contributions."

Some Other Witnesses. Senator John H. Bankhead, manager of the Underwood campaign; Lieutenant ager of the Harmon campaign and vice Chairman William G. McAdoo of the The total number of prisoners who National democratic committee, Judge Alton B. Parker, Joseph Qunicy of Mass., Roger Sullivan, of Illinois, and Fred C. Penfield, of Philadelphia, were the other

While his statement totalled only $193 .-565 Mr. McCombs said the total expenses for the campaign had amounted to $208 .leater of the convicts in their break for 193. He said that represented all the money expended and that no other funds Rognor, who saw the Mexican as he had been collected and disbursed to his > Questioned about the contribution and friends," Mr. McCombs produced a leter from Mr. Dodge giving the contributions as follows tions as follows

Edward W. Sheldon, $1,000; Thomas D. Jones, $10,500; David B. Jones, $10,500; Cyrus H. McCormick, $12,500; Cleveland S. Dodge, $51,300. Paid for Publicity.

McCombs said that the greater part of his funds were expended for publicity. "We had to acquaint the people of the United States with Governor Wilson," he buildings. They were unarmed and of- said, "and a wide campaign of education

"There is not a dollar in that statement prison by convicts and guards following which reflects any promise expressed or the outbreak, but reports that several implied on my part. No representations men, both guards and convicts, were were made to any one to induce him to contribute except that his country needs man like Mr. Wilson for president.

"McCormick, Sheldon, Jones and Dodge contributed to Wilson's fund just as they would to Princeton university, if Wilson were president."

Alton B. Parker, democratic presidential candidate of 1904, was on the stand about expenditures of that camcontributions to the democratic fund, but had given instructions that nothing was to be accepted from corporations. He said he had only hearsay evidence about republican contributions of 1904 and had based his charges of that year on that Parker said the information on which his charges of trust contributions were based had been "borne in" upon him and he had concluded that "the interests" were becoming very active. October 13 he had been informed by an old friend that he was "licked." This friend had told him of the details of an organization formed against him and mentioned the names of E. H. Harriman, James Stillman, C. Frick, G. W. Perkins and Robert Bacon as members of such an or ganization. Out of that information had grown his speech attacking campaign aid to presidential elections.

Rector Bell Resigns raging in the state penitentiary. Locked His Des Moines Pulpit, Saying Ring Runs It

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Oct. 14.-(Special Telegram.)-After his resignation from the rectorship of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. Robert Bell today gave out the following: "I do not care to remain in a church where any little ring has the control and the unlimited power to say what they please regarless of the truth. It is the same old battle that was fought otu last year agoinst the same man and for their hostility.

"I further wish to state that when I discovered that the bishop, himself, was in sympathy with the little ring, I determined to sever my relations with the #### church at Des Moines.' Ettor and Caruso

SALEM, Mass., Oct. 14.-Eight seats in the jury box remain to be filled when the joint trial of Joseph J. Ettor, Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Caruso, members of the Industrial Workers of the World provocative. was resumed today in the Essex county

THE BAZRAN STATES TO ENGAGE IN WAR

Sultan Gives Notice He Will Not Tolerate Interference in His Proposed Methods of Reform.

STARTS IN TO ASSUME OFFENSIVE One of the First Acts in Move is Invasion of Servia.

MINISTERS WAIT FOR PASSPORTS Greece Enters the Conflict and Delivers an Ultimatum.

DEMANDS RELEASE OF ITS SHIPS Government at Athens is Expected to Join in Struggle and Prepare for Uniting with Other Countries in the Strife.

LONDON, Oct. 14.-Turkey today took up the gauntlet thrown down by the Balkan states and events crowded close upon one another to hasten what is believed to be the inevitable general outbreak.

The sultan's government formally declined the proffered interference in its proposed introduction of reforms into Macedonia, and coincidently assumed the offensive itself, invading Servia-Servia's representative at Constantino ple, as well as those of Greece and Bulgaria, were notified by his government today to prepare to leave on a moment's

The participation of Greece in the conflict was almost assured by the Athens government's deliverance of an ultimatum demanding the release of Greek ships seized at Constantinople.

Success Follows Motenegrins. More success has followed the determ ined advance of the Montenegrin army. The Montenegrins lost 100 killed and wounded in their attack on the town of Byelopolye in the San Jak of Novipazar. says an official report received by the Montenegrin consul general here, and the Turks, who fled after the battle to Sientza, are said to have suffered heavily. General Martinovitch's advance guard encountered a body of Turkish troops from Tarakosch and inflicted a loss of 300 killed and wounded during the battle, sons to flight and then with his troops crossed the River Boyana. The Mailissori tribesmen in the neighborhood of Scutari have joined forces with the Montenegrin troops. Waiting for Instructions. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 14.-The Bulgarian, Servian and Greek ministers here have received instructions from their government to be ready to leave as soon O'BRIEN DRIVEN FROM THE BOX as they receive notification from their respective capitals. The rupture of diplomatic relations between the three Sixth Game of the Series Finds Both Balkan states and the Ottoman empire is expected hourly. BELGRADE, Servia, Oct. 14.-Fighting went on throughout the day along the frontier. The reports of cannon firing could be heard at Vranya, coming from the direction of Bistovatz and Vilogoske A dispatch from the frontier says the Servians were surprised, but succeeded in repulsing the Turkish attack.

TURKEY STATES ITS POSITION

Notifies Powers They Must Keep Hands Off. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 14.- The Turkish government declines to allow the powers to intervene in the question of Collins, p., Macedonian reforms. It reply to the representatives of the powers was handed to the Austro-Hun garian ambassador here this morning. garian ambassador here this morning.

While thanking the European powers for their friendly interest in the Balkan situation, which the Ottoman government Murray, if recognized that they have exercised in behalf of peace, the reply says that Turkey is determined to carry out the promised reforms, but cannot tolerate any foreign interference.

INVASION OF SERVIA HAS BEGUN

Turks Cross the Frontier and Attack Servian Garrison. BELGRADE, Oct. 14.—A body of Turkish troops crossed the Servian frontier at son there, according to an official dispatch from the Servian general in command. Fighting was still in progress when the message was dispatched.

ACTION IS TAKEN BY GREECE

Ultimatum Which Means War is Delivered to Turkey. ATHENS, Greece, Oct. 14.-The release within twenty-four hours of the Greek was on hand. There was plenty of room vessels confiscated by Turkey is to be for everyone and vacant tiers of seats demanded today by the Greek ministery yawned in the bleachers. The day was at Constantinople under instructions from cheerless and cold, dull gray clouds his government. In the note which he is screened the sun and there was a threat his little group. May God forgive them to hand the Turkish government the pay- of rain. ment of an indemnity to the owners of The Boston delegation came early with the vessels also is demanded.

> The Greek note to Turkey demanding the release of the confiscated Greek vessels is in the nature of an ultimatum, and when they tired of cheering they with which official circles here think it sung the battle song "Tessie." Then the is certain Turkey will promptly refuse to New York crowd went into action and comply. It therefore means immediate applauded the Boston delegation for its

> There is no doubt that Turkey knew Marquard an ovation as they walked the seizure of ships before the breaking across the diamond. out of hostilities was an act of war, and Field practice by the two clubs was according to the most reliable information, sharp and brilliant and dazzling pickups from Constantinople the Ottoman gov- and snappy throws by the two infields ernment intended this action to be kept the stands applauding.

TURKS LOSE IN TWO BATTLES

Stubborn Resistance, but De feated Near Gusinye. (Continued on Third Page.)

ONE WAY TO GET CHEAP MEAT Gustave Bischoff Declares that STOP RUSH OF SOX

Marquard Holds Boston Lads While Government Should Restrict Immi-His Teammates Win by 5 to 2.

Teams Hitting Hard for the Base Ball Championship of the World.

DETAILS OF THE GAME.

Speaker, cf. Lewis, if.... Gardner, 3b..... Stahl, Ib..... Wagner, ss.

NEW YORK. AB. R. H.

Batted for O'Brien in second inning. Two-base hits: Merkle, Herzog, Engle.
Three-base hit: Meyers. Stolen bases:
Speaker, Doyle, Herzog, Meyers. Double plays: Fletcher to Doyle to Merkle, Hooper to Stahl. Hits: Off O'Brien, 6 in one inning; off Collins, 5 in seven innings. Ristovatz, near Vranya, at 5 o'clock this Struck out. By Marquard, 3; by Collins, morning and attacked the Servian garrili, by O'Brien, 1. Bases on balls: Off Marquard, 1. Left on bases: New York

1; Boston, 5. First on errors: New York, 1; Boston, 2. Balk: O'Brien. Time: 1:56. Umpires: Klem behind bat, Evans on bases, Rigler right field, O'Loughlin left refrained from speech making today in field. PULO GROUNDS, Oct. 11 .- The Glants made their last stand today before a crowd numbering 25,000 or more. The crowd came late and the players were already on the field warming up before the bulk of the day's attendance a brass band and started cheering. They cheered the Boston players to the echo as the Red Sox came on the field enthusiasm and gave Mathewson and

Looking for a Brace.

There were plenty among the Glants supporters who expected to see the team embrace the slim chance left. The reputation of McGraw's men for taking an hotel Wednesday evening. The call was GUSINYE, Oct. 14.-The Montenegrin unexpected brace when it looks as if GUSINYE, Oct. 14.—The Montenegrin unexpected brace when it looks as if sent out Saturday. The adoption of a troops yesterday occupied another post- they were just about down and out was plan for raising funds to carry on the (Continued on Eighth Page.)

GAMBLER WEBBER

Theodore Roosevelt, Victim of a Fanatic's Ball ROOSEVELT SHOT

Farmers Must Raise More Cattle. ON WITNESS STAND CORKRAN SUGGESTS A REMEDY Had Frequent Talks With Becker

gration and Then Supply Might Meet the Home Demand.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.-Farmers must raise more cattle to avert a meat famine said Gustave Bischoff of St. Louis, addressing the American Meat Packers' association, which opened its annual convention here today. Until they do, the speaker said, the cost of meat will not be lowered.

"The meat shortage is to continue, Mr. Bischoff said, "regardless of crop ber to the stand when the trial of Police conditions until we raise meat producing Lieutenant Charles Becker, charged with animals in proportion to our increasing the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was population. It is a serious situation for resumed today. the packers as well as for the welfare of the country. We cannot run our plants Becker, intimated last night that he profitably without sufficient raw ma- might not call any witnesses at all, terial, which now is costing us more than at any time in the last fifty years. "The reports the public hears that beef is bought cheaper in London than in this country is libel. Meat sold in London as American beef really is Argentine beef and is of inferior grade." Benjamin W. Corkran, jr., of Baltimore, president of the association, in an address said that within the last decade the population had increased 21 per cent through immigration, while the supply of meat food products had only increased sistant District Attorney Moss. The docfrom 4 to 41/2 per cent. He advocated the restriction of immigration as well as a greater supply of cattle.

Mr. Corkran said the result of the packers' trial last year established in the minds of the public the integrity of the packing business.

Roosevelt's Throat Stops the Talking

order to save his voice and rest the muscles of his throat which developed soreness yesterday. He planned to spend most of the morning at his hotel, his speeches in Illinois and northern Indiana having been cancelled. He announced that he would accompany C. E. Merriam to Gary, Ind., but would not speak there During the afternoon Mr. Roosevelt expects to go to Milwaukee for a night meeting and to remain there until tomor-

way. He's trying to see Waldo, the to Whitman. That - - has got to be Martial Law Ends stopped; he's got to be croaked before In West Virginia he gets to Whitman, said Charley,

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 14 .- Governor Glasscock today restored Fayette, Raleigh and Kanawha countles to the civil authorities and the reign of martial law formally ended. The ten companies of state troops, however, will be kept in the field to assist the civil authorities.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE TO MEET WEDNESDAY

lican state central committee is to meet that the job be done. campaign in the state will be taken up.

slightly wounded tonight by a man who fired at him while the colonel was resting at a hotel. It is said that the wound is only slight. The colonel went on about his business, declaring that he was on Putting Rosenthal Out of the Way.

CORROBORATES ROSE TESTIMONY

Defense Intimates it Will Not Offer

Evidence, Resting Its Hope on

Branding the Case as Incomplete.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.-With a view to corroborating and strengthening the testimony of "Bald Jack" Rose, the prosecu tion was ready to call "Bridgie" Web-

John F. McIntire, chief counsel for jury and attempt to brand it as incom-under subpoena.

lowed Sheehan.

cations?" asked Moss.

plete. The defense has several witnesses

Winfield R. Sheehan, secretary of Police Commissioner Waldo, was the first witness called. His appearance was a distinct surprise. Bridgie Webber fol-

Sheehan, who is a former newspaper man, was asked to identify his signature on a document handed to him by As-ument was a communication addressed to Becker and attached thereto were letters identified by the witness as having been in his opinion written by Becker.

Sheehan said he had signed the document at the direction of Commissioner

Did you ever talk to Becker about the matters mentioned in these communi-

Webber Tells His Story.

Sheehan was excused and "Bridgie" bler. He knew Herman Rosenthal for fifteen years and Jack Rose the same length of time. Becker he had known

Rose's place and the next time in front of his (Webber's) poker rooms. "He used to come to my place often," said Webber,

Becker about Rosenthal?"

to murder a man."

got to be stopped."

the papers any day."

with Becker.

"Did you ever have conversation with

"Yes, with Harry Vallon and Jack

Rose the latter part of June. Becker commissioner, and now he's going to get

That's a pretty dangerous thing to do.

" 'That's all right,' said Becker, 'he's

"Bridgie" told of a subsequent meeting

"What are you doing about that - doing me; he's got to be croaked.'

Rosenthal?" Becker said to me. He's

"I said. 'Charley, he's going to be taken care of. You're liable to see it in

The witness than told of meeting Rose and telling him of Becker's insistence

Tells of Murder Plot.

murder plot. Rose had agreed to get

(Continued on Page Two.)

Webber described the inception of the

- is trying to do me in every not hurt. The assassin was captured by Henry F. Cochems. Colonel Roosevelt began his speech at the Auditorium about 8:20.

Various reports as to the nature of the shooting are afloat. One storp says the bullet struck the colonel in the left shoulder and another report has it that the shot penetrated the colonel's coat in the region of the heart, but the bullet was warded off by a bunch of manuscript, which the colonel carried in the inside pocket of

The man who did the rhooting refused to give his name.

He had on his person a complete description of the colonel's itinerary, which was written on the back of a sheet of note paper taken from the Bismarke hotel and safe at Nashville,

The would-be assassin is five feet five inches in height, weighs 170 pounds, light complexion, bald, dress

He confessed to the police that he fired the shot and made the remark: "A man looking for a third term ought to be shot.

simply letting the state's case to the Mrs. Hull of Omaha Identifies Checks on Emergency Fund

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 14.-Checks by which the government charges the executive board of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers allowed J. J. McNamara $1,000 a month to buy explosives were identified by Mrs. A. J. Hull of Omaha at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today.

Mrs. Hull, bookkeeper for McNamara at the ironworkers' headquarters in Indianapolis when explosions about the country were frequent, testified that the checks were signed by Frank M. Ryan, and by McNamara as secretary-treasurer. All these checks, she said, were marked "emergency fund." Eugene A. Clancy of San Francisco,

Herbert S. Hockin, Philip Coley and Webber was sworn. He said his real Moulton H. Davis are alleged to have name was Louis and that he was a gamvoted the money to McNamara. Questioned by Senator Kern for the detwo years, having first met him in Jack fense, Mrs. Hull said Ryan was often in the city, and blank checks were sent

Written for you

There is an ad in the Classified Page that was written for you. That is there is at least one ad that is of perhaps greater interest to you than anyone else-because it fits your need exactly. If it's not in today it will be some day soon,

This is the tantalizing part of it: You cannot possibly tell when these ads are to be printed unless you are willing to pay the price of continued vigilance in reading the classified

Keep watch for these Bee ads-you'll know them when you see them.

Tyler 1000