MANY CLAMOR FOR JOBS IN NEW COUNTY BUILDING

There is a clamoring of job seekers before the Board of County Commissioners and how to untangle the difficulty of satisfying everyone is giving the members deep concern.

Occupancy of the new court house, which is rapidly nearing completion, means that there are about twenty-five or thirty jobs open. The massiveness of the new building necessitates the employment of additional charwomen, janitors and elevator operators...

POTASH FOUND IN NEBRASKA

Big Paying Deposits Are Discovered in Sheridan County.

LAKE OF OVER 300 ACRES

Product is of Better Quality and Easier to Handle Than the German—Most Now Comes from Germany.

Potash, in deposits richer than the mines of Germany, has been discovered in Sheridan county, Nebraska. According to government analysis, dry salts taken from the lake water contain 30.8 per cent potash...

The government's analysis confirms the analyses made by fertilizer manufacturers and J. H. Show of the Cudahy Packing company. About 12,000,000 worth of potash is imported annually from Germany...

This Sheridan county potash deposit consists of a lake bed containing 300 acres. It is believed several million dollars' worth of potash is immediately available.

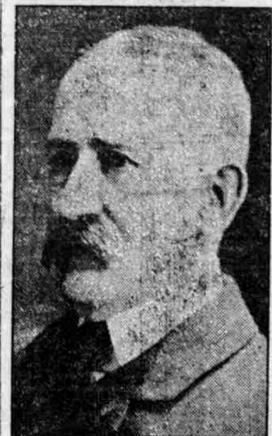

It is asserted that the Nebraska potash field will be able to compete at once and successfully with the German mines where the potash is hoisted 1,000 feet out of the earth and the mineral then dissolved out...

Eastern fertilizer manufacturers are interested in the Sheridan county field and will investigate and attempt to claim the chemists are supported, to put the potash industry in this country on a commercial basis at once.

BLACK A SUICIDE, IS BELIEF

Indications in Death of Bookkeeper Point to Self-Destruction.

THOUGHT TEMPORARILY INSANE

Friends Can Find No Reason for Act, but Think Little of Murder Possibility—Inquest This Afternoon.

Despite persistent rumors that Wallace Black, the bookkeeper found dying Saturday evening in the rear of 1809 William street, was murdered, developments yesterday strengthen the suicide theory.

Relatives of the dead man, although unable to ascribe reasons for self-destruction, believe that he killed himself while temporarily insane. Corroboration of the suicide belief is offered by witnesses who were in a saloon at Sixteenth and William streets at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon to whom Black made the remark: "You are going to read about me tomorrow."

That the suicide was done on the impulse is indicated by the fact that the revolver owned for several years by Black was locked up in a bureau drawer at his home, while the weapon which caused death was a brand new one. The bullet entered in the right temple and came out of the left on a direct line. Black was a right-handed man.

Black's presence in the saloon at Sixteenth and William streets, however, causes his friends uneasiness and tends to show that something unusual was going on in his mind. He was known to be of exemplary habits and a total abstainer. He also spent most of his time in the company of his wife and child, to whom he was greatly devoted.

Accounts Are All Right. At the Woods Commission company of South Omaha, where he was employed, an investigation of his books was made yesterday. Walter E. Woods, head of the firm, told a Bee reporter last night that Black's accounts with the company were correct in every detail and that his work was highly satisfactory.

There was an unverified rumor that Black had drawn money from his savings bank and also had been collecting rents from the row of houses on William street during the afternoon, and had on his person a considerable sum of money. This theory is offered as a motive for murder.

Another peculiar circumstance is the fact that the revolver was clutched in Black's hand when found, and the breach was closed. In front of him, however, lay an empty .32-caliber shell and the five-shot revolver contained only four loaded cartridges. It is not believed that a person could have strength enough left after being mortally wounded to open the gun, extract the exploded shell and close the breach again.

BENSON TO BE SUPPLIED WITH GAS FROM OMAHA

A big boost toward the end of making Benson the most important suburban community adjacent to Omaha was made by the county commissioners when right after was granted to the Omaha gas company to lay a main between this city and that village. Benson for a long time has been anxious to be served with gas, and every action toward that end was completed with the exception of the connecting grant. The gas company hopes to lay the connecting main this fall so that a system of service pipes can be laid as soon as the frost is out of the ground next spring.

Manager G. W. Clabaugh of the Gas company was before the commission and thanked them for their action. He took occasion to state that Benson has grown during the last few years more than any other suburban village, and that the growth will continue.

RICKETS GETS THIRTY DAYS IN POLICE COURT

Oscar Ricketts was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail for conducting a disorderly house at 908 North Sixteenth street by Police Magistrate Foster. Ricketts appealed the case. Ricketts has been arrested numerous times in the last few months on this charge. A month ago Judge Foster gave Rubendall-Shortliff Wedding.

Miss Elizabeth Shortliff and Dr. Clarence Rubendall were married last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Shortliff at 2877 Shirley street. The wedding took place at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Thomas McConnell of Westminster Presbyterian church officiating. The marriage lines were read as the bride and groom stood before an embankment of white chrysanthemums and ferns. The bride's gown was of white charmeuse with sleeves and bodice of Chantilly lace which fell in a panier in the and was caught at the sides where the train joined the skirt with a cluster of white chiffon rose buds. The bride's veil of tulle was caught with chiffon buds and she carried a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, the bride's cousin, Miss Adeline Elizabeth Kerns of Moline, Ill., was gowned in a Brussels lace robe over pink charmeuse and carried an arm bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. She wore the bride's gift, a hair ornament of brilliants. Ward Rubendall of Alliance, Neb., was best man. Miss Helen Pearce, another cousin of the bride, played the wedding march.

Dr. and Mrs. Rubendall left immediately after the ceremony for the east and will be home after December 1 at the home of Mrs. Shortliff.

The wedding was followed by a reception from 8:30 to 10 p. m. The guests were received in the living room, which was ablaze with white chrysanthemums and were served with refreshments in the dining room, which was decorated with pink chrysanthemums. Assisting the hostess were Mesdames Merle Felt of Sioux City, Mrs. E. L. Kerns of Moline, Mrs. Fred Pearce and Miss Bertha Ellingwood.

Notable among the out-of-town guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Shortliff, who came from Moline to witness the marriage. Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rubendall of Alliance, Neb.; Mrs. Margaret Tilgar and Miss Agnes Bisgar of Corning, Ia., and Thomas Shortliff of Moline.

Church Howe Quits His Place as Consul to Stay in Own Land

Church Howe, American consul at Manchester, England, who has been spending his vacation at his home in Auburn, will not return to his post in England. Mr. Howe gives as one of his main reasons for resigning that he is getting old and did not wish to spend the last years of his life away from his native country. Mr. Howe, while in England, has been much in demand particularly as an after dinner speaker.

The department at Washington has accepted Mr. Howe's resignation, expressing appreciation for his services in the following letter: DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, Oct. 9, 1912.—Church Howe, Esq., American Consul, Manchester, England; now at Auburn, Nebraska—Sir: The department has received your dispatch of October 1, 1912, tendering your resignation as American consul at Manchester, to take effect at the expiration of your leave of absence on October 11, 1912.

In accepting your resignation the department expresses to you its high appreciation of your long and satisfactory service at Palermo, Sheffield, Antwerp, Montreal and Manchester, and its best wishes for your future welfare. I am, sir, your obedient servant. For MR. HUNTINGTON WILSON, Wilber J. Carr.

Highwaymen Rob and Beat Victim in the Shadow of Station

Within the very shadow of the police headquarters building at Eleventh and Dodge streets, Sam Hellman, Twenty-fourth street and Broadway, Council Bluffs, was held up by two negro men armed with revolvers, and robbed of $15 last night at 10 o'clock. The highwaymen by way of emphasizing their contempt for the police, kicked their victim in the stomach and disappeared in the darkness when he screamed. Officers in the station heard the cry and upon investigating found Hellman nearly unconscious. He was given a hurried examination by the police surgeons and it was found that one of his ribs was fractured. He was ordered taken to the St. Joseph's hospital.

Efforts to Identify Poisoned Man Fail

Attempts by the police to identify the man found dying in Riverview park Saturday morning as the result of eating roadtoads, have been absolutely fruitless. A clue located yesterday afternoon by Detective Fleming led the police to believe that the dying man was Roland Hope, a laborer, who lives in Des Moines, but further inquiries developed that Hope is alive and working here for the Union Pacific.

The man is in a dangerous condition at the hospital and at midnight Police Surgeon Harris stated that he did not believe he would live until this morning. When found the man was wearing a black suit and a stiff brown hat. He appears to be about 50 years old. An empty pocketbook and an old watch were the only articles found upon him.

IMMORTALITY SCIENCE DISCUSSED BY POINTS

"Science and Immortality" was J. J. Point's subject for discussion before the Omaha Philosophical society yesterday. His presentation of the subject was exceptionally clear. The one point in his lecture that called forth the sharpest criticism from the "defenders of the Faith" was that in which he stated, "There is no such thing as revelation as it is taught in the Bible." However, the speaker explained afterward that he believed in an individual revelation, which, thousands of years before the birth of Christ, was believed and taught.

JUDGE FRED L. NAVE DIES AT PHOENIX, ARIZONA

Judge Frederick S. Nave, who spent part of his earlier life in Omaha, died recently in Phoenix, Ariz., and one of the papers of that city publishes a biography of him written by an old friend. Judge Nave entered the Omaha High school at the age of 14 years and took first rank among the members of his class. He was a classmate of Victor Rosewater, editor of The Bee.

Easy Positive Method Gives Luxuriant Hair

Never use soap on the hair, the alkali produces scaly scalp, injured roots and stringy, discolored hair. You can discard all tonics and "growers" if the following treatment is persistently adhered to. This is from a hair dresser of national reputation and one that proves its remarkable value: "Dissolve a teaspoonful of Cocoonide in a cup of hot water. Shampoo with this and rinse out well. Do this once or twice a week." That is all; absolutely nothing more. The hair becomes fluffy, wavy and silken, the scalp wonderfully refreshed and all dandruff disappears. But the best part is the after-effect. The scalp is healed, the hair roots are invigorated and falling hair immediately stopped. Use this treatment a few times and you will become enthusiastic and want to tell all your friends. This wonderful Cocoonide is made from the cocoanut and other vegetable oils. A fifty-cent package is sufficient for ten or more delightful shampoos. You can get Cocoonide from any druggist. If he does not have it in stock he will quickly get it from his wholesale house. But if you care anything about your hair don't be talked into taking something else instead of the Cocoonide. There's nothing else in the world to it. This you will agree at the first test. It is equally as beneficial for men's and children's hair.

SORE FEET. Corns, Callouses, Bunions, Frost Bites, Aching and Sweaty Feet. A Spoonful of Cocoonide in the foot-bath gives instant relief. 2c at any drug store.—Advertisement.

THE SOCIETY OF THE BEE-HIVE By MELLIFICIA Monday, Oct. 14, 1912.

THIS is a season of rich brocades, velvets and plushes, more than one woman is profiting by having saved some heirlooms of this special kind.

An Omaha widow, who is one of the best gowned women of the city, and who is the possessor of a remarkable collection of pearls and diamonds, last week demonstrated the fact that she owns other valuable collections. While traveling abroad in 1889, her husband purchased a beautiful gold brocade gown for her in Old Bond street, London. The gown was valued at $500 and, after wearing it for two or three seasons, the owner, who had unusual forethought, had the seams ripped and the material carefully rolled and wrapped in tissue paper and put away in a trunk. Now, after more than a score of years, the material is the last word in the style world and the most fashionable weave of the season.

Fortunately the skirts of that time were not gored, but cut perfectly straight and gathered at the waist, so there was ample material for a gown, searching further into the trunk of treasures, she also found some real hand made Chantilly lace which had belonged to her mother and which had not been used for thirty-five years. This was also taken to the modiste, who was enthusiastic about both materials. So when the much-traveled widow attends social functions either in Omaha or New York this winter she will have the interesting sensation of being gowned in an "up-to-the-minute" creation fashioned from materials in vogue several decades ago.

Miss Frances Nash and Miss Helen Cudahy returned Sunday morning from St. Joseph and left Sunday evening with Mrs. E. W. Nash and Miss Catherine Cartan for Chicago, where Miss Nash will visit Miss Cudahy for a day or two before leaving for New York, where she will sail with Mrs. Nash for Berlin to spend the winter.

TEACHERS TO KNOW OMAHA

Visitors to Be Shown Large Factories and Jobbing Plants.

LARGE DELEGATIONS TO COME

All the Teachers of Many of the Towns of the State Will Be Permitted by Their Boards to Attend.

Plans for making the teachers who attend the annual convention of the Nebraska Teachers' association thoroughly acquainted with Omaha will be made at a meeting of a special committee at the Commercial club Wednesday noon. One day will be set apart while the teachers are here when they will be taken on a tour of inspection to most of the large factories and jobbing plants.

N. M. Graham, superintendent of the South Omaha schools, is chairman of the committee, which is made up of these members: George West, R. M. Borglum, Charles Duffie, H. K. Burket, Frank Keogh and Joseph Shoemaker. The committee will work with E. V. Parrish of the Commercial club publicity bureau.

Announcements of large delegations of teachers who will attend the Omaha convention are still coming into the publicity bureau. All the teachers from Pawnee City, Columbus, Ashland, Gresham and Lynch will be here, according to letters received this morning. In most instances the boards of education have allowed holidays to the teachers.

Children Love Syrup of Figs

Sweetens Their Stomachs and Cleans the Liver and Clogged Bowels Without Gripping

Every mother immediately realizes after giving her child delicious Syrup of Figs that this is the ideal laxative and physic for the children. Nothing else regulates the little one's stomach, liver and 30 feet of tender bowels so promptly, besides they dearly love its delightful fig taste.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little insides need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the foul, constipated, clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of your little bowels without nausea, gripping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot be harmful.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and grown-ups plainly printed on the package. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.—Advertisement.

DRIVE OUT GATARRH, A DISGUSTING, FILTHY DISEASE

If you are subject to frequent colds, or if you have any of the distressing symptoms of catarrh, such as stuffed up feeling in the head, profuse discharge from the nose, sores in the nose, phlegm in the throat, causing hacking and spitting, dull pain in the head or ringing in the ears, just anoint the nostrils or rub the throat or chest with a little Ely's Cream Balm, and see how quickly you will get relief. In a few minutes you will feel your head clearing, and after using the Balm for a day or so the nasty discharge will be checked, the pain, soreness and fever gone and you will no longer be offensive to yourself and your friends by constantly hacking, spitting and blowing.

Shake off the grip of catarrh before it impairs your sense of taste, smell and hearing and poisons your whole system. In a short time you can be completely cured of this distressing disease by using Ely's Cream Balm. This healing, anti-septic Balm does not fool you by short, deceptive relief, but completely overcomes the disease. It clears the nose, head and throat of ringing in the ears, soothes, heals and strengthens the raw, sore membranes, making you proof against colds and catarrh.

One application will convince you, and a 5c bottle will generally cure the worst case of catarrh. It is guaranteed. Get it from your druggist today.—Advertisement.
