BULLET CRUSHES INTO COLONEL'S RIGHT RIB, FRACTURING THE BONE

BACON AND EGGS ON THE MENU Mrs. Roosevelt Arrives from New York and Goes to Hospital. IS ACCOMPANIED BY THE FAMILY Wounded Man Greets His Wife Cordially and Takes a Deep Interest in Learning How She Stood the Journey.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The first X-ray plate, which indefinitely shows the bullet in Colonel Roosevelt's chest, was developed late this afternoon. The bullet is shown partly imbedded in the fracture in the fourth rib about four inches from the sternum. The bullet is much flattened and spread out of shape. It is crushed into the upper edge of the rib. Several small splinters of bone project near it.

Not before Friday, if all goes well will the physicians be prepared to say that their patient is out of danger. The intervening period will be required to determine whether blood poisoning or other complications are to be feared.

Colonel Roosevelt spent a quiet and untroubled day. He was cheered by the appearance of Mrs. Roosevelt, who arrived early in the day from New York and remained with him constantly. He felt no pain, he said, and moved about at will on his bed, reading, dictating telegrams or talking with members of his family. In the afternoon he slept for a time.

As soon as Mrs. Roosevelt reached the hospital this morning she took charge of affairs. She was accompanied by Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and Miss Ethel Roosevelt. Later in the day Congressman Longworth arrived. Mrs. Roosevelt installed herself in a room adjoining that of her husband, and during the day seldom left his bedside.

Mrs. Rosenthal said she knew that Becker and her husband had "business transactions," and that she had learned their nature from Becker at her house. This was about the middle of last April, she added, when Becker caused a raid to be made on her husband's gambling place. Becker was in the house at the time.

Heard a hammering on the door and went down to let them in, before they broke the door in. I couldn't find the key and went upstairs to see Becker. "I said to Becker, 'For heaven's sake, what does this mean?' Then I went downstairs with him and said: 'Don't let them break down the house. Don't let them destroy my furniture.' He said: 'Tell Herman that debt is off. I'll go down and tell that man to call it off, as Herman and I are square and he doesn't owe me that $1,500.' I said, 'What man?' He said, 'Never mind what man. Herman knows.'"
