

MOOSERS ARE IN QUANDARY

Many of Them Want All Roosevelt Electors to Withdraw.

IN INTEREST OF STATE TICKET

Much Controversy Over What Will Happen if Court Holds Taft Men Have Right to Go On Ballot—State University News.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Considerable controversy has been indulged in today over the application of a writ of mandamus in the district court of Lancaster county to compel Secretary of State Taft to place upon the election ballot as regular republicans the names of the Taft electors who have been certified to the secretary by petition. The question which arises is what the bull moose republican committee will do in event the district court should decide in favor of the Taft men and issue the order that the regular republican electors should have a place on the ballot. The committee has been insisting that the Roosevelt electors should withdraw and went so far as to call a meeting for the purpose of urging their withdrawal in the interest of harmony and the success of the state ticket, but most of them seem to think that their name upon the regular republican ticket as Roosevelt men of more consequence than the success of the state ticket, and refuse to carry out the wishes of the state committee, of which Judge Epperson is chairman. The Roosevelt electors who are impressed with the idea that they are bigger men than the republican party are W. J. Broatch of Omaha and Allen Johnson of Fremont. These two men stand in the way of carrying out the plan of the Epperson committee, for it is thought that if they would be willing to pull off, the rest of the valiant six would follow suit. In fact nearly all of them have signified a willingness to abide by the wishes of the majority, but Broatch and Johnson seem to be determined to stick to the bitter end.

Moosers Will Suffer. This action on their part may be their undoing as it is currently reported that many of the bull moose herd who have been anxious to see the deal pulled through so that the state ticket could be saved are now declaring that they will cut these two men when they vote. In any event the two "standpat" bull moosers will suffer considerably by their persistence in defying the wishes of the bull moose state committee and those of the state officers who have been pinning their faith to the idea that these men would get out of the way. The controversy today seems to be over what the bull moose committee will do should the district court judge decide to issue the mandamus compelling the secretary to place the Taft electors on the ballot. When asked this afternoon what would be done in such a case, Chairman Epperson replied that the case would be appealed. "While I have been anxious to have the Taft men placed on the regular republican ticket, I shall not let the matter rest should the judgment of the district court be to that effect. I want a full and complete legal standing in the matter and shall go to the supreme court for it," said the chairman.

Campus Removal Comes Up. Again the matter of changing the location of the state university from its present place to the state farm is being agitated. At a special meeting of the State Board of Regents last night Chancellor Avery submitted the cost of removal, but the matter was laid on the table and will come up at the next meeting. The chancellor thinks that the university needs more room and that the state farm location will solve the problem. What the state would do with the present grounds and buildings is not known. It has been suggested that the city might buy them for high school purposes, but it is feared that the plans for a new high school have gone too far to zig back on the matter. Lincoln has always wanted a park close to the business center, and should the university be located at the state farm the present grounds would make an admirable park.

Scandinavian Organize. Last Monday evening the Scandinavian students at the university met at the home of Chancellor Avery and organized a Scandinavian club, electing August Dahlstrom, president. Prof. Engberg made a speech, the Alexis brothers furnished the music and the evening was spent in social enjoyment, singing of Swedish songs and ending with refreshments served by Mrs. Avery. A peculiarity of the formation of the club was discovered that while ten Scandinavians are professors at the university, only one is an instructor in the Scandinavian department. The ten are Professors Engberg, Alexis, Bengtson and Munson Swedes; Johnson, Rasmussen and Riddervolk and Miss Anna Ison, Norwegian; Frandsen and Miss Edith Ohlsen, Danes. The "Agriculture" is the state farm paper, made its first appearance this week and is a very creditable publication. It is well filled with cuts of different scenes at the farm.

All Welcome New Shampoo. It certainly will be glad news to every lady to learn of a really successful hair shampoo. Soaps fade the hair, injure the roots, make the scalp scaly and leave the hair straggly. These conditions are caused by the alkali in soaps. A successful product has finally been made from the coconut and other vegetable oils that gives a most wonderful shampoo. It is known as Coconide. You simply dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and shampoo in the usual way. The results are astonishing. The hair becomes wavy, fluffy, bright and silken. The scalp is delightfully refreshed and all dandruff disappears. But the best part is the after-effect. The hair roots are invigorated, growth promoted and hair loss immediately stopped. Women everywhere who have tested this Coconide are enthusiastic. A fifty-cent package is sufficient for ten or more elegant shampoos. Any druggist has Coconide in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. Any lady that really cares about her hair should get some of this Coconide without delay, but should not be talked into taking something else instead, as there is nothing that is even similar to it. A single trial proves this. It is equally as good for men's and children's hair.

SORE FEET, Corns, Callouses, Bunions, Frost Bites, Aching and Sweaty Feet. A spoonful of Coconide in the foot-bath gives instant relief. 25c. at any drug store.—Advertisement.

BAPTIST CONVENTION ENDS

Delegates Go on Record with Reference to Some of the State Laws. OPPOSED TO HOME RULE PLAN. Repeal of the Eight O'clock Closing Law is Frowned Upon—Object to Playing Base Ball on Sunday.

WAYNE, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—The Nebraska Baptist conference which has been in session here several days has closed and the 1913 convention will be held in Lincoln. During the closing hours of the convention both ministers and laymen took up and discussed some of the state laws, and some that it is sought to enact at the session of the legislature this winter. The proposed "Home rule" law was opposed on the ground that in large cities it would give the bad element an opportunity to pass ordinances that would be detrimental to the interests of the people generally. It was explained that this element could have nothing to do with the passage of ordinances, but it was contended that this element could elect a council that would. The so-called Alberts law was discussed both pro and con and by a decisive vote it was determined that it should remain on the statute books. The same action was taken with reference to the eight o'clock closing law. A resolution was adopted asking the next legislature to pass laws prohibiting Sunday base ball, prize fighting and repealing the law providing for juries in police court. Rev. B. P. Fellman, who for so long has been pastor of Grace Baptist church, Omaha, was transferred to Calvary Baptist church, Des Moines, Ia. Officers were elected as follows:—President, J. S. Schappel, Pawnee City; vice president, J. S. Eberole and Miss Mary Mann, Omaha; E. A. Garrison, Grand Island; A. G. Wray, York.

Creighton Men Form Republican Club

Twenty members of the law classes of Creighton university met and organized a republican club. The meeting was held in the law offices of Raymond T. Coffey in the Brandeis Theater building and started the ball rolling for the support of the republican candidates of the city, state and county. The organization in the future will be known as the Creighton University Republican club. The young men elected officers and talked over the purposes and intentions of the organization. It is planned by them to further the cause of republicanism at the university and work for the election of city, state and county republicans. Howard F. Smith, son of Judge Walter I. Smith, was elected president of the club. George Keyser, senior law student, was made secretary. A. F. Brungardt was elected treasurer. The executive committee of the club will be composed of one member from each class in each department of the university and the entire enrollment of the school will be invited to membership. The executive committee will be elected at the next general meeting of the club. Meetings will be held from time to time and candidates for city, state and supporters of the national offices will be invited to speak. Persistent Advertising is the Road to Big Returns.

YOUNG MEN OF WYMORE SHACKLED THEN JAILED

WYMORE, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Last Halloween a party of young men of the town prepared a swell affair for their young women friends. About the time of their arrival at the party, a crowd of business men planned to kidnap the young fellows. The business men who took part in the kidnapping were: J. A. Reuling, president First National bank; J. S. Newton, candidate for governor last primaries; T. F. Huston, undertaker; W. A. Dawson, furniture; R. Markie, restaurant; F. E. Crawford, police judge; G. Taylor, druggist; Dr. Reese, dentist; I. T. Cutshall, grocery; George Hansen, clerk. The young men were taken away from the party, entertained about town for the evening and the women left to take care of themselves. To get even the boys waited a year and Wednesday night planned a complete retaliation, which was a perfect success. The men were caught unawares, never dreaming of such a thing, when Sheriff Acton, with a bunch of the young fellows, appeared at the different homes. In one instance they found Mr. Newton in bed. He was called out by the sheriff, who said he had an important matter to see him about, and when he appeared, was tied and in a few minutes landed at the City hall to await trial. Mayor Reuling, who was attending council meeting, was called out on important business, nabbed, and landed in the City hall with the others. The prisoners were then tried before Judge Hurst, who found them guilty, and punishment was that part of them were to ride on bare-back, thin horses, and others were hand-cuffed together, and formed a procession led by the Blue Springs band and marched around the streets until they arrived at the city fountain, where refreshments were served to the prisoners. From there they were marched to the band stand and each was called upon to make a speech giving his experience of the evening, when the meeting was adjourned until Saturday night at 12:30 o'clock, when all prisoners were to meet and treat their captors at James Walsh thirst quenching parlor, when both parties concerned would square accounts. Those who made prisoners of the business men were as follows: F. N. High, cashier F. & M. bank; J. S. Jones, cashier First National bank; F. G. Pennington, Jeweler; Iron Lasher, hardware; Dr. Douglas, dentist; Dr. Fritz, dentist; Warren Chamberlain, Henry Hartwig, Amvel Jones, farmers; E. G. Adkins, furniture, assisted by many other boys about the town.
