PREPARE FOR APPLE SHOW

Shipments of Fine Fruit Already Being Received at Lincoln.

MORE HOMESTEADERS TO COME

Labor Commissioner Gage Goes to Confer with Irrigation Company to Learn What Rates New-comers May Expect.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Great preparations are being made for the Nebraska apple show, which will be held in the Lincoln City Auditorium the first of the year. Already shipments of apples are being received.

The national fruit show, which has always been held in either St. Joseph or Council Bluffs, will hold its session this year in connection with the winter fruit show of the Nebraska Horticultural society. In connection with the national show will be the annual fruit judging students' contests, in which all the farm university students of the country take part.

Nebraska has been rapidly coming to the front in the last three years, not only as an apple growing state, but especially on account of the peculiar and pleasing flavor which seems to be possessed by the Nebraska fruit. It is also said that the flavor of the Nebraska apple has made it so popular that the better grade is shipped out of the state at big prices while Nebraska people have to be content with the lesser quality and the pick of the northern states, which is far inferior to our own home-grown apple.

Gage Looks Up Water Prices.

Labor Commissioner Gage is in Bridgeport, where he is attending a conference of water users. Gage is arranging with the railroads for another homesteaders' excursion, and he wishes to make some arrangements with the water users' association so that there will be no raise in the price of land or water when he gets there with his excursion. There are several hundred acres of land under the ditch which is subject to homestead entry.

Food Commissioner Hansen will go to Grand Island this evening to attend a session of the bakers of the state and will deliver an address at the session Wednesday.

D. D. Price, state engineer, is attending the sessions of the state irrigation congress in Bridgeport.

Small Claim in High Court.

Felix J. McShane, sheriff of Douglas county, has appealed to the supreme court of the state from a decision of the district court in a claim which he has for boarding prisoners amounting to $123. He sets forth that the county commissioners cut his bill to $11.60 and that he will not stand for the deal.

Shubert Wants New Station.

The people of Shubert have petitioned the railway commission for better station facilities at that town, which is situated on the Burlington railway. They also want two passenger trains each way. They complain that there is no agent on duty when freight trains arrive in the night. The same letter which contained the complaint contained information that the old station had burned since the date of the complaint. There is considerable controversy in the governor's office over a requisition asked by the governor of Michigan for one C. W. Willard, who is said to have sailed under another name, that of William Maynard, and to have committed embezzlement at Adrian, Mich., by running a collection agency and forgetting to turn in the collections. Attorneys B. F. Good and E. G. Maggi have asked the governor not to grant the request of the Michigan executive until November 12, in order that they may have time to look into the case.

Another Bull Moose Trick.

John C. Hartigan of Fairbury came to Lincoln yesterday, and in order to get into the injunction game which is so popular at the present time, went before Judge Cosgrove of the Lancaster county district court to get out an injunction to prevent the secretary of state from placing on the ballot the name of John Heasty as a progressive candidate for the state senate from the Fifteenth senatorial district. He says no progressive party was ever formed in Jefferson county, but that a few men calling themselves republicans met and endorsed Mr. Heasty, who is the regular republican nominee. After talking the matter over with the judge, Mr. Hartigan concluded that the Lancaster county court did not have jurisdiction over the matter. Secretary of State Wait has received notice from the chairman of the Twenty-fifth senatorial district that the vacancy existing in that district on the democratic ticket, caused by the withdrawal of a man by the name of Miles, has been filled by the selection of John D. Anderson as a candidate on the democratic ticket for senator.

Nebraska

NOTES FROM BEATRICE AND GAGE COUNTY

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Judge Pemberton of the district court yesterday annulled the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Moran of this city to John Simons of Topeka, Kan., because the bride was only 15 years of age. The couple was married a few months ago at Topeka, Kan., against the wishes of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mogan of this city.

"Stoney" Snyder, a brakeman in the employ of the Burlington company at Wymore, was seriously injured at that place Sunday by being thrown from the rear of the way car while the train was switching in the yards at Wymore. He sustained a broken leg and severe bruises about the body. He was brought to Beatrice and placed in a hospital for treatment. Mr. Snyder is a well known ball player, and pitched the Wymore team to victory a number of times the past season.

Roy Kelley of this city was given a divorce yesterday by Judge Pemberton from Lola Kelley on the grounds of extreme cruelty. He is also given the custody of their little son.

Word was received here yesterday stating that Harry Bowman, until a few years ago a resident of Beatrice, had been shot in the breast while out hunting near Alliance and dangerously wounded. He was carrying the gun in his buggy, allowing the muzzle to lean against his chest when the weapon was in some way discharged, the load entering his breast. Some of the shot penetrated the lungs. The attending physicians have hopes for his recovery.

RARE FOSSILS FOUND NEAR SCOTTS BLUFF

SCOTTS BLUFF, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The work of building the Union Pacific through the bad lands a mile southwest of the Burlington station is going on. This is the Medicine Bow out-crop, from Gering into the Mitchell valley. Considerable of this work is very heavy and is in brule clay. In the excavations of this material many rare fossils are found in various stages of perfection. A number have been added to the high school collection. Some well preserved turtles are found and the head of a strange monster of the times when this country was heaved up out of the primeval sea is one of the curios. The head the learned people have been unable yet to classify. It is about two feet long and slender and looks more like a long, slim horse's head than any other creature it may be that of a petrodactylus, which is said to have inhabited the earth some several million years ago.

MAN RUN DOWN BY TRAIN SUFFERS SERIOUS INJURIES

COLUMBUS, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—As a result of being struck by a Union Pacific freight engine this morning, Matt Allison is at the hospital in a critical condition, suffering from broken bones and internal injuries. He was attempting to cross the track ahead of the train. Samuel Knower, aged 73 years, was stricken with apoplexy early this morning, death resulting in a short time. During the civil war he served the union both in the army and navy. He has been a resident of this section for many years, coming here from Silver Creek five years ago.

CONGREGATIONALISTS BEGIN STATE MEETING

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—The fifty-sixth session of the Nebraska congregational conference began here last night at the First Congregational church. There were more than 100 delegates in attendance.

The ministers were welcomed to Hastings by H. B. Howell, secretary of the chamber of commerce. Rev. W. A. Tyler delivered the welcome of the church. On account of the absence of W. A. Sellock of Lincoln, the response was made by Rev. S. H. Buell of Grand Island.

The conference sermon was delivered by Rev. J. W. Cowan of Crete. He talked on right living as relative to worship. Community services were in charge of Rev. F. W. Leavitt of Omaha and Rev. A. T. Davies of Arlington.

Prof. A. B. Fairchild of Doane college gave an eloquent tribute to the late President Peary of Doane college. For forty years President Peary was connected with college work and he was one of the best known educators in the west.

DAUGHTERS OF REVOLUTION BEGIN STATE CONVENTION

LINCOLN, Oct. 22.—(Special.)—The Nebraska Daughters of the American Revolution will hold a two-day session of that organization beginning Wednesday morning at the Lincoln hotel. Last evening a banquet was held at the hotel, which was presided over by Mrs. C. E. Adams of Superior. Among the most prominent speakers were Chancellor Avery of the state university, General John L. Webster of Omaha, Mrs. T. J. Johnston of Falls City, president of the state federation of women's clubs; Edward O. Halstead of Omaha, secretary and registrar of the Sons of the American Revolution. Mrs. Mathew T. Scott of Bloomington, Ill., president general of the national organization, is present. Mrs. Charles Oliver Norton, state regent, arrived Tuesday morning and is the guest of Supreme Judge and Mrs. Letton.

LAYING RAILS BEGINS ON HASTINGS ROAD

GIBBON, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Laying steel on the new Hastings road started Monday morning with a big gang of men. It will take a little over a week to lay the steel to the river so the bridge material can be hauled down by rail. The yard tracks are about all in now and partly filled with outfit cars.

Auto Accident at Wausa.

WAUSA, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—What may be termed a fortunate accident happened in Wausa yesterday. Henry Wenke, a farmer west of Wausa, drove to town in his car, and just as he stopped the machine one of the front wheels came off, the axle breaking squarely in two. Had this happened when the car was going twenty or thirty miles an hour a serious accident would no doubt have resulted.

Barn Burned Near Pawnee.

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—During the electrical storm Sunday night the barn on the farm of George Fuhrer, two miles southeast of this city, was struck by lightning and destroyed. Two sets of harness, ten tons of hay and fifty bushels of oats were also destroyed. The loss was covered by insurance.

"ROUGH ROADS AND ROUGH RIDING TO THE WHITE HOUSE"

By the Hon. CHAMP CLARK
Speaker of the House of Representatives

Champ Clark's second article on "Presidential Lights That Have Flared Failed" explains the hard sledding that awaits the Presidential aspirant in a witty manner. As Clark so aptly says, "We are apt to forget a loser," and on the eve of a great national election it is well to be reminded. Did you know that Henry Clay was nominated three times by his party? That Samuel J. Tilden failed of election by one electoral college vote? That James G. Blaine was only a few votes behind Grover Cleveland in the final count? Mr. Clark writes from his heart, for he has not forgotten how close he came to being nominated at Baltimore for the highest office in the land. He tells of a good many winners also. We all love a winner, and the Speaker's list ranges from Lincoln to Roosevelt. You'll be interested mightily in this second installment. The article is illustrated with a humorous set of drawings by G. W. Harting.

"THE QUEST OF BETSINDA-SUE"

By HANNA RION

This is a new "Quest of the Golden Girl." A love story with a breath of Fall days and the Joy of Living in it. An artist has painted the picture of a woman he has never seen. He is even in ignorance of where she lives, yet he sets out to find her. The fantastic tenderness of his romance will appeal to every man and woman who is young or ever has been young. The story is sympathetically illustrated by Frank Ver Beck.

"NOVEMBER JOE; WOODSMEN DETECTIVE"

"THE CASE OF MISS VIRGINIA PLANX"

By HESKETH PRICHARD

Another story of the remarkably popular "November Joe" series. Virginia Planx, the daughter of a millionaire, has been kidnaped and held for ransom in the Canadian woods. The case is turned over to "November" and, in his role of woods detective, he is for the first time baffled. Never did clues so utterly appear to contradict each other. He solves the mystery, at last to his own satisfaction—and incidentally to the satisfaction of Miss Planx. Percy E. Cowen's illustrations characteristically catch the breath of the woods.

"HOW CANADA DOES IT"

By ELLIOTT FLOWER

Did you know that Canada is getting more immigrants from the United States than from any other country in the world? Did you know that she is attracting experienced farmers—men with money and energy? This is not the result of a haphazard policy of "Let come who will;" but it is the fruit of a systematic campaign for the best available human material. Elliott Flower's article will open the eyes of millions of citizens on this side of the border. Illustrated with unusual photographs.

"WOMEN WHO COUNT"

This department contains character sketches of Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt and Mrs. William Howard Taft, illustrated from photographs—and are little side lights on the personal side of these two altogether interesting women.

COVER DESIGN—"BOY WANTED"

By CHARLES MacLELLAN

A picture that brings a laugh every time you see it. It will remind you of YOUR boyhood and the homely humor of the farm.
