GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Takes Jamp in Liverpool, Due to War Reports.

CORN IS INFLUENCED BY WHEAT Oats Market Does Not Brenk as Would Be Expected with Heavy Receipts and Unlimited

Supplies.

OMAHA, Oct. 23, 1912. It is difficult to understand why Liver-pool shows so little response to the de-cided disturbance and threatening conditions in the vicinity of the Dardanelles. There is another rumor that the foreign rade reports an early closing of the Dar-danelles. This news reached here sometime after the Liverpool cable was announced quoting wheat % to %c higher $23.00 So long as the present great uncertainty exists regarding political complications and there is even a remote possibility of Black sea supplies being shut off from Bogota, 2349284c.
Europe, there will be a bullish, sensitive LEATHER-Firm; hemlock firsts, 276 market no doubt. Fine weather, large 28c; seconds, 26927c; thirds, 22924c; renorthwest receipts and fav. able news, lects, 18c. may act as checks on bull operations, but Looking at the big crop and probability of surplus corn because of lighter feeding operations this year than usual, it is a moderately bear-ish situation. J. C. Schultz, the corn man, says: "Pick the bulges, if possible," to sell the May corn." Cash corn undue to anxiety about the Turkish war. In consequence there was a firm close, with prices %6%c to 1@1%c above last night.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Big exports of wheat today helghtened bullish sentiment

Strength at first developed slowly in wheat. Speculators as a rule seemed disposed to favor an advance and to ignore the heavy movement of spring wheat. Rumors of financial trouble at more than one European capital served, too, as evidence that the effects of the war would be more widespread than receivable. would be more widespread than generally When word came that more than 100 boatloads of wheat had been taken for export the upward movement of prices began in earnest. Duluth, as well as the seaboard, was said to have had the benefit of the buying on foreign ac-count. December closed up ic net, at

SHEEP-Another liberat supply of sheep and lambs arrived, the receipts being con-siderably larger than has, Wednesday, slightly, less than two weeks ago, but a little more than on the same day a year ago. As usual at this time of the range season, the shipments show an increase in ewe offerings, there being very nearly as many ewes as lambs on today's market. Lambs, however, comprised the biggest share of the receipts and the most of them were an the feeding order. Good of them were on the feeding order. Good killing stuff of either sheep or lambs was relatively in very meager supply. While the buyers seemed to want something on the fat order, trade was generally rather quiet early, comparatively few offerings being disposed of during the first hours of the forenoon. In fact, some uncertainty seemed to prevail in trade circles before an actual moseyment of any consequence took place. nce took place.

While most of the business was conducted in a sort of a leisurely way prices in general on both sheep and lambs held scarcity of really desirable killers. A large supply of both feeding sheep and lambs was on hand and commission men seemed to have a fairly large number of orders for feeders at prevailing prices. Trade was fairly active most of the time and values remained practically un-

ROOSEVELT BACK IN HIS HOME

Colonel Expects to Be Able to Re-Enter the Campaign.

COMPLETE RECOVERY PROBABLE Perfect Quiet is Ordered and with Mrs. Roosevelt in Charge, All Visitors Are Barred From House and Grounds.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Oct. 28.-The quiet routine of life at Sagamore Hill was picked up again by Colonel Roosevelt and his family today.

For the first time since he was wounded in Milwaukee eight days ago. Colonel Roosevelt was unattended tonight by a physician. There was no one In the house except members of the family and servants and the colonel spoke hopefully of being able, after one day more of rest, gradually to resume his work.

Except for the fact that Colonel Roosevelt was in bed this evening, instead of at work in his library, there was nothing to suggest that anything out of the ordinary had happened. Four physicians were with the colonei on his arrival at Oyster Bay from Chicago this morning and after they had dressed his wound, they told him that the one essential thing was complete rest. If their directions are observed it is believed the ex-president's complete recovery is probable, although it cannot be said that he is entirely out of danger

Wound is Still Open.

Drs. Alexander Lambert and Scurry Terrell, who accompanied Colonel Rooseveit from Chicago, were joined in New York by Drs. Joseph A. Blake and George E. Brewer. After examining the patient, they said the wound was still wide open. They spoke of the possibility of infection, and added that they were unable to say whether it would be possible for him to take up the work of the campaign again.

Colonel Roosevelt said when his wound had been dressed, that there was no longer the need of constant supervision of physicians, because he was all right. The physicians were doubtful at first whether he should be left alone, and it was suggested that one of their number remain at Sagamore Hill. But the colonel insisted that it was unnecessary and the doctors concluded it would be wisest to accede to his wishes. They all went to New York this evening and said they would not return until tomorrow afternoon. Their decision was regarded by Colonel Roosevelt's friends as an indication of his condition.

James Amos, or Jim, as the colonel calls a negro butler, is acting as nurse, under the direction of Mrs. Roosevelt, He has been with the colonel so long that he is able to care for him more satisfactorily than almost anyone else, except Mrs. Roosevelt herself.

This evening the colonel, who had not recovered from the weariness due to his long journey, dozed at intervals, then awoke and asked Jim to read to him. Mrs. Roosevelt from time to time visited her husband's room to talk with the

The parting injunction of the physicians was that Colonel Roosevelt must have absolute rest and must see no one toda or tomerrow. Mrs. Roosevelt agreed with them and about steady with yesterday's market. A took hold of the situation as she did in helpful factor in today's trade was the Chicago. Her first move was to place men at the gate, with strict orders that no one be admitted to the grounds. Then she saw to it that perfect quiet was maintained in the house, and even the other members of the family were permitted to talk with the colonel for only a short time. Friends, political workers, newspaper reporters and photographers flocked to the foot of Sagamore hill during the day, but did not succeed in passing the guards. Tonight, after the rush was over, the watch was withdrawn Some of Colonel Roosevelt's friends were solicitous for his safety at Sagamore Hill and insisted that he should be protected against the possibility of another attack, but he would not hear of a personal guard and had only his family and the servants about him tonight.

Although his physicians would make no promises, Colonel Roosevelt was confident that he would soon be back in the campaign, at least to the extent of exercising general direction. He expressed his intention of going to Madison Squared Garden. New York; to speak October 30, even if he had atrength to may only m few sentences, and after another day of rest expects to begin preparation of an address of half an hour's length. He hopes also to hold a short conference with Senator Dixon, George W. Perkins and a few other progressive leaders on

Farm Laborer Kills Wife of Employer

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Oct. 23.-Lars. Stensland, farm hand, late this afternoon, shot Mrs. Sam Helson, aged 35, wife of his former employer, inflicting a fatal wound, and put a bullet through the hand of Art Rohl, another farm hand. The woman was shot through the lung and abdomen and will not live through the night.

Stensland called at the Helson farms house, three miles east of this city , this morning for wages which he claimed, and in the course of an argument attacked Mrs. Helson with a poker. Rohl overpowered him and he left, returning this afternoon intoxicated and carrying a revolver. Rohl ran to cover and Stensland's first bullet struck his outstretched right hand.

Stensland then fired twice at Mrs. Helson and stood over her body reloading his gun, when the 11-year-old daughter of the woman screamed for help. Stensland was overpowered and was lodged in

Pettigrew Changes to Roosevelt Camp

Champ Clark's active campaign managers before the Baltimore convention. He said, in part:

"When I joined the democratic party in 1896 it was the progressive party of the nation. But, while the platform of the democratic party this year would be considered progressive if it were adopted twenty years ago, it is not now a progressive platform, because instead of 42,000 moving forward in the advocacy of pro-2,500 gressive principles, it has gone back and 6,000 no longer stands for a progressive
