Vice President Sherman Issues Address to People of United States.

TWO BIG ISSUES ARE DISCUSSED

Republican Program Offers Industrial Opportunity and Promises to Preserve Constitutional Liberty.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 23.-Vice President James S. Sherman tonight contributed a prepared address to the republican campaign, in which he dwelt upon two issues before the country, constitutional liberty and industrial opportunity.

This statement by Mr. Sherman, which is addressed to the American people is practically his only contribution to the pre-election work of his party, the vice president's health having made it impossible for him to take an active part in the campaign. The statement in part

"It has been a matter of keen regret that I have not been able to take an active part in the present campaign. The restraint has been the more irksome as I have realized that we are passing through a national crisis such as we have not experienced since the civil war. It is hard indeed to be only an onlooker at such a time and I am almost impelled to disobey the doctor's orders and rush into the conflict, but I must not for I have private and public obligations for which I must conserve my health. Still I cannot refrain from sending out a few sentences for which I ask the consideration of all my fellow citizens.

Two Great Issues. "There are two great issues in this campaign which stand out alone. One, our constitutional liberty, the other industrial opportunity. I realize fully the spirit of unrest that has been aroused during the last few years by muckrakers and demagogues. I appreciate most thoroughly and join most heartily in the desire for so-called social betterment. I sm in full sympathy with every well directed effort to elevate still further your already high standard of living, to eradicate injustice and inquitous conditions in our social and industrial life, but I ask in all seriousness if any evils that have crept into our national affairs can be eliminated by breaking down our constitution, by attacking the courts or increasing the power of the mob.

Happily I believe this threatening danger which seemed to menace our institutions has been averted.

"But a great menace remains. We cannot improve the present social and civic situation by tearing down existing industrial conditions and abandoning opportunity for industrial and national progress. The democratic platform of 1912, as did the democratic platform of 1892, declares unconstitutional the imposition and collection of tariff duties, except for revenue. The democratio cendidate, Mr. Wilson, has declared that he would repeal ail protective duties. The present democratic house of representatives has put itself on record in favor of the lowest possible import rate. So we may assume that in the event of democratio success, we shall have a tariff for revenue only

Large Degree of Prosperity. We are today enjoying a larger degree of prosperity, a greater volume of employment and higher individual and collective wage than ever before in our history. No man need be idle who can or will work. The newspapers in their want columns are printing tenfold more help wanted than situation wanted advertise ments. Our farmers have harvested the most valuable crop ever known, our railroad facilities are taxed to their utmost to handle it. Our merchants were never so busy and our banks are bursting with dividuals can appropriate the word 'prosurplus funds. We are buying more abroad than ever before and we are selling largely more than we buy, insuring a favorable balance of trade to meet our fereign obligations. Every year, under the present tariff law, we have had a substantial treasury surplus. We are as contented, prosperous and happy as an ambitious people can be who are ever seeking to improve conditions and to increase a constantly growing income. The issue then, is whether we shall go forward or whether, as in 1816, 1846, 1857 and 1884, under low tariffs, we shall go backward.

"Eagerly, Indeed, are the manufacturers of Europe and elsewhere looking for an entrance into and then possession of our markets. Greedily, indeed, are they envying fifteen billions of bank deposits, over four billion dollars of which are the savings of the working classes. A tariff sufficiently low for sufficient revenue without protection to our labor industries means an importation of billions of dollars worth of fereign goods to take the place of our home products, with resultant idleness or a reduction of American wages to the foreign level.

Performance is Progress, "This may not be a new idea, but it is truth. It is history. It is experience. An idle impoverished, weak people cannot make progress, either social or industrial. We have been the most progressive people of all history and this has come

Mr. Monk's offer to retire was accepted today by the governor general. Tonight he issued a statement reminding the eople of the promise he made before the last general election, explaining that as the Borden government does not intend to submit the new naval policy to the people he feels that the only way he can keep faith with them is to retire. Mr. Monk said this was the only reason for his resignation.
