

A Man's Way By Tad

Selecting an Overcoat and Picking a Wife

THE SOCIETY OF THE BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. Friday, Oct. 25, 1912.

THE DEBUTANTES are going to form a bridge club. The first meeting will be Monday afternoon, but as the club has not had a formal meeting, it has not been decided definitely just how often the club will meet. At an informal meeting this afternoon the time and the place will be decided. There will probably be ten debutantes this year, so it is planned to have three tables of players and have extra guests at each meeting.

An interesting debutante affair planned for next week will be a luncheon given by Miss Margaret Groer Baum Thursday. This will be a Hallowe'en affair and the guests will be the debutantes.

An interesting announcement for the younger set is that Mrs. J. J. Dickey, who will give a tea Friday afternoon, November 15, at her home to introduce her daughter, Miss Bertha Dickey, will also give a dancing party the following evening, Saturday, November 16. This will be for the younger people and will be given at the Country club.

Bridge Luncheon for Bride.

Mrs. E. V. Arnold and Mrs. F. H. Hansen entertained at a bridge luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. Arnold in honor of Mrs. Floyd Sherwood, who has just returned from her wedding trip. Mrs. Sherwood was formerly Miss Nell Howard and her wedding to Floyd Sherwood took place last week in Dayton, O. At the luncheon those present were:

Surprise Party.

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss Irene Underhill at her home, 2302 Davenport street, Wednesday evening. Those present were:

Misses—Edith Cundiff, Anna Backus, Margaret Whitfield, Ellen Egan, Lillie Maria, Misses—Bob Caruthers, Ivan Huff, Albert Elliot, Harry Thomson, Allan Van Dyke, Edward Scheut.

Entertains for Mrs. Keyser.

Mrs. Charles E. Squires was hostess at an informal luncheon today at her home, Thirty-ninth and Harney streets, in compliment to Mrs. W. W. Keyser of St. Louis, formerly of Omaha, who is the guest of Miss Jessie Millard. Covers were placed for ten.

Engagement Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Duncan announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Agnes Winn Hess, to Mr. Hans Godfrey Raltmeyer of Chicago. The wedding will take place November 13 at the home of the bride's parents, 729 North Thirtieth street.

Wesleyan Alumnae.

Several of the young women graduates of Wesleyan college met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Nell Carpenter, 3538 Lafayette avenue, and formally launched the Wesleyan Alumnae association. The following officers were elected: Corinne Searle, president; Lydia McCague, vice president; Nell Carpenter, corresponding secretary and treasurer; May Summers, recording secretary.

Omikron Dance at Chambers'.

One of the large affairs of Friday will be the dancing party given at Chambers' academy this evening by the members of the Omikron club. About fifty guests will be present.

Bridal Luncheon.

Miss Ophelia Hayden entertained at luncheon today at her home in honor of Miss Louise Storr, whose wedding to C. H. Lody of Berlin, Germany, will take place Tuesday. A pretty decoration of yellow roses was used and covers were placed for twelve.

GREEKS MOVING IN SECRECY

In Future When They Leave for Balkans There Will Be No Notice.

TO TAKE ROUNDABOUT ROUTE Instead of Landing at Perias, Greece, the Newcomers Will Land at Liverpool and Then Go Across Continent.

Secrecy as to the movement of Greeks toward the Balkan frontier has been ordered by the Pan-Hellenic union in order to keep the Turks in the dark as to the strength of the force that can be mustered against the Ottoman empire.

On Thirteenth street, in the Greek quarters, where war is the only topic of discussion, the tone of conversation has been lowered and the countrymen are moving more cautiously. They decline to give out any figures as to how many are leaving here or how many are packing through, for they believe that Turkish spies are now at work in this country.

Leaving in Small Bands.

In order to avoid any display the plan of sending large bands of Greeks from the west to the port of New York is gradually being abandoned and the subjects of King George are breaking up into small bands. Several of these large squads of men are now passing through Omaha from the Pacific coast, but as soon as these have reached New York the Greeks will be seen only in small squads of half a dozen, or so. Thursday night seventy-five men passed through here from Wyoming and another band passed through here last evening. Most of them are coming in over the Union Pacific and leaving over the Rock Island. Practically every train leaving here now carries a few Omaha Greeks who are following instructions to avoid display.

Take Roundabout Route.

In New York this order is being carried out by a means of roundabout transportation to Liverpool and thence to the Balkan states. As near as can be learned at this time no more special steamers bound direct for Perias, Greece, near Athens, are being chartered. By moving to the front in circuitous routes and in small bands the Greeks will excite less attention and fool the Turks as to their number.

DR. HALL MAY CONTEST FINDING OF CITY ATTORNEY

Dr. Stacy Hall, who was nominated by the "progressives" for the Board of Education from the Second ward, and whose nomination the city legal department held was too irregular to justify his name going on the ballot, is undecided if he will test the decision in the courts.

"I have until next Wednesday," said Dr. Hall, "and while I would personally like to go into the case and show that I was nominated in regular manner, the office itself carries no salary and I am not anxious for the job, as my practice is large."

Dr. Hall said pressure was being brought to force a contest in the case. He has held conferences with leading bull moosers, but they have reached no conclusion yet.

HANSCOM PARK GREENHOUSE TO BE ENTIRELY REBUILT

Park Commissioner Hummel will rebuild the greenhouse at Hanscom park next year. The house has become so dilapidated that there is danger of many of the plants stored there being frozen, so the park commissioner has been compelled to take extra precautions against frost.

In and Out of the Bee Hive.

Miss Dorothy Hall is spending a few days in Chicago and is expected home Sunday.

Mrs. W. W. Keyser, who is visiting Mrs. Jessie Millard, will return to her home in St. Louis Monday.

COLORED VOTERS FAVOR TAFT

John Grant Pegg Says President is Strong with the Negroes.

MACHINE IS ON THE DECLINE

Obee-Bob Johnson-Benton Bell Forces Are Weakening and Having Hard Time to Keep Their Ground.

John Grant Pegg, leader of the colored supporters of President Taft, is being swamped with letters from prominent colored men all over the country, saying the support of the colored voters will be given by a big majority to President Taft.

A card was received from the Rev. G. W. Prioleau, chaplain of the Ninth cavalry, dated at Douglas, Ariz., saying could that regiment vote their support would be given to President Taft.

Nick Charles, colored organizer of the republicans of Kansas, has written Mr. Pegg that the "outlook is good and Mr. Taft has the support of the leading colored men everywhere."

Pegg, speaking of the local situation, says the Obee-Bob Johnson-Singleton-Benton Bell "machine" has weakened in its essential parts and that it is "taking all their ability to keep a stiff upper lip."

While the Obee forces will cast a comparatively large vote November 5 it is Pegg's belief that the negroes of the city will in the main stand by the man whose administration has been more prosperous than any preceding presidential administration.

Deb Kilpatrick is Seeking for Men

Deb Kilpatrick of the contracting firm of Kilpatrick Bros., who have a big railroad job at Gering, Neb., has made a special trip to Omaha in search of workmen.

His firm is experiencing much difficulty because a greater portion of the help, being Greeks, Bulgarians and others of the Balkan allies, has deserted the railroad for the military camp.

He has telegraphed to all the labor centers for men, and having received no responses he has made a special trip to Omaha to canvass the town personally. On account of the shortage of men it is not likely that he will be successful.

Kilpatrick wants men in various lines of railroad construction work, and he is offering good wages. He even promises to provide transportation.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE SECURES NEW SUBSCRIBERS

The meeting of the publicity committee was held at the Commercial club directly after Louis D. Brandeis' speech. Two good subscriptions to the maintenance of the bureau were reported from companies who have heretofore not been listed among the financial supporters of the bureau. The Kirkland Shoe company and the Carpenter Paper company were the two firms. Each signed up for monthly payments to the support of the bureau for a period of three years.

Thomas Redman of the special committee which is raising funds for the publicity department secured the two names.

Other subscribers reported were: Harrison & Morton Realty company, W. T. Graham, C. C. Wilson, Fred Kern, Payne & Stager investment company, G. G. Wallace and the Central Coal and Coke company.
