ALUMNI TO PROTEST RULES

Meeting Tonight at University Club Promises Interesting Discussion.

FAVOR EWALD STIEHM AS COACH

No Desire to Have Present Head Removed, but All Want Get Better Support for Tutor to Be Made.

By CLYDE E. ELLIOTT.

More than ten different subjects in connection with University of Nebraska athletics will come up for discussion at the meeting of the Omaha alumni this evening in the university club rooms.

Don't Like Rules. The moves that the alumni are expected to take tonight will not deal directly with the coaching system, for, it is said, the alumni favor the retention of Stiehm.

Amos Thomas, secretary of the Omaha alumni, has written George W. J. Kline, president of the Nebraska Alumni association at Lincoln, asking him to come to the local meeting tonight and telling him to invite any other alumni to be present.

The meeting Tuesday night is for the purpose of discussing something of the athletic situation at Lincoln, and we should be more than pleased to hear from anyone from Lincoln who is interested enough to attend this meeting.

Demaree started the southern league season with four successive shutouts and was not scored upon during the first forty-four innings that he pitched.

He worked for eight innings of a thirteen-inning scoreless tie against the Giants during the spring trip and allowed three hits. He averaged seven strikeouts and about one and one-half bases on balls per game during the season.

Tiger Stock Rises With Home Dopesters

COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The overwhelming defeat of the Sooners by Missouri at Norman, Okl., has caused Tiger stock to increase to such an extent that it is confidently expected that Nebraska will be decisively eliminated from the race for the Missouri valley conference honors when they meet the Tigers at Rollins field November 2.

Coach Brewer is giving his men as much practice in forward passes and fake plays as is possible, because he realizes little can be done by the light Tiger backfield against the heavy Cornhusker line when it comes to straight old-fashioned foot ball.

AMES PRACTICES NEW PLAYS FOR IOWA GAME

AMES, Ia., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Ames is going to be given the hardest workout of the year this week, as preliminary practice for the Iowa game, three weeks distant. Coach Williams has a few more plays to teach and there will be perfected in scrimmages Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

SURPRISES IN THE BIG NINE

Minnesota Shows Unexpected Form Against Iowa Team.

Chicago-Wisconsin Game Next Saturday Is Most Important Conference Game in the Near Future.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—"Big nine" foot ball developed a number of surprises in Saturday's games and is in mid-season with a number of new factors in figuring the conference championship.

The far north team had made but a mediocre showing in its previous games. That the Minnesota team is strong in numbers as well as class was shown by the fact that the twenty-six-point score of the first half was duplicated in the second with nine substitutes in the field.

The Chicago-Wisconsin game Saturday is the most important game in the immediate future. The Madison men have all the better of the prospect on past performances but Chicago is thought to be a better score than Chicago was able to make against Indiana and a recovery by Northwestern, that while it does not put the team back in line for championship chances, yet indicates that the Evanston eleven is likely to prove a stumbling block.

Jack Barry, star shortstop of the Athletics, whose brilliant work this year gives him an alibi. Barry is one of the best written-up men in the game considering his wonderful ability.

Malted Grain Fed to Carter Lake Fish

Malted grain from the breweries of Omaha is being scattered into Carter lake to feed the game fish of that body of water. This is being done in order to prevent the larger fish from devouring the smaller ones and thus soon kill off the supply.

ASSOCIATION CLUB OWNERS FAVOR $6,000 SALARY LIMIT

Eddie Collins, wonderful second baseman of the Philadelphia American league team, who has fielded his position this season in true championship style, and has consistently kept among the leaders of the league in batting. It is unusual to call a team a disappointment when it holds second place in the league standing, but a disappointment the Athletics sure are, for never before this year was the pre-season hope so nearly unattainable in predicting a walkaway for one team.

Jack Barry, Shortstop

It would earn a write-up all over the circuit. Connie Mack says Barry is the best shortstop he has ever known on any team at any time.

Games Saturday Show Improvement Over This Time Last Year.

NEBRASKANS TO GO TO COLUMBIA

Meeting with Missouri First Since the Two Schools Broke Off Relationship Ten Years Ago.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 28.—Last week's Missouri valley foot ball games all showed increased strength of members of the conference over a year ago.
