THE SOCIETY OF THE BEE-HIVE

By MELLIFICIA. Thursday, Oct. 31, 1912.

HOSTS and witches were abroad this evening in reality, especially in the West Farnam street neighborhood. The children enjoyed their fourth annual "ghost walk." A Halloween supper was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Axtell at 6:30 o'clock, and as soon as darkness fell the children, wrapped in sheets and wearing tall, black witches' caps opened the doors of their friends' homes and, marching in, cast a spell of good luck over the household, if candy or sweets of some kind were not forthcoming, or if they were given a welcome. But the un-hospitable ones—well, the children will tell the naughty boys about them and leave them to the mercy of their mischievous pranks. The children, most of whom are little girls, march in to the houses and around the dining room table, or wherever the family is assembled, and then quietly disappear. The little girls enjoy this kind of a Halloween celebration better than the throwing of corn and the screeching tie-tacs.

At the ghost walk this evening were Misses—
Mary Doud, Dorothy Darlow, Josselyn Stone,
Charlotte Rosewater, Lilian Head, Mercedes Jensen,
Gretchen Eastman, Winifred Grant, Pauline Coad,
Camilla Edholm, Elsie Schmidt, Vir White,

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Williams. The bride was gowned in white net over white satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil was held in place by sprays of lilies of the valley. Miss Myrtle Snyder was bridesmaid and wore a gown of pink marquisette, trimmed with pearls and lace, and carried pink roses. Mr. Grover Gettman, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony at the church an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Gettman will be at home after November 15 in this city.
