Home Decoration...

Do we ever really feel we know a person until we have seen in what sort of place he lives? And, even then, we sometimes misjudge, simply because homes do not always express their owners' true individuality.

Nearly all of us have more or less definite ideas as to the effect we would have in the appearance of our homes. But it is not always possible for us to work out the mechanics of decoration in such a way as to produce the desired effect.

And this is the purpose of this store—to help people attain the realization of their ideas on interior decoration. Those who hesitate to enlist the services of the expert, for fear he will do something contrary to their own conceptions, should acquaint themselves with our methods. Our artists will first meet you in conference, to learn to know you and your ideas.

Our facilities enable us to provide furniture commanding the greatest respect and admiration for the home.

Viewing our extensive displays will convince the observer of the truth—the best costs less in the end.

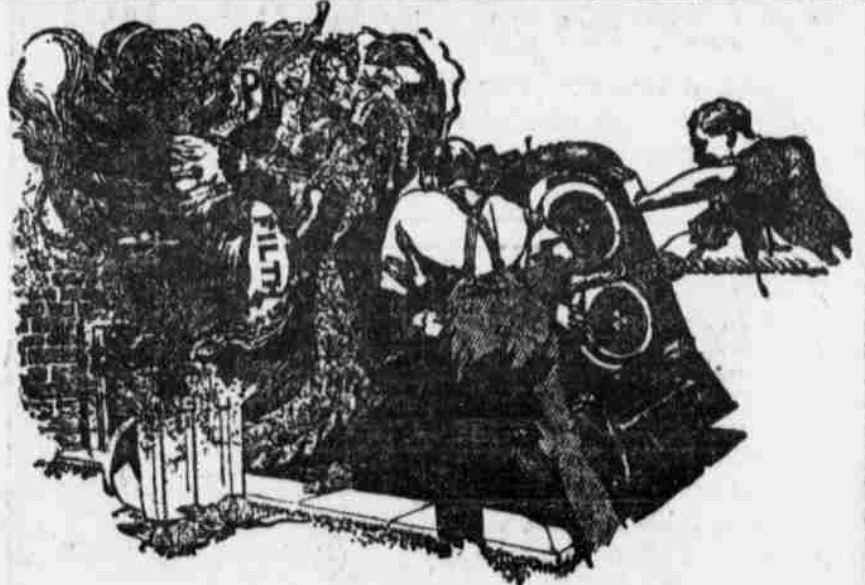

In our drapery section we maintain carefully chosen displays of lace curtains, decorative fabrics and upholsterings, in a large variety of refined designs and desirable qualities.

Our staff of trained decorative salesmen and designers is competent to undertake practically any problem of interiors.

The result obtained for our clients is a harmonious combination of the artistic with the practical—nothing else can give assurance of absolute satisfaction in the execution of decorative schemes.

Every flat building that has a KEWANEE GARBAGE BURNER in it has ten times more to offer than the flat with the private garage, the wall safe and the elevator. It offers absolutely clean and healthful atmosphere and freedom from the beastly ills that germs distribute so generously. It does away with the filthy garbage can and garbage man, turns fresh refuse and vegetable matter into fuel and saves 25 per cent on what it usually costs to heat the hot-water tank.

Physicians the world over agree—and have proved—that flies, fleas, lice, rats and mice carry the germs of all contagious diseases, as well as others that are not contagious, and these things breed wherever there is a garbage can and filthy refuse. With the KEWANEE GARBAGE BURNER on your premises there is absolutely no garbage or filth, and vermin have no chance to breed or live.

Ask for the KEWANEE GARBAGE BURNER when you rent your flat. When you do that you ask for health, and, when you get health, you get comfort and happiness. That is unquestionably the dope.

Write today for our illustrated catalog of Kewanee Garbage Burners, which gives details of construction, sizes and prices. Also ask any good engineer.

Golden fall has turned woodland and meadow into a bewitching yellow dress and have next summer if you plant bulbs now and make plans for getting seeds into earth with the first warm days. The second picture shows a cozy bedroom, with inviting bed, warmth-giving fireplace, and suggests to your mind the feeling, joy and comfort that there will be for the occupant of this room during the cold nights of the coming winter. One can draw up the scene in this room on a winter evening—fireplace flickering pictures over the wall, occupant sitting comfortably in an easy, roomy chair beside the fire, reading, calling up memories of happy by-gones, and dreaming dreams of the future. Such a life is the real life, and only poets—master poets—can make pen truly picture it.

Free Information to Home Builders

Through the kindness of Arthur C. Clausen, the noted architect of Minneapolis, The Bee is able to give free advice and guidance to those who are contemplating the building or remodeling of their homes. Any particular in connection with the construction of a building will be thoroughly discussed, for you, by Mr. Clausen, and without charge.

No matter what you wish to know about a home, you can learn important facts that will be of assistance to you through advising with Mr. Clausen. In writing Mr. Clausen, in care of The Bee, be sure to explain, in detail, just what you wish to know. If you intend to build a home, state the amount you wish to spend, the kind of a home you want, the number of rooms, the material to be used, etc., etc. Be sure to make all things clear. Though you may not intend to build until next spring, it would be well to write Mr. Clausen now, and get your plans completed early.
