The Bee's Home Magazine Page

Uncle Luther Comes to the Rescue Copyright, 1912, National News Ass'n.

Drawn for The Bee by Tad

"Dont's" for Girls Seeking Husbands; Bachelor Maid Gives Rules for Marriage Terror of Evrope, Lost His Cunning

By ADA PATTERSON.

wishes, and half of the girls shouldn't. "Shouldn't wish or shouldn't marry? "Shouldn't marry," firmly replied Miss Katherine Ascherman, the handsome bachelor maid well known in the intellectual sets of New York and New Haven society.

'Not every woman is adapted to marrlage. Only every other woman you meet impresses you as being good wife material. Perhaps she is not physically strong and that state presupposes unsteady nerves. Marriage built upon a foundation of unsteady nerves is a state of mutual torment. Another woman may have all the sterling qualities except either from inheritance or training, she had better forego marriage, for men, and particularly husbands, are irritating creatures.

"If a woman is flighty and visionary and full of ideals she would much better cut across the fields of singleness instead of following the paths of matrimony, for

Keep

Your Eye

on that

Can

When

Buying

Baking

Powder

For this is the baking powder that "makes the baking better."

It leavens the food evenly throughout; puffs it up to airy light-ness, makes it delightfully appetiz-ing and wholesome.

Remember, Calu-

met is moderate in

Ask your grocer for Calumet. Don't take a substitute.

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARDS.

price-highest in tially practical or matter of fact as marriage. It doesn't encourage illusions. It ounctures them. It isn't wine nor ice ream sods. It is plain bread and butter. "No woman should marry unless she has a working knowledge of housewifery. In this I think your American customs are inferior to those of my German ancestors. When my sisters and I had finished school my father said to use: 'Now it is time that you learned to keep house." "'Certainly,' I answered. 'We will learn from mother.' "'Not from mother,' said he. 'She would be too lenient to give you thorough instruction.' He sent us to spend a year in the home of a friend, where we did actual practical housework every day under stern, unrelenting surveillance. I thought at the time it was very hard, but know now that it was the best thing father could have done for us. We were prepared to administer the affairs of a household if we wished. We were at least eligible as candidates for matrimony.

"Everything was favorable except the advent of the right man. A man of wealth appeared as a suitor, and my good American friends said, with deep satisfaction, 'How fine. Katherine's fuure is arranged.' But it wasn't, for what, to them, seemed nonsense, but to ne was a sufficient reason, I didn't love

"We Germans are romantic and I thank heaven for it. It was quite impossible for er 'settling in life' with a man for whom I had no romantic affection. That is the only start nature gives to make marriage tolerable.

"I declined the man of wealth, and then to a chorus of my friends' wailing, 'I told you sos,' something happened. Something grave, but not irretrievable. I found myself without home and money. But through my own efforts I soon established myself in that position women so much desire in this country-financial independence.

"What I have done other girls can do There's always a chance to earn a livellhood at something, especially if you have been well trained. I hope your father and mother have done their duty and seen to that. No girl need marry for food and shelter and clothing. Hideous thought of barter! And the food and raione thing well and applied it to the problem of livelihood earning.

any man by making him a meal ticket or a human paying machine. That would all the marriages are happy. be unjust to both of you. Don't marry are tired it is probably because you are a success." lazy, for work of some kind is the law of health and of life. If the rich man doesn't come along, live a happy, free and independent life, filled with the best substitute for the best thing in life. The best thing is a good home, shared with a good husband and children. Failing this, which you will fail if you marry from any other notive than the real one for marriage, mentioned, and make it as successful as first case they brought in a young man shores of Bering sea.

MISS KATHERINE ASCHERMAN

Miss Ascherman says that no girl should insult the man she loves by regardment and shelter will be handsomeer and ing him as a meal ticket or a rent-paying machine. She warns present-day girls more comfortable if she has learned some against marrying unless they have a working knowledge of housewifery.

OAT ABAR SAYS 'A SET OF PALSE TEETH IS

AN EMBLEM OF TIM

you can. Form strong, worthy friend- with several ribs broken and other things "Keep your singleness and self-respect ships. Make a little home of your own, the matter with him. His automobile had until the man of your heart arrives" I And if you can possibly afford it, adopt bucked. say to all girls. "Don't insult or wrong a child. Console yourself with the thought that not more than a quarter if ribs stopped hurting for a few minutes me, I know just how much he knows because you are tired of working. If you and your life of a bachelor maid will be wanted to get the nurse.

Wins Nurse as His Bride, with a $1,000-chain of gold nuggets dang- It was a long time before Runyan called the old farmer oaver & sed I ling over her well tallored blue coat, struck it rich. When he did he cleaned want to buy sum honey to send back to arrived in New York from the land of up $100,000. He sent Miss MacPhee the New York. Robert Bruce.

love, still make your life triumphant. Do pleted her probation as a nurse in the a visit to her parents in Scotland.

The first time that Gordon Runyan's he noticed the nurse. From that moment about honey. If he looks at you steddy, "Then you will be happy though single, he wanted to get well solely becaust he sed Pa, I know he is a honest bee that up to Alaska and dig some. Wait a little honey wuddent be fit to eat. A tall, chestnut-haired, blue-eyed girl, while and I'll be back."

congenial work, the substitute I have French hospital, San Francisco. For her The honeymoon will be spent on the

THOTEACHER MOJUSTED HIS CHEATERS AND DEGRATO READ

THE TOALLY LESSON TO THE

PUBILS THE PRINTER

HM AND HE PINISHED THE

CHAPTER BEFORE HE

TOTES AROUND A THIRET

EASY WITH THE WHIP

PHIL! ITS A HIRED

BUT WE PIND THE NATIVES

OF AUSTRIA HUNGARY

HORSE

THE AVERAGE AMERICAN

NOTICED IT IT READ,

Has the Fighting Turk, Once the

Probably nothing connected with the war now raging has so much surprised all readers as the prompt success of the Greeks, Servians and Bulgarians against their common and heretofore dreaded enemy, the Turk.

Since his first appearance in Europe, about 600 years age, the fighting Turk has been a terror to all his foes. He has extorted the admiration of his enemies by his dash, his desperate courage, his dogged resolution, his defiance of the most fearful odds, and his contempt of life as the price of victory. Six hundred and thirteen years ago Othman, otherwise called Ottoman, whence the name "Ottoman Empire," invaded Greece from Asia Minor, and from that day to this Greece has been like a lamb caged with a tiger. The prodding irons of the great Christian powers, wielded at critical moments, have saved her from being devoured. but every time she has sought a little but possibly the handful of little powers more freedom from restraint a cuff from which have now flown at the throat of the mighty paw at her side has laid her | the tiger, and found the weight appar- argument.-Detroit Free Press.

Four hundred and fifty-nine years ago, in the fateful year 1453, the Turks took Constantinople, breaking the last tendons that bound the world to imperial

Rome by putting an end to the Eastern, ently gone from its blows, may be alempire. Then began the subjugation of the lowed to accomplish, if they can, a work Balkan peningula, and the terror of the that every one would like to see done, Turkish name was fearfully enhanced by provided that the doing of it does not upits association with a great comet, one set the equilibrium of Europe. of the most imposing apparitions of Hal- | Who would not wish to see Greece triley's comet, which hung like a sword of umphant in these modern days, if only strangely enough with the same comet, the unaided arms of its inhabitants? ald, they pushed as far as Vienna. They the Turk is a terrible fighter. His comet failed to capture the beautiful capital of has lost its terror, but has he lost his the Danube, but they had obtained a battle heart? broad foothold in Europe, from which no power has yet succeeded in pushing them

They have lost ground, it is true, and people. the modern kingdoms of Servia, Bulgaria and Roumania, have been carved out of territory which they won in their first as intelligent as the men."

Treafstless rush upon Europe, but still "Freely I admit that." resistless rush upon Europe, but still they have Constantinople, the prize that Russia has vainly grasped ever since the days of Peter the Great, and still there seems to be no power in Christian Europe great and courageous enough to drive the | we have, don't I?" waning crescent across the Bosphorous.

No great power would be permitted to do so because of the jealousy of its rivals, Damocles over frightened Christendom for the sake of the glory that was hers while the Turks were advancing to Bel- when she laid the foundation of the white grade, now the capital of Servia. But the man's civilization? Who would not recomet was a good omen after all, for the joice to see Servia and Bulgaria achieve Turks were defeated. But in 1683, and the freedom of the Balkan peninsula by on another of its returns, for their her- Yet we cannot forget the tradition that

"At last, Henry, the question of votes or women is to be submitted to the

"And that as women pay taxes, they ought to have a say as to how their "That seems reasonable. But let us discuss the question. I earn the money

"But do I have any voice in how that money is to be spent?" A few minutes later he put on his bat and coat and left the house, regretting

Little Bobbie's Pa

By the way, Bobbie, said Pa to me While I am up here in the country I think I will have to buy sum honey & send it hoam. I nevver tasted any nicer boney than the honey I am eating now. The bees that made this honey must have had a sweet disposishun. Pa sed.

So after we had our brekfast Pa & me went to the place where there was a old farmer wich had a lot of honey to sell All the way to the farm Pa was talking about how much he knew about honey used to keep been myself, sed Pa, when f was a young man back in Wisconsin & the minit I see the bees I can tell the kind of honey that thay make. The doesn't becleeve in sliteing his work "I haven't got any money," he said, but if he looks kind of shifty, like Gyp when he told her about it, "but I'll run the Blood, I wuddent be sur-prised if his nugget necklace and told her to come All rite, the old man sed, that is what Four years ago Miss MacPhee com- to Alaska. Just now she's returning from me & the bees is here for. How much honey do you want?

Wen we got to ware the honey was Pa

I want to get a whole case of it. Pa sed, fourteen boxes, the saim as my frend John Dick got here last week. He sed that your bees was as honest and hard working as the day is long. The only thing is, sed Pa, the days is gitting shorter now, so maybe the bees ain't on the level any moar.

Doant worry about the bees, sed the farmer to Pa. thay made all this honey along in the summer anyhow. Jest talk taste of it & see.

Me & Pa both tasted the honey & it tasted fine. This seems to be the real artikel, sed Pa, but beefour I take it I wud like to look the been oaver. You can look at the bees if you want to take a change, sed the farmer, but can't see for the life of me what differns it maiks how the bees look, as long as you like the honey. Cum on & look them if you want to. You bet I want to, sed Pa. I have lived among bees too long to git stung in a bizness deal. I ain't going to sting you, but the bees mite, sed the old man. So then he took Pa caver to one of the hives, & I stayed rite whare I was. All I want to look at is one of them sed Pa. Thare is one on the outside of the hive now, sed the old farmer. Pick him up & look him oaver. So Pa picked up the bee & beegan to look into the bee's eyes to see if the bee looked honest & strate.

I downt know if the bee looked at Pa in the eyes or not, but I know it stung him on the nose.

Occasionally a detective forgets to disguise his breath with a clove. winter of our discontent is likely to show up in summer as any

The wearing qualities of Mayer Honorbilt Shoes are exceptional. For thirty years they have enjoyed the distinction of giving nearly double the wear of average shoes. This is because of the unusual high quality of leather used and the workmanlike care in making. Without question, Mayer Honorbilt Shoes excel in wearing qualities. They are built on honor.

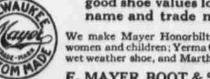

Lead in Style, Wear and Comfort

The latest styles for men, women and children are always obtainable in Mayer Honorbilt Shoes. They have the refinement and finish that suggest style at a glance, and the fitting qualities that mean comfort every day from the very beginning.

Wear Honorbilt Shoes and reduce your shoe expense. They cannot be equaled at the price.

Ask your dealer for Mayer Honorbilt Shoes. If not obtainable, write to us.

WARNING-To be sure of getting good shoe values look for the Mayer name and trade mark on the sole.

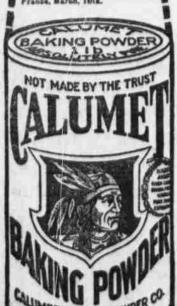

We make Mayer Honorbilt Shoes in all styles for men, women and children; Yerma Cushion Shoes, "Dry-Sox," the wet weather shoe, and Martha Washington Comfort Shoes.

F. MAYER BOOT & SHOE CO., Milwaukee HONORBILT

WAS GOIN' ON A PICNIC AN' WALKIN' ALONG A COUNTRY ROAD AN' FOUND OUT AFTER YOU STAHTED DAT YOU HAD BROUGHT DE KNIVES AND SPOON AN' CUPS ETC, BUT HAD FORGOT TEN SOMETHING ELSE WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

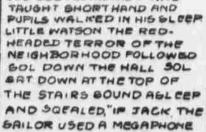

INTERLOCUTOR- I DONT KNOW WHAT WOULD YOU DO? TAMBO-KEEP ON GOIN' UNTIL I BONES DAS RIGHT DEN YOU

COULD SIT DOWN AND SPOON

HALTI

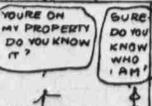

GOES

THERE?

WHAT WOULD THE SAILORS HORNPIPE ?"

DROP THAT WHEEL-BARROW WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT MACHINERY!

NO-IM THE BOOB WHO ARE

THAT PUT THE GPEED IN SPEED WAY