Prof. G. E. Condra of the department of geology at the University of Nebraska will talk on "The Conservation of Business with Special Reference to the Blue Sky Law."

"Safeguarding Employees," illustrated by stereopticon and motion pictures, will be another subject of the meeting. F. C. Manufacturers from all over the state will begin to arrive in Omaha Wednesday, November 13, ready for the opening session Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock. After the registration at the Hotel Rome work will start immediately on the organization of the visitors into a permanent association.

A temporary chairman and secretary will be elected and committees on organization, nominations and resolutions will be named. Addresses of welcome will be given by Mayor Dahlman and F. E. Sanborn, vice president of the Omaha Manufacturers' association, to which C. E. Towle of Lincoln will respond.

Germany May Oust Standard Oil Company. BERLIN, Nov. 8.—The German petroleum monopoly bill, intended to oust the Standard Oil company from Germany, is reported to have been adopted by the federal council, with certain alterations to assure the disinterested control of the company instead of allowing it to be placed in the hands of banks interested in oil production.

Official Count Will Decide Result of Kansas Election

TOPEKA, Nov. 8.—It will take the official count to decide the governorship of Kansas. Capper, republican, and Hodges, democrat, are neck and neck on complete and unofficial returns from all the 36 counties of the state. Figures conflict or are uncertain in ten counties.

Republican Chairman Dolley at the same hour said a corrected tabulation made by his committee gave Capper a lead of 633, without the mail vote, the result on which will not be known until tonight or tomorrow.

Game of See-Saw Keeps on in Iowa

DES MOINES, Nov. 8.—After slipping over into the democratic column, and, for a time, apparently electing E. G. Dunn governor of Iowa, belated figures late this afternoon seemed to give George W. Clarke, republican, the victory by a plurality of 2,273.

Leaders of both parties are claiming the plurality with equal vehemence, and both sides declare that many of the returns thus far received are incorrect.

An earlier tabulation of the returns seemed to give Dunn a plurality of approximately 6,000, but this was speedily set down when it was discovered that in several counties errors had been made in filing reports.

It appears almost certain that the official count will be required to determine the result.

The lead of Governor Wilson over Colonel Roosevelt was increased during the day to 21,641, when complete returns from ninety-five counties were received.

Stranded Passengers. DAWSON, Y. T., Nov. 8.—The steamer Viletta, which left here four days ago with 100 passengers for White Horse, ran into heavy ice on Indian river and is now stalled. The river is closed this side of Indian and the steamer cannot return.

CURRICULUM IS QUESTIONED

Undercurrent of Rebellion Among Teachers Against It.

REGARDED ONLY AS A GUIDE

Several Professors Dwell Upon Interesting Subject and Some Tell of Experiments that They Have Made.

That there is a general undercurrent of rebellion among teachers of the state against the authority of the regularly laid out curriculum was brought out in several papers and a free-for-all discussion in the child study session of the Nebraska Teachers association, held at Friday morning.

The contention was that the curriculum in itself was not practicable and that it could be used to best advantage only as a general guide and not as a system of set work to be followed.

Benson Makes Experiments. In a paper on "Some Thinking Processes of Grade Children" C. E. Benson of Lexington gave the result of a series of experiments he had conducted in asking children questions that were practical and yet outside of the regular course of study.

He mentioned a test made with a great number of pupils, in which they were given a block of wood in one hand and asked to select from a group of lead weights one that would correspond to the weight of the wood, holding lead in one hand and wood in the other.

Dean Cahn of Wayne urged the teachers not to follow their curriculum, but to approach it. He said he would not attempt to prove anything in regard to the weight of the proper method to follow, but that he could merely show which way the wind blew.

Along the same line Prof. Cornell mentioned an experiment of asking pupils to draw a tree fifty feet high with a man standing beside it. The object was to get the pupil's idea of proportionate size.

OMAHA SHOWS APPRECIATION

Sustains Its Reputation for Encouraging Good Attractions.

ALL THEATERS ARE PACKED

Offerings Are So Attractive Thursday Night that Hundreds of Patrons Could Not Secure Reservations.

Omaha has long had the reputation of being a good show town, and this fact was never so thoroughly and encouragingly demonstrated as Thursday night, when every theater in the city was filled to overflowing.

The most pleasing feature of the big turnout is that it made plain the oft-repeated assertion that Omahans thoroughly appreciate a good attraction and do not hesitate to show their appreciation by attending the playhouses.

Orpheum Leads the List.

The largest attendance at any Omaha theater Thursday night was at the Orpheum, where 2,218 tickets were sold. As usual at this playhouse every seat was taken and standing room was sold.

The largest assemblage of the evening outside of the theaters was at the Auditorium, where 5,000 persons heard William Jennings Bryan give an address.

Turned Away from Boyd. Many people were turned away from the Boyd, where the Aborn English Opera company is playing a week's engagement. The attraction Thursday night was Lucia di Lammermoor, one of the most attractive of the Aborn repertoire.

MUSIC EAGER TO HEAR THIS EXCELLENT COMPANY.

The attendance at the Boyd was 2,100.

Movies Well Patronized.
