SMITH REPLIES TO CHARGES Explains Situation Referred To Regarding Third Ward Count.

WHOLE FAULT IS WITH THE LAW Senator Hitchcock Challenged to Demonstrate that Charges Are Not Base Slanders and Suggestions Mere Talk.

Replying to an article in the World-Herald in which District Clerk Robert Smith is accused of having been Howard Haldridge's campaign manager, and that on the day before the recent election he switched election officials, insinuating that the changes were made to defeat Lobeck, Smith today directs an open letter to United States Senator Hitchcock, editor of the World-Herald. The article referred to intimates that a federal investigator of the conditions in the Third ward relative to the count of ballots may be made. Mr. Smith's letter to Senator Hitchcock follows:

"In response to your article in this morning's World-Herald under the caption, 'Cooked Campaign Against C. O.
Lobeck,' I would say that as clerk of the district court I appointed Harry Sig-wart, J. A. Dunlap, John Dougherty, David Tong and Charles Lemme as election officials in the second precinct of the First ward prior to the primary election in April to serve for a year. All served at the primary election.

"Prior to the election on November 5 Sigwart, Dunlap and Dougherty were excused from service because Dunlap had moved out of the precinct and Sigwart and Dougherty had left the city.

"In their places I appointed W. G.
Heinrich, J. H. Carrigan and E. L.
Barry. The original appointments were made and the vacancies filled from lists certified by Louis J. Piatti, chairman of the democratic county central committee and deputy county attorney under James P. English, and Benjamin S. Baker, chairman of the republican county central committee and new city corporation counsel.

"If you have any fault to find with these election officials take your grievances up with Messrs. Piatti and Baker, who, in my judgment, are little more responsible than I. The whole fault is with the law. We should have an election commissioner with power to appoint judges and clerks of election and who would not be limited in his selection as the clerk of the district court is now. You well know that this has been my contention for years.

"You say that I was campaign manager for the Haldridge. Mr. Haldridge was his own campaign manager. I supported Mr. Haldridge in his campaign to the best of my ability and I regard his defeat as a decided loss to the people of this district.

"You suggest a special investigation.

I demand of you and of your associate in congress, Mr. Lobeck, the fullest federal investigation possible in every precinct of the congressional district.

"Your paper has by insinuation and suggestion attempted to have the people of this community believe that honest men are dishonest and pure men are corrupt, and now I challenge you to demonstrate to the people of this community that the charges you make are not base slanders and your suggestion of federal investigation mere talk to help you 'get away with your goods.'

"We shall be delighted to have the people of this community know just what methods were employed in the effort to elect Haldridge and we don't want to hear a cry for quarter from Lobeck or his friends.

"You are a United States senator; you have the power to push this investigation.
If it is dropped let the people of this community know that you have dropped it not on account of Mr. Haldridge, but for fear of what it would develop touching Mr. Lobeck's campaign methods."

ELSASSER REFUSES TO BUDGE May Not Relinquish His Place on County Board to McDonald.

WILL REMAIN ANOTHER YEAR He is Advised by His Lawyers to Keep His Seat and If He Wins Other Commissioners Will Likewise Be Affected.

In all probability County Commissioner Peter E. Elsassser, democrat, will refuse to relinquish his place on the Board of County Commissioners next January to Henry S. McDonald, republican, who was given a majority vote over Elsassser at the election.

According to Elsassser's attorney's his term of office does not expire until January, 1914. The Nebraska legislature of 1908 amended the law which fixes the term of county commissioners. The amendment provides that county commissioners shall hold four years.

Elsasser was elected commissioner from the First commissioner district in 1908 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late John A. Scott. Scott was elected in 1908. Under this law he was elected for four years, 1908, 1911, 1912 and 1913 and if so the Scott term which Elsassser is serving out, will not expire until January, 1914.

For years the popular opinion has been that the Nebraska supreme court has held the amendment to law unconstitutional, but Elsassser's attorneys have advised him that the supreme court did nothing of the kind.

On this theory former county Commissioners Jefferson W. Bedford and Oscar J. Pickard, democrats, who surrendered their offices to Frank C. Best and A. C.
Harte, republicans, last January, could have refused to relinquish their places.

The history of the amendment is substantially as follows: The 1908 legislature passed the amendment making the terms of county commissioners four years.
Following the enactment charges were made that county commissioners then in office had a pool to procure the amendment, since it would have the effect of lengthening their terms. A legislative investigating committee was appointed, the committee found no evidence to sustain the charge, and that ended the matter, so far as the legislature was concerned.

Goes to Supreme Court.
The following year the validity of the amendment went to the supreme court on a contest from some small county out in the state. A commissioner, to benefit by the law, had sought to retain his office. The supreme court held that the incumbent must surrender to the newly elected candidate. Somehow, the impression became general that the supreme court held the law wholly invalid, but El-sassser's advisers inform him that the holding was in substance only this:
It would be against public policy for a man who was in office at the time the amendment was passed to participate in its benefits; while the amendment is not unconstitutional, it cannot be effective in the case of any person who was holding office at the time it was passed.

Elsasser says he has no intention of giving up his office the first of the year.
His attorneys advise him that the contest between him and McDonald was of no account and there was no election.

If the law is good, as Elsassser's attorneys say they are certain it is, the terms of all the other county commissioners, Leuch, O'Connor, Best and Harte, also are extended to four years.

Former Omahan Dies at Home in Tacoma

Edward S. Streeter, until a few years ago a prominent resident of Omaha, died of paralysis yesterday at 12:30 in Tacoma, Wash. He was 77 years of age.
Word was received this morning by his sister, Mrs. W. E. Magner.

Mr. Streeter left Omaha about four years ago. While here he was one of the oldest salesmen for the Paxton & Gallagher company. He was also president of the Western Travelers' Accident association, which office he relinquished when he left Omaha to accept the position of Pacific coast representative of the Chase & Sanborn company. While in Omaha he was prominent in political circles.

FOUR ARE ARRESTED FOR STEALING FIZZ WATER

Four persons were arrested by Detectives Dunn and Kennedy for complicity in the recent burglary on the Leo Grotte Manufacturing company, when six cases of S&W and several dozen silver spoons were stolen. They were arrested in the Missouri Pacific hotel, Fifteenth and Cass streets, and in their carriage were found bottles of S&W. The arrests gave the following names: John

Thieves Secure Loot in Daylight Exploit

Burglars secured loot valued at $200 Friday afternoon at the home of D.
H. Roy, 2609 Bristol street. Mrs. Roy, who is the wife of a well known contractor, was away from her home during the afternoon and in her absence thieves, armed with a jimmy, forced entrance through a back door.

They had the whole house to themselves and worked freely at random and with deceptive abandon, looting drawers and stealing practically everything in sight, and carrying off everything of value.
