

OUR MAGAZINE PAGE will interest every woman who likes good heart-to-heart talks with other sympathetic women.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

THE WEATHER.
Rain; Colder

VOL. XLII—NO. 126.

OMAHA, TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 12, 1912—TWELVE PAGES.

SINGLE COPY TWO CENTS.

McMANIGAL RELATES MORE DETAILS ABOUT EXPLOSION IN OMAHA

Hears Noise of Power House Job
While at Station Waiting for Train to Chicago.

EIGHT QUARTS OF NITRO USED

Thinks He Was Followed by Watchman and a Dog.

DYNAMITER PICKS WRONG JOB

Blew Up Car Shop Instead of Bridge at Mount Vernon, Ill.

HOCKIN REFUSED TO PAY HIM

Hired Dynamiter Says Secretary
Held Out $500 Due Him for Other Work—McManigal Suspected Hockin.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 11.—From that part of his career when he had discarded dynamite and was resorting to the use of nitroglycerin, which he carried about on passenger trains by the dozens of quarts, Orrie E. McManigal related today the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today how he had caused explosions at Cleveland, O., Jersey City, N. J., Pittsburg, Omaha and Superior, Wis.

He named Peter J. Smith, Cleveland; George "Nipper" Anderson, Cleveland; Charles Wachmeister, Detroit; Hiram "Cline," Indianapolis; William E. Reddin, Milwaukee; Fred McNeely, Duluth, Minn.; and Eugene A. Clancy, San Francisco, all labor union officials, besides those he previously had mentioned, as being among the forty-five defendants who knew he was employed by the iron-workers' union to blow up work under construction by "open shop" contractors.

Carrying twelve quarts of nitroglycerin in the company of Herbert S. Hockin from a hiding place in an old cooper shop at Rochester, Pa., McManigal testified, he delivered the explosive to Smith and Anderson in Cleveland, to be used by them in blowing up a building at Akron, O., July 4, 1910. The witness said he was to have done the "job," but Smith insisted it had been promised to someone else.

"They did not know how to use the alarm clock arrangement we had for setting off bombs," said McManigal, "so I was sent to Chicago to forward 100 feet of fuse by special delivery. It arrived in time, and the Akron job was blown up July 4.

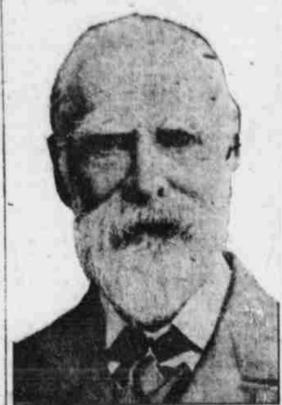

"On my going again to Indianapolis, J. McNamara said he had talked to Frank M. Ryan of the iron workers' union about Hockin holding out part of my pay for each job. McNamara said $300 a job had been set aside for a job by the union, and hereafter I would work directly for him. He said he had just received a letter from Frank C. Webb of New York asking him to send me to blow up a Phoenix Bridge company job at Greenville, Jersey City. I was to return by way of Pittsburgh and look over the McKee's Rocks job, and also by way of Scranton, Pa., and get in touch with Michael J. Hannan, local business agent. McNamara told me not to talk much to Hannan, as he was not sure of Hannan yet.

"Webb met me in Jersey City and took me out to show me what to blow up. While I surveyed the job he stood back, saying the workmen knew him around there. That night after waiting two hours to learn that the watchman made a round only once an hour, I placed two bombs in some gully after midnight July 9. In the morning I saw Webb with a newspaper giving an account of the explosion.

"On my way back I stopped at Scranton, and did not see Hannan. At Pittsburgh I bought a dozen alarm clocks, and on July 15 blew up the McKee's Rocks job. "When I got back to Indianapolis McNamara was talking to his brother, James H., who said he had received a telegram from Clancy at San Francisco and that J. J. said to his brother: 'Look up Clancy as soon as you arrive and he'll put you to touch with the bunch and the old man.' "On the way to Chicago, when I left him, J. B. said he expected to be three months on the coast, that they wanted someone to go out and clean up the coast.

(Continued on Page Two.)

BRITISH AMBASSADOR WHO WILL RETIRE.

JAMES BRYCE.

Two More Men Shot in Cox and Truby Feud in Colorado

DURANGO, Colo., Nov. 11.—A feud of long standing between the Cox and Truby families over the right to use Cox canon, located on the line between Colorado and New Mexico twelve miles south of here, was revived yesterday. Details of the trouble were received early today.

Samuel Truby and David McCullough were shot from their horses as they rode through Cox canon. Three rifle shots were fired from the rim of the canon by three men who had hidden behind rocks seventy-five feet above. Truby fell from the saddle with a bullet through his neck and another through his chest, while McCullough received a bad wound in his right leg. It is said Truby's wounds may prove fatal.

"The men who fired on us were like Cox, John Graves, a cousin of Cox's, and Jess Carmell," said McCullough. "They thought Sam and I were dead, so they didn't try to conceal their identity when they rode away."

No warrants for the men accused by McCullough had been issued early today, because it was said the officers are not certain whether the shooting occurred in Colorado or on the New Mexico side.

The feud began when William Truby, brother of Samuel Truby, was shot and killed in April, 1911, by the Cox. On June 5, 1911, while riding through the streets here, Andrew Rindy, aged 17, shot Cox, seriously wounding him. The boy is a cousin of Truby. Rindy was arrested, as also was Samuel Truby, charged with conspiracy. Both were tried and acquitted. The charge of murder against Cox for killing William Truby is still pending.

"Feeling is said to be intense among the friends of both feuding factions, and further trouble is expected.

Truby, who was brought to a hospital here last night, died today.

Baer Says There is Plenty of Coal for Everybody

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 11.—"If the people are patient I see no reason why the public cannot be fully supplied with coal without any suffering," said George F. Baer, president of the Reading company, in discussing today the reported shortage of anthracite coal. He said the difficulty in the way of increasing the output of coal was primarily due to mine strikes.

"Our company," Mr. Baer said, "has made an honest effort to supply the public and to keep down the price of coal."

"So far as I know, none of the large producing companies has sold coal above circular prices and in a number of instances they have warned the dealers who buy coal from them that any attempt to advance prices would result in cutting off their supply. So far as the Reading is concerned, this policy will be maintained."

DUNN SALS HE'LL FIGHT FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP

MASON CITY, Ia., Nov. 11.—E. G. Dunn, democratic candidate for governor, in a statement issued here today declared that he had been "fairly and squarely elected governor of Iowa," and "proposed to fight it out along that line."

"I don't propose to have the victory literally stolen from me and the wish of the people of Iowa thwarted," said Mr. Dunn. "The figures have been juggled in a good many counties and in a number of the votes were held back until the end of the week, thus giving every kind of an opportunity for unscrupulous politicians to juggle them. We will wait until the final official count is completed before taking action after which it is highly probable contests will be entered in certain of the counties where frauds are paid."

Orozco's Father is Arrested at Ft. Bliss

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 11.—Colonel Pascual Orozco, father of the leader of the Mexican revolution in the north, was arrested here today by military authorities and detained in the guard house at Fort Bliss. Army officers and secret service men refuse to give the charge on which he is held. Orozco recently was freed from local courts after forty days detention without trial.

TONY JANNUS IS DELAYED BY WIND

GOVERNMENT LOSES ON VOTE IN COMMONS

Trap Laid By Conservatives for Ruling Party Proves to be Partly Successful.

CABINET DECLINES TO RETIRE

Will Make Demand for Voluntarily Resignation in House Today

MANY MEMBERS NOT PRESENT

Dissatisfaction Over Home Rule Bill is Manifested.

STATEMENT BY LIBERAL HEADS

Announcement Declares Adoption of Amendment Clearly Due to Snap
Division and Overtures
Former Resolutions.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—While the House of Commons was debating the financial provisions of the home rule bill in committee this afternoon an unexpected vote on an amendment offered by Sir Frederick Hanbury, a unionist member for the city of London, resulted in an opposition victory by a majority of twenty-two.

The conservatives were jubilant and loudly demanded that the liberal government resign, which, according to precedents, it should do, if the vote, which was 228 to 206, was a genuine test of the strength of the government on the measure.

The temporary defeat of the government caused a great political sensation, but did not result in its resignation. The cabinet held a meeting tonight and decided to present a resolution in the house tomorrow, which will be practically a demand for a vote of confidence, and after some parliamentary red tape will endeavor to have Sir Frederick Hanbury's amendment resubmitted and expunged.

Trap for Home Rules.
The younger conservatives prepared the trap for the home rulers and succeeded in getting a vote, when many members were in the country or absent from the house, not expecting that important business would be taken up.

The government's average majorities on previous details of the bill have been in the neighborhood of 100. There has been much dissatisfaction, however, among members of all parties over the provision compelling other sections of the United Kingdom to contribute to the support of Ireland without a voice in the expenditure of the money.

The cabinet council held after the government's defeat lasted two hours, at the end of which its decision not to resign was announced. An official statement, which was issued, declares that the adoption of the amendment was classed as a snap division on a motion, which was not even put on the order paper and which was destructive of the resolution passed November 7 by a majority of 121.

"The government, therefore," the statement concludes, "does not consider that its defeat necessitates any change in its program, which, in respect to home rule, has been supported by majorities seldom short of 100."

May Call Militia To Suppress Strike Among Students

STARKVILLE, Miss., Nov. 11.—Declaring that if necessary he would call on the state militia to protect loyal students, Governor Brewer today took a hand in the "strike" of classmates at the Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical Institute, who "walked out" after President Hightower had refused to rescind an order prohibiting men from visiting young women students in classrooms out of study hours. It was announced today that 20 men students had left the college.

Governor Brewer, who attended today's session at the institute, asserted that the contention of the students was groundless. He said writs of arrest had been issued for striking seniors and that they would be taken into custody unless they left the college grounds.

It was reported that young men students did not consider President Hightower's order unfair.

Peerless Leader and Wife Are Visiting in National Capital

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—William J. Bryan looked over the recess quiet of Washington today. The democratic leader made a number of calls while visiting with his wife and son, W. J. Bryan, Jr., at the latter's home. His day's program included an oration at the dedication of a new building at Sibley Memorial hospital. Mr. Bryan avoided politics today, but it is believed that during his stay in Washington he will talk over national legislative matters with the few members of congress now in the capital.

Tomorrow he will deliver an address at the laying of a cornerstone of the confederate monument in Arlington National cemetery.

AUTHOR OF RENO DIVORCE LAW IS DEFEATED

RENO, Nev., Nov. 11.—W. D. Jones, author of the statute which made divorce easy in Nevada, was one of the candidates defeated for re-election to the state senate, and it is believed that a new law requiring a year's residence in the state before beginning divorce proceedings, instead of six months, as at present, will be enacted when the new legislature meet in January.

WILSON COMES TO THE FRONT IN IDAHO

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 11.—Wilson is leading on the presidential election returns now in and two small counties yet to report and which are normally democratic are expected to give him a plurality of nearly 1,000 over Tatt.

That Little One-Term Joker.

From the St. Paul Pioneer Press.

MORE EXTRA SESSION TALK Senate Must Ratify Board of Control Appointments

President-Elect Will Announce His Intentions Soon.

WANTS NEW CABINET MEMBER

He Favors Creation of Department of Labor—Washington Churches
Rivals for Membership of New Executive.

PRINCETON, N. J., May 11.—President-elect Wilson indicated today that he might make an announcement within a few days as to whether or not he will call an extra session of congress to revise the tariff. He intended delaying any announcement along this line until after his return from his proposed vacation, about December 15.

It was suggested to him, today, however, that congressmen would benefit by an early announcement in that they could arrange for accommodations at Washington for a definite period. "I hadn't thought of that," said the governor. "Of course, I don't see any public need for announcing my decision now except, perhaps, to quiet any speculation as to whether there is going to be early action or not."

Governor Wilson expects to name, along with the other members of his cabinet, an executive for the proposed department of labor.

"I hope there will be a new member of the cabinet for the department of labor," he said. "It will be a very important selection to make. Everybody confidently expects it and I have been told that all sides in congress favor the new department. The immediate creation of the department is, of course, dependent on the action of the approaching session of congress."

The governor said he was turning over in his mind ideas for his annual message to the New Jersey legislature, which convenes on January 1. He said he would urge especially the adoption of resolutions favoring amendments proposing an income tax and popular election of United States senators.

President-elect Woodrow Wilson has not decided which one of the Presbyterian churches in Washington he will join. Both the new president and vice president are Presbyterians.

"I'm glad there are enough churches to go around," said the president-elect today with a smile when he was told of the rivalry that had arisen among the churches.

The president-elect has a number of requests for speaking engagements, if he granted them all he would be speaking every night from now until March 4.

"I haven't given a thought to these things," he remarked today. "It is not likely that he will tackle them until he returns from his vacation, which begins the end of this week and continues until the middle of December."

Kansan Charged With Killing Parents and Sister Discharged

WELLINGTON, Kan., Nov. 11.—Otto McKnelly, 21 years old, was discharged today following a preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering his father, mother and sister, Gretta, aged 19 years, in a tent in this town, September 28. The family was clubbed and shot to death.

EX-GOVERNOR LARRABEE AT THE POINT OF DEATH

FORT DODGE, Ia., Nov. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—The condition of ex-Governor Larrabee, many times near death this summer during a long illness is today the most serious yet. Physicians say the end will come in a day and probably in a few hours. Charles Larrabee hurried to his father's bedside, summoned from here last night, and Senator Frederick Larrabee, who could not be found at the time the message came, took a later train and hurried to Clermont from Postville in an automobile tonight.

Senate Must Ratify Board of Control Appointments

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—A provision contained in the amendment providing for a board of control for state institutions, which was passed at the recent election, will prevent a republican governor this fall from choosing the members of the board before his democratic successor comes into office.

The amendment provides that the appointments to the board must be ratified by a two-thirds vote of the senate. As the state senate this year is composed of sixteen republicans and fifteen democrats, it would be impossible for Governor Aldrich to secure the necessary votes to ratify his appointments.

The governor refused to discuss the report current on the streets of Lincoln the last few days that he intended to attempt to appoint the members of the board just before stepping down from office. Last night Governor Aldrich said he had nothing to say in regard to the matter.

The board of control will be by all means the most powerful of all state boards. It will have the appointment of all the state institutions in its hands, meaning that practically a small army of men will be dependent upon it for political favor.

The following list gives some idea of the number of institutions coming under the jurisdiction of the board:
Soldiers' home, four state asylums, Institute for the Deaf, Institute for the blind, industrial schools, Institute for Feeble-Minded Children, Nebraska Industrial Home, Orthopedic hospital, State penitentiary, all other state charitable institutions and all other state reformatory or penal institutions.

Official Returns in California Are Slow; Roosevelt in Lead

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—County clerks of California were tabulating fresh today their latest returns on the presidential election, the result of which is in doubt.

These new totals were to be certified by the various county boards of supervisors and forwarded to the secretary of state at Sacramento.

The latest figures available gave Roosevelt 251,894, Wilson 295,539, Roosevelt's apparent plurality 43,745, with sixty-three scattered precincts missing in fifteen counties.

Of these missing precincts, fifty-six were in counties giving apparent majorities for Wilson and seven in counties giving apparent majorities for Roosevelt.

"Inasmuch as several of the remote mountain precincts must send their returns by roundabout routes to the county seats, distant in some cases four days' journey, whence they must again be sent to Sacramento, the official count of the state may not be at hand until late this week."

Capper Will Contest Election in Kansas

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 11.—Arthur Capper, republican candidate for governor, admitted today that he was twenty-eight votes behind George H. Hodges, democrat, with all counties in, although six of the counties are not official.

"I am not giving up the fight by all means, however," said Mr. Capper. "I shall contest the case and have every confidence that I will win by close to 3,000. Several thousand ballots were thrown out through a misunderstanding over the marking. Most of these were for me and I am quite sure the election commissioners will permit them to be counted."

MANY KILLED IN COLLISION Freight Train Dashes Into Exursion Train at Montz, La.

Forty-two are badly injured
Fourteen bodies recovered and
Many Supposed to Be Incinerated—Most of the Injured
Are White Persons.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 11.—A wreck in which fourteen persons were killed and forty-two were seriously injured and fifty were slightly hurt, occurred on the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley railroad near Montz, La., twenty-seven miles north of New Orleans early today, when a through freight train crashed into the rear of an excursion train of ten coaches.

Five of the coaches of the passenger train were burned and many of the wreck victims were believed to have been cremated, though thirteen bodies have been recovered.

The excursion train, hauled by two engines, left New Orleans at 11 p. m. On approaching Montz one locomotive broke down and the engineer signaled to the brakeman, it is said, to go back and warn the freight train running twenty-five minutes behind the excursion. This order, it is charged, the brakeman failed to execute and the freight train into the rear of the crowded passenger train at a speed of about thirty miles an hour.

Relief trains were sent from New Orleans and Baton Rouge. Thirty of the injured were taken to Baton Rouge. The two rear coaches, which were telescoped by the freight engine caught fire immediately.

Passengers who had escaped injury rushed into the wrecked coaches and dragged dead and injured from the flames and flames to rescue white persons as well as members of their own race.

White men risked their lives to save injured negroes from the rapidly spreading flames and negro men rushed into the steam and flames to rescue white persons as well as members of their own race.

White men risked their lives to save injured negroes from the rapidly spreading flames and negro men rushed into the steam and flames to rescue white persons as well as members of their own race.

Union Pacific and Hard Coal Cases Again Go Over

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The supreme court of the United States did not give its decision today in the Union Pacific merger suit, the hard coal cases or any of the other big cases now pending. The court announced it would take its annual Thanksgiving recess from after November 18 to December 2.

SOLDIER DIES OF SPINAL MENINGITIS AT FORT LOGAN

FORT LOGAN, Colo., Nov. 11.—Sixty members of the Ninth recruit company United States army, stationed here, were placed under rigid quarantine yesterday as a result of the death from spinal meningitis late Saturday of Joel F. Hinshaw, who enlisted in Denver three weeks ago.

Army surgeons are taking every precaution against possible spread of the disease which would doubtless cause many deaths. There are approximately 100 soldiers at the post. Those known to have come in contact with Hinshaw are being closely guarded and the surgeons are maintaining vigilance over the entire command.

Hinshaw complained of a violent headache Saturday morning, lost consciousness within an hour and death followed eight hours later.

NATIONS OF EUROPE FACE MOST CRITICAL PERIOD IN HISTORY

Present Week Will Determine if Peace is to Prevail or War is to Involve Continent.

AUSTRIA PREPARES TO ACT

Ship Sent to Durazzo to Take Off
Subjects When Servians Arrive.

RUSSIA IS IN A DUAL POSITION

Czar Inclined to Support Position of Serbia in Albania.

BEGINS MOBILIZING HIS FORCES

Russia Will Object to Occupation of Constantinople by Bulgarians—
European Warships to Care for Americans.

BUCKETT.
ESKUP, Turkey, Nov. 11.—The vanguard of the Servian army has reached the coast of the Adriatic sea. It met no armed resistance during its march through Albania, but its progress was slow on account of the deep snow.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Europe is facing one of the most critical weeks in its history. It may end in a war in which the whole continent will be involved or it may be remembered as a week in which diplomacy succeeded in solving problems that appeared insoluble to many.

On one side of the Balkan peninsula there is an acute conflict between the aims of Austria-Hungary and Serbia which, if it is not arranged, might start a general European outbreak. On the other side King Ferdinand's Bulgarian army is on the point of entering Constantinople and that will be resented by Russia.

The existing jealousies are so intense that it will take much pressure to induce either Austria or Serbia to recede from its demands. Austria, in fact, takes so seriously the advance of a Servian force toward the port of Durazzo that it has dispatched a steamer there to take off Austrian residents when the Servian troops arrive.

Serbia's friend, Russia, also is preparing for eventualities. Beads keeping time-expired men in the army it is mobilizing its forces. At Sebastopol Russian troops across the Black sea and its arsenal and commissariat departments are working night and day.

Austria Preparing to Act.
VIENNA, Nov. 11.—Continuous audiences before Emperor Francis Joseph and the Austro-Hungarian minister of war and the general staff of the army are believed to portend a definite step soon by Austria in regard to the Balkan situation.

Dr. S. Benef, president of the Bulgarian Chamber of Deputies, is here, hearing, it is said, proposals from King Ferdinand and King Peter connected with Servia's desire for a port on the Adriatic sea.

To these significant occurrences are added the arrival at Budapest of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his forthcoming visit to the German emperor.

Dr. Benef also is supposed to be empowered to make a special agreement with Austria-Hungary concerning Bulgarian interests and Roumanian claims.

A local newspaper, the Son and Montags Zeitung, sums up the position of the Austro-Hungarian empire in the Balkan question in the following four points:

First—Assured and unrestricted facilities for Turkey. Besides indicate that instructions issued by Great Britain and Russia, anticipated the desires of the American government.

Second—The integrity of Albania.

Third—The protection of Austria-Hungary's political interests by the creation of local relations with Serbia and the exclusion of political antagonism.

Fourth—Compensation for Roumania.

With Care for Americans.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The European powers have undertaken to extend protection to Americans in Turkey. The various American embassies in Europe were instructed when informing the various nations of the decision of the United States to send the cruisers Tennessee and the Montana to the coast of Asiatic Asia, to inquire whether provision had been made or was contemplated by them, in the interest of American citizens in Turkey. Replies indicate that instructions issued by Great Britain and Russia, anticipated the desires of the American government.

DAFFYDILS Another prize contest for the home-made variety. Come into the game again.

You can pick 'em as well as any.

Prize book worth a dollar to the three best each week.

Just write on piece of paper with name and address and mail to "Daffydil Editor, The Bee, Omaha." Contest starts this week.

The Weather

FOR NEBRASKA—Local rains or snow; colder.
FOR IOWA—Local rains; colder.

Hours.	Deg.
7 a. m.	55
8 a. m.	55
9 a. m.	55
10 a. m.	55
11 a. m.	55
12 m.	55
1 p. m.	55
2 p. m.	55
3 p. m.	55
4 p. m.	55
5 p. m.	55
6 p. m.	55
7 p. m.	55
8 p. m.	55
9 p. m.	55
10 p. m.	55
11 p. m.	55
12 m.	55

1912	1911	1910	30-yr.
Highest yesterday	58	41	53
Lowest yesterday	54	35	43
Excess for the day	32	15	25
Precipitation	0.05	0.05	1.15
Temperature and precipitation departures from the normal compared with the last two years:
Normal temperature	39	39	39
Excess for the day	15	15	15
Total deficiency since March 1	34	34	34
Normal precipitation	.94	.94	.94
Deficiency for the day	.89	.89	.89
Total rainfall since March 1	24.23	24.23	24.23
Deficiency since March 1	3.50	3.50	3.50
Deficiency for cor. period 1911-14	14.72	14.72	14.72
Deficiency for cor. period 1911-14	14.72	14.72	14.72

Station and State	Temp.	High.	Low.	Wind.
Cheyanne, snow	39	46	48	48
Davenport, cloudy	66	70	69	69
Des Moines, cloudy	66	70	69	69
Dodge City, cloudy	64	68	66	66
Hastings, part cloudy	66	70	69	69
North Platte, clear	42	54	50	50
Omaha, cloudy	64	68	66	66
Omaha, cloudy	64			