

Change of Ownership.

Great Sale Now On.

Record-Breaking Crowds.

The Sale that Startled Omaha

Nebraska Clothing Co.'s

$300,000.00 STOCK

Now on Sale at . . .

1 1/2 to 1 3/2

P-R-I-C-E

The Most Wonderful Mid-Season Sale Ever Held in Omaha or Elsewhere

The merchandise is strictly new and of the highest standard. The Nebraska's stocks represent the cream of the production of the world's best makers.

Stop and figure it out for yourself. The Nebraska's prices have always been 25% less than elsewhere. Now you buy these remarkable values at 1/3 to 1/2 off.

No wonder this store was crowded to the doors on the opening day. Think of what it means to you to attend this extraordinary money-saving event. Save 1/3 to 1/2.

On With the Selling

Regular Prices Shattered

Don't Miss this Sale

1-3 to 1-2 Price for Choice of Nebraska Clothing Co.'s

Men's and Young Men's high grade Suits and Overcoats
Men's and Young Men's high grade Pants and Raincoats
Boys' and Children's high grade Suits and Overcoats
Men's and Boys' fine Furnishing Goods

Nebraska Clothing Co.

FARNAM & FIFTEENTH STS.

JOHN A. SWANSON,
President

WM. L. HOLZMAN,
Treasurer

1-3 to 1-2 Price for Choice of Nebraska Clothing Co.'s

Women's and Misses' Beautiful Cloaks and Suits
Women's and Misses' handsome Dresses and Gowns
Women's and Misses' fine Fur Coats
Women's Skirts, Waists, Muslin Underwear, Etc.

ALLEGED OFFER OF BRIBE

Secretaries of State Board of Health Say Were Approached.

CANDIDATE SOUGHT FOR LICENSE

Skiles Files Expense Account, in Which Shows He Received Two Hundred Dollars from National Committee.

From a Staff Correspondent.
LINCOLN, Nov. 14.—(Special.)—That the secretaries of the State Board of Health are considering action upon an alleged offer of a bribe for a license to practice medicine in Nebraska became public here today.

The alleged offer came to the secretaries in a letter in which the party, who is said to have failed of examination recently, stated that he was ready to "get down to business."

The writer said that he knew of several places where the secretaries had sold medical licenses. Secretary E. Arthur Carr stated here yesterday that he would withhold the name of the man involved for a time.

The matter was discussed at the meeting of the secretaries Wednesday evening, but at that time, no determination was reached as to what the board's course shall be.

States Helped by Committee.
C. M. Skiles, democratic nominee for congress in the Fourth district, was the only congressional candidate in the state to receive financial aid during the campaign from the democratic national committee, according to his expense account filed with the secretary of state today.

Mr. Skiles says that $200 was sent by the committee and it was used in behalf of his own and the national candidates' campaign in that district.

Reports filed today were as follows:

H. G. Taylor, railway commissioner, $100.00.

G. W. Norris, United States senator, successful, $250.00.

John H. Morehead, governor, successful, $500.

W. J. Taylor, congress, Sixth district, unsuccessful, $400.

Dan W. Stephens, congress, Third district, $711.00.

Grant G. Martin, attorney general, successful, $500.45.

Herman Diers, lieutenant governor, unsuccessful, $198.75.

R. E. Barton, congress, Fifth district, successful, $440.

John A. Maguire, congress, First district, successful, $400.90.

Socialists Want Secretary.

An election by mail for state secretary of the socialist party in Nebraska is being held, and the result will be announced in a few days. Among the candidates are: John C. Chase, state organizer for the socialists, and Mrs. Alice Meles of Omaha. Clyde J. Wright, for years secretary and candidate for governor in the recent campaign, will tour the east delivering socialist lectures during the coming winter.

Good Seats Scarce.

State Senator-elect Jack Grace of Macon and Representative-elect P. C. Funk of Pank were at the state capital Thursday to pick out the seats they will occupy during the coming session of the legislature. They came after the best seats had been reserved and were compelled to accept desks at the sides of the hall and chamber. Mr. Grace was active in the 1911 session, promoting a bill to establish another agricultural school in southeastern Nebraska.

copy during the coming session of the legislature. They came after the best seats had been reserved and were compelled to accept desks at the sides of the hall and chamber. Mr. Grace was active in the 1911 session, promoting a bill to establish another agricultural school in southeastern Nebraska.

Israel Pays Visit.

Will C. Israel, republican candidate for the legislature, who was beaten by W. Z. Taylor in the district comprising Hitchcock and Dundy counties, called at the state house Thursday afternoon. He said that his vote had been cut down because he did not have the bull moose endorsement and straight votes were not counted for him. Two attempts had been made to hold bull moose conventions which would have endorsed him, but the weather on both occasions was so inclement as to necessitate postponement.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan of Wilcox, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For group there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.

INVENTOR IS CHARGED

WITH MISUSE OF MAIL.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., Nov. 14.—The federal grand jury today indicted David R. Stanley of Kimball, Minn., accused of using the mails to defraud. Stanley is charged with having influenced the sale of a patent car coupling to a manufacturing company for $25,000 by representing that the Interstate Commerce commission had agreed to order its use on all railroads and by enclosing a letter purporting to have been written by commissioners supporting his statement.

Got an Awful Fright

by fear of appendicitis? Take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and soon see how trouble vanishes. Guaranteed. 25c. For sale by Beaton Drug Co.—Advertisement.

CANDIDATES FILE EXPENSES

Cost of Campaigns Revealed in Official Documents.

SHAW'S VICTORY REMARKABLE

Action of Supreme Court in Sustaining Ex-Governor's Request Looked Upon in This Light—New Amendments Planned.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 14.—(Special.)—The candidates and committees are busy filing their expense accounts with the proper officials. Today the secretary of state received the following from important candidates: W. B. Green, congress, $1,021.88; C. A. Kennedy, congress, $1,397; H. M. Townner, congress, $230; W. L. Harding, lieutenant governor, $433; A. M. Dwyer, state superintendent, $191. The leading state committees have not yet filed their statements.

The governor today issued requisition for taking Frank Schwartz from Davenport to Springfield, Ill., to answer for burglary.

Remarkable Victory for Shaw.

All the lawyers agree that the outcome of the supreme court hearing on the Atlantic railroad was a great victory for ex-Governor Leslie M. Shaw. While he had been cited to appear before the court as a witness in a suit for the very purpose of checking him and preventing another day of extension for him to complete the purchase of the road, what the court did was not only to refuse this injunction but to itself authorize the very extension of time which it was expected would be stopped. Governor Shaw completely convinced the court of the genuineness of his proposal that he has actually made a good deal for financing the road and that if given a reasonable time he will be able to finance the building of the road to Des Moines. While the court clearly indicated that the proceeding was irregular and that no jurisdiction would lie here, the court also agreed to the steps which would make it easier for the lower court to handle the case. Governor Shaw personally handled the case in an admirable manner.

Urges Constitutional Amendment.

A. U. Coates, head of the Constitutional Amendment league of Iowa, has opened offices for the league and is proceeding with a systematic canvass to secure the needed votes in the legislature to order the submission to a vote of the people of the proposal for a constitutional provision prohibiting the manufacture or sale of intoxicants in Iowa. A preliminary canvass of the matter gives great encouragement to those who advocate the amendment. In fact it is believed that the chances are very much better now for the passage of the amendment than before for many years. The liquor interests as well as the temperance people took a hand in the recent election in many districts.

Sam Grecco Stabbed

in Fight Over Coat

Sam Grecco, an Italian employed in the Union Pacific shops, who lives at 901 Pierce street, is in a critical condition at St. Joseph's hospital and may die at any moment as the result of a stabbing affair with a countryman. The fight started over a coat, which Angelo Piccolo, 140 South Tenth street, had thrown away. Grecco remonstrated with him and several other employees gathered around in a threatening manner. Piccolo suddenly whipped out a razor and slashed Grecco across the face and abdomen, inflicting deep wounds. He made his escape and the wounded man was taken to St. Joseph's hospital. Police surgeons say that Grecco displayed remarkable fortitude while being taken care of and that a man less hardy would not have lived long enough to be taken to the

Wilson Likely to Call Extra Session

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 14.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson announced tonight, in speaking of the tariff and the monopoly question, that he proposed to carry out the pledges he made in his campaign speeches, to cut special privilege out of tariff schedules, prevent unfair competition in business and to destroy private monopolies.

In his campaign speeches the governor often reiterated that revision of the tariff should be undertaken immediately. It is believed that this idea now will find expression in a call for an extra session of congress to consider the tariff question, as well as other subjects which were issues in the campaign just closed.

It is known that the president-elect has made up his mind on the subject of an extra session and soon will make known his attitude. He is of the idea the work of tariff revision can be undertaken without a series of long investigations. He was informed that a New Jersey congressman had suggested that if it were a possible thing, committees of democrats ought to get together and investigate the various schedules.

"There have been investigations in every congress," the governor remarked. "I've studied the problem all my life. I think there is a definite idea of what ought to be done."

Anti-Discrimination Act Before Court

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Arguments were begun today before the supreme court of the United States over the constitutionality of the South Dakota law making it a crime to sell, with intent to ruin competition, commodities in general use at a lower price to a regularly established dealer in one place than to one in another place within the state.

It is the first time that an anti-discrimination law has come before the court and the outcome is being watched with unusual interest because of similar anti-trust legislation being urged on congress.

D. F. Simpson of Minneapolis, on behalf of the Central Lumber company, which has been found by the South Dakota courts to have violated the law, argued that the act was class legislation, that it did not apply where dealers were in the same city nor where the sales were to persons other than "regularly established dealers" and because it put an "unreasonable" restraint upon the disposition of property.

A defense of the law will be made tomorrow by attorneys for the state.

YOUNG MAN ADMITS BLACK HAND METHODS

FORT DODGE, Ia., Nov. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Carl Osborne of Cedar Rapids, indicted by reading of Black Hand letters, today found it necessary to plead guilty before the federal grand jury to sending threatening letters to William Sanger, a wealthy Muscatine farmer. Judge Henry T. Reed of Cresco will sentence him. Appearing with Osborne in court here is his young wife.

Life Sentence for Assault.

FORT DODGE, Ia., Nov. 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Fred Butler, aged 35, goes to Fort Madison for life because the supreme court affirmed the decision of the lower court that he was guilty of assault on his 15-year-old stepdaughter, Vera Butler.

PIMPLES ON FOREHEAD AND CHIN

Hard and Red, Itched and Were Disfiguring. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Face Entirely Free from Pimples or Blemishes.

19 Van Cleave St., Dayton, O.—"Some time ago I was troubled with pimples which appeared on my forehead and chin. They were hard and red, and were scattered and made my face hurt. When I would open and squeeze them a clear water would come out. They itched and were disfiguring as well as a great embarrassment. I treated for several months but I got no relief whatever. A friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment which I purchased. I used the Cuticura Soap and warm water after which I applied the Cuticura Ointment liberally, and I obtained instant relief. I still continue using the Cuticura Remedies since my cure, and lose no chance to tell any of my friends who are similarly affected. My face was sore but now it is entirely free from pimples or blemishes of any sort. Also my feet perspired very much and often galled very badly. A thorough cleansing with Cuticura Soap and warm water and an application of two of the Cuticura Ointment soon eliminated this trouble." (Signed) Mrs. H. C. Miller, Feb. 26, 1912.

A single cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient when all else has failed. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere. Sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address: post-card, "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

62 Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap.

This Coupon and good for the next number of ALL the following magazines:

REVIEW OF REVIEWS
COSMOPOLITAN
FUTURIST
Address, Magazine Coupon Dept.
Twentieth Century Farmer,
Omaha, Neb.

32c

32c

32c

32c

32c

32c

32c

32c

32c

32c

School Board Politicians Have Ironclad Agreement

An iron-bound agreement has been entered into by Dr. E. Holovotchiner, president of the school board, and Jimmy Richardson, chairman of the finance committee and opposing candidate for president. Fearing each will jeopardize the interests of the other by talking too much in print they have decided to observe unbreakable silence except in the presence of each other.

"Henceforth we will give out no political interviews unless we consult each other," said Dr. E. Holovotchiner. "We talked it over last night and agreed to this—fact is I'm not a politician anyway, but am just watching the game Richardson is playing."

When "Jimmy" or the doctor has an irrepressible desire to discuss on the political situation in the school board now he will reach for the telephone and the following conversation will occur:

"Holovotchiner?"

"Sure Jimmy this is me?"

"I want to tell the reporters that I've got you where the wool's short. You're a gonner. Seven members will support me for president."

"Nix on that stuff, Jimmy. You know I've got you. Why, I'll get eight votes for president just as sure as I'm a candidate."

"You're dead wrong."

"Wrong? Why man, you're not in this race at all."

"All the same I'm going to say so."

"I'll be right over to see you."

And then to the reporters:

Holovotchiner—We have nothing to say. Richardson—We have nothing to say. Holovotchiner (in an aside)—But take it from me I've got it clinched. You can say so and it'll be the truth. It's exclusive.

Richardson (same)—You can quote me as saying Holovotchiner's presidency is coming to a sudden end. I've got it clinched. This is an exclusive tip. Members of the board declare that never before in the history of board politics have they heard of an agreement between opposing candidates giving each the power to censor the other's political

Perfect
—in Purity
Quality
Flavor
Maturity

Perfect is the one word that describes this whiskey.

It is made, aged and bottled under Uncle Sam's constant supervision, it bears his 100% seal of purity, age and full measure. Look for this little green stamp over the cork of every bottle of

Good old GUCKENHEIMER Pure Rye BOTTLED IN BOND

Take a bottle home

Good old GUCKENHEIMER Pure Rye BOTTLED IN BOND