West Point Has Fine Opening for Several Factories

WEST POINT, Neb., Nov. 23.—(Special.)—West Point, the oldest town in the Nebraska valley, is situated in the center of the best agricultural region in the state of Nebraska. Cuming county produces everything common to the best farming sections of the west and in great abundance. Corn is the principal product and the soil appears to produce this cereal each succeeding year with undiminished fertility. Years ago an effort was made to convert West Point into a manufacturing center; the magnificent river at this point was deemed sufficient to insure the future of the town in this direction and high hopes were entertained by the citizens, the prophecy being freely made that West Point would become the Lowell of the west. But, alas, these dreams vanished away and the immense force of the water power of the river is running to waste, a flour mill, cement block factory and a brick yard being all that the city can show in the way of manufactures.

Wisconsin Wins Cross-Country Run

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—J. A. White of the University of Wisconsin won the fifth annual intercollegiate cross country run at Evanston today. Rex Wilham of the University of Missouri was second and Thomsen of Northwestern university was third. White's time was 32:39 for the five mile course.

Rowing Deserves More Prominence in Olympiad

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Men who are prominent in the councils of amateur rowing in the United States and abroad are interchanging ideas as to the status of this sport in the next Olympic games. There is a feeling that it did not receive the prominence it deserves at Stockholm and previous international athletic affairs. It is on the cards to have a conference next spring among the officers of dominant amateur rowing organizations of the world. This conference will be held in Germany or the United States.

YALE IS EASY FOR HARVARD

line. There was a fair catch by the Harvard quarterback. Wheeler made a yard through center. Felton's kick was muffed by Wheeler on Yale's twenty-five-yard line. Brickett kicked it up back toward the goal line for the first score of the game. Harvard kicked the goal.
The Harvard section went wild and cheered. Wheeler's muffed kick was partially due to a hard tackle by O'Brien.
Play was resumed by Flynn kicking over the goal line. When the ball was brought out, Felton kicked to Yale's forty-five-yard line. Wheeler again muffed it and the ball went to Harvard. Brickett stepped back to the forty-four-yard line and kicked a goal from the field, making the score: Harvard, 10; Yale, 0.
Cornell repeated Wheeler at quarterback. Play was resumed with Flynn kicking to Gardner on Harvard's five-yard line. Flynn's run back ten yards. Felton kicked on the second down to Cornell on the Blue's forty-five-yard line. Harvard kicked the ball to the yard line. Brickett kicked back to Harvard's twenty-two-yard line.
Score first period: Harvard, 10; Yale, 0. Brickett's touchdown was the first touchdown in a Harvard-Yale game since 1907 and the first against Yale this year.
The second period opened with a Yale kick to the Harvard fifteen-yard line and the punt was returned to Yale's forty-yard line.
On the second down Cornell made twelve yards through center for Yale's first down. Philbin added two and Spaulding in a wing shift found Flynn on a first down on Harvard's forty-yard line and Philbin stepped over five Harvard players for a gain of five yards.
Yale spread out and Spaulding tossed a high forward pass, but failed. Sheldon went in for Bomester, Spaulding's second forward pass was intercepted by Harvard on the Crimson twenty-three-yard line.
Felton punted to Yale's thirty-five-yard line and Flynn kicked back to Cornell's thirty-five-yard line. There was no Bomester on the Yale end and Harvard kicked the ball back to Harvard's forty-seven-yard line.
Harvard began rushing, but though Brickett ploughed through center for three yards, a twenty-yard penalty for holding put the ball back to the thirty-yard line and Felton kicked to Flynn on a quarterback line.
The ball was muffed but Cornell picked it up and gained five yards. Flynn kicked to Harvard's twenty-seven-yard line and Brickett kicked back to Harvard's forty-seven-yard line.

PACKERS THROW A SCARE INTO OMAHA

two-yard line. Three plunges found the yard within two inches of going over, and time was called.
Packers Change Lineup.
In the second half several changes were made in the South Omaha lineup. Connor switched from right half to replace W. Sullivan at right end. Strainholt replaced Pitts at right guard. Rapp went in for Connor at right half. This change in the line and back field seemed to strengthen the South Omaha line and they started to rush the Omaha line down the field. Omaha's secondary defense went to pieces and Nixon, carrying the ball, made big gains.
Omaha players became muddled in the second half and instead of tackling low, caught their opponents about the head and shoulders. South Omaha took advantage of Omaha's ragged playing and ripped off some good forward passes. Omaha tumbled much and lost the ball three times in the last period in this manner.
At the beginning of the fourth quarter Omaha braced, and after a few minutes' play began to reel off long gains, but the call of time found the ball on South Omaha's eight-yard line and first down. The lineup:
SOUTH OMAHA
Wilson, OMAHA, L. R. T. Phillips
Bell, OMAHA, L. R. C. McFadden

Report to Be Made on Swimming Events

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—That American swimmers achieved remarkable success at the Olympic games last July, although these events were almost entirely disregarded in the cable dispatches from Stockholm owing to the interest in other branches of athletics, is shown in the report that will soon be made to the Amateur Athletic union by Otto Wahl, chairman of the metropolitan swimming committee of the Amateur Athletic union.
Wahl had charge of the American swimmers at Stockholm and was largely responsible for the good showing made by the team.

With the Bowlers

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the City Bowling association will hold its third meeting of the season at Ortmans' banquet rooms. At this meeting several matters of importance will be acted upon. Plans will be formulated and a date set for the first grand ball of the season. The coming city tournament will be discussed and a committee appointed to set the date and arrange the schedule.
President Tracy is anxious that all members be in attendance and also invites the leagues not belonging to the association to send representatives to this meeting for the purpose of becoming members. At present the Automobile, Omaha Gas, Tri-City Dental, Benson and Merchants leagues have not come into the fold and it is hoped that they will join at this meeting.
The bowling organization of Omaha and vicinity cannot be complete without the membership of all fourteen leagues.
After the business has been taken care of a banquet will be spread and a social hour spent. These meetings are not for members only, but are open to all.

Omaha Uni Ready for Tarkio on Thursday

Coach Morzenhauser of the University of Omaha will put in the hardest kick of work Monday and Tuesday in order to get his Shetlands into condition for the game Thanksgiving with Tarkio college at Tarkio. Tarkio has always put up a scrappy game and is very hard to beat on its own grounds. Until this year it had lost only one game on the home grounds and that game was to the University of Missouri team. As a result of this and because the comparative scores of the two teams indicate that Tarkio is as strong as Omaha the odds seem to be in favor of the Missourians, though the local team may be depended upon to fight until the final whistle.
Though the game with Peru was close and hard-fought Omaha came out of it in good shape save for a few bruises. In the game with the school masters the Omaha team took out time but twice, and did not have to call upon any of its substitutes.
The Thanksgiving day game will be the first game in the history of the school which will mark the close of the football career of an Omaha university athlete. Up to this time there has not been a senior class and as a consequence there have been no losses to the team through graduation. This game will be played under different conditions, however, as George Parish and Stanton Salisbury are both seniors. Parish plays left end and Salisbury center. The loss of both will be keenly felt as both have played very good ball. Parish in particular has been the one scintillating star in all branches of athletics at the university.
CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—A Bill to legalize boxing in Chicago is to be presented at the next meeting of the legislature and, according to current talk in the Windy City sporting circles, several of the democratic members who were elected during the recent election are ready to speak in its favor. The bill aims to place the control of boxing in the hands of a commission similar to that in New York.
The provision of the proposed bill calls for six-round non-discriminatory boxing. The number of clubs to be given permits is to be limited and only reputable clubs incorporated under state law will be in line for a license.

LEGISLATION IS NEEDED TO PROTECT CHICKENS

"Unless the game laws are made more stringent and are better enforced, we will soon have nothing to shoot in eastern Nebraska but a few cotton-tails," says C. C. Skeen of Columbus.
"There is no use talking, the chicken shooting of the eastern part of this state is a thing of the past. The chickens used to be brood around in the eastern part of the state and of a spring morning one could hear chickens in a dozen directions at the same time. No one seldom, if ever, hears this now, and to get chickens you have to go to the sand hills, where there is nothing to fatten a chicken when it is hatched.
"I don't believe any man going to the legislature ought to be ashamed to introduce some strong game legislation. Some of these fellows think it too small a matter for them to monkey with when they get into the legislature. They want to reform the world the first shot, so they give their attention to what they consider remedial legislation."

MANY HAVE ENTERED FOR THE CROSS-COUNTRY RUN

Over fifteen entries have been received for the annual cross-country run to be given by the Young Men's Christian association on Thanksgiving morning. The entries include such institutions as the high school, University of Nebraska, Creighton, Omaha university, Bellevue, Council Bluffs and South Omaha High schools and several of the local athletic clubs. The race will be for a distance of five miles and will start at 9 o'clock Thanksgiving morning. The course will run out towards Florence a distance of two and one-half miles and back.
Last year the event was pulled off on New Year's day, but owing to snow and cold weather the time was slow and the athletes were in bad shape physically when they returned, consequently the time of the run was moved ahead over a month.
Medals will be given to the winners as in the years past. A gold medal will be given for first place, silver for second and bronze for third. A pennant appropriately inscribed will also be given to the club or school whose representative finishes first.
You Can't Fall.
You will always be satisfied if you get a seamless auto coat. If it's made of rubber. We have it. Omaha Rubber Company, 1608 Harney street.

MOVEMENT MAY RESULT IN CONFERENCE IN COLLEGES

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—A movement is on foot which will, if it materializes, result in a new conference in colleges and universities in the middle west. Sponsors for the plans are working secretly and with a dispatch that augurs well for ultimate success.
Notre Dame, Marquette and Wabash have been named as charter members, with the possible inclusion of the Michigan Agricultural college and Lawrence university. There will be six or eight institutions in the conference, and it will enter upon its official existence in the fall with the opening of the 1913 foot ball season.

AMATEUR ATHLETICS HAVE HARD TIME TO ORGANIZE

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Any belief that the newly organized Amateur Athletic federation, which is now bidding for supremacy in the District of Columbia, would seriously threaten the Amateur Athletic union seems to have flattened out with recent developments. It appears now that the new organization, after getting away to a flying start by enrolling several clubs in its membership, is meeting with trouble through the failure to induce one of the principal organizations in Washington to join.

Navy Piles Up Big Score

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 23.—Navy piled up a score of 33 to 9 New York university here this afternoon and at the same time kept the visitors from at any time endangering the Blue and Gold goal line.
