AMENDMENTS SOON BE LAWS

Governor Aldrich Will Prolaim Them at an Early Date.

MAY NAME BOARD OF CONTROL

Popular Vote Shown By Canvassing Board to Be Less for Wilson in State Than for Bryan Four Years Ago.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The state canvassing board this afternoon commenced the tremendous task of checking and verifying the vote at the election early this month.

The board started its labors by canvassing the returns on the amendments, this part of the work to be completed probably some time Wednesday or Thursday.

Governor Aldrich, as soon as the board officially verifies, this vote will issue a proclamation, which will put into legal effect the amendments and will make them laws of the state.

It is thought that Governor Aldrich will lose no time in putting the amendments on the statutes of the state. Whether he will then make an attempt to appoint the members of the State Board of Control, which body was created by one of the amendments, it is not known at this time, the governor having so far refused to commit himself.

Secretary Wait and State Auditor Barton are the two members of the canvassing board who were on the job Tuesday. While the task is but a matter of form there is considerable detail work in its connection.

Total Vote Under 1908.

Nebraska's total vote on president this year is 11,553 below that cast in Nebraska in 1908, when W. J. Bryan was the nominee. The total number of ballots cast this year was 258,838, while four years ago the total was 271,491.

Wilson's vote in this state was 109,053, as compared with 131,009 for Bryan in 1908, a decrease in the democratic presidential vote of 22,006. These comparisons were shown when the state canvassing board began its work here this afternoon.

This falling off is attributed here to the fact that Bryan received a big "state pride" vote, many of these voters having cast their ballots for Roosevelt this year.

The combined vote for Roosevelt and Taft was a trifle under what Taft received in the state four years ago, Roosevelt's vote is 72,714 and Taft's 54,272, making an aggregate of 126,986 for both. Four years ago Taft got 128,977.

Guard Inspection. The annual inspection of Company F, Second Regiment, Nebraska National guard, took place Monday evening in the armory here. Major Lewis H. Gage was the inspecting officer. Forty-three men and two commission officers were present. The equipment was found to be in excellent condition and the appearance and efficiency of the company were satisfactory to the examining officers. A silver loving cup offered by Captain Phillip Hall to the soldier having his equipment in the best condition was presented to Private Bernie Schmidt.

Palmer After Place. H. C. Palmer of Clay Center is not seeking the honor of speaker of the house in the coming legislative session, although he says that he will not refuse the position if he is elected. Mr. Palmer has been mentioned for the speakership, but declares that he is not a candidate.

The leading candidate for the position of speaker is G. W. Potts of Dubois, and his chances for election are considered good. Other candidates are: J. W. McKisick, Beatrice; G. W. Fuller, Seward; P. C. Kelley, Grand Island, and J. J. McAllister, Dakota City. W. Z. Taylor of Culbertson, who is also mentioned, is seriously ill at his home.

Two years ago he was a representative, but was defeated for re-election this fall. The other aspirants for the office are C. H. Barnard of Table Rock and T. W. Bass of Broken Bow. Bass is being supported for the position by State Treasurer George.

Room for More Patients. That the congested condition of the Lincoln and Norfolk hospitals will be shortly relieved was promised today by word received by the Board of Public Lands and Buildings that Superintendent Thomas of the Beatrice institute for the feeble-minded has made arrangements to accommodate sixty more patients. Superintendent R. P. Williams of the Lincoln hospital departed for Beatrice today to view the conditions there and report on the proposed removal of patients.

The legislators who will gather in Lincoln shortly after the opening of the new year will find themselves cast in the midst of a veritable supply of any sort of thing they may desire in the way of cigars and foods and shaves. Game Warden Miller was granted the cigar concession by the Board of Public Lands and Buildings today, and when he steps down from office with the change of administration he will have a business awaiting him. A local lunch room procured the cigar concession and the barber shop right was granted to a local barber. None of the concessioners pays for the right granted them, and the state collects no rent from them. The board, however, demands that good service be supplied at reasonable prices.
