SNELL TALKS FOR ALUMNI

Treasurer of Nebraska University Association Delivers Address.

ASKS ALL TO WORK TOGETHER

In Speech Before Recent Banquet. Request for Complete Fraternity Between Regents and Alumni is Made.

(From a Staff Correspondent) LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 29.—Special.—The alumni of the University of Nebraska, have adopted a definite policy for the extension of the institution. They will seek to acquaint the people of the state with the needs and aims of the university. At the recent alumni banquet at the Lincoln hotel, N. Z. Snell, treasurer of the association, delivered the following "key-note" address: "It is always a pleasure to me to attend any of the gatherings which bring the student body and alumni together. My interest in young people with their abundant good nature, their enthusiasm and high ideals, grows with the years; and it is always a delight to meet again the old and tried college friends and associates of earlier days. No others are quite so close; none can ever fill their places. "In common with all the others, who have spoken or are to speak, I rejoice that victory was with our eleven this afternoon. While personally, I am not what you would call a fanatic on either base ball or foot ball, I can applaud when success comes as the result of clean methods and superior skill, whether in college sports, in trade, in banking, in professional life, or elsewhere. "Begs for Concerted Action. "The time is at hand when our association should bestir itself, not only to foster a spirit of loyalty and fraternity among the graduates and former students, but also to bring about united and concerted action in promoting the welfare of the university. How shall this be done? No one, so far as I am aware, believes that the association should enter actively into political life in a neighboring state they do. There they endorse candidates, oppose others and their organization is decidedly of a political cast. Whatever merit such a system may have, it has found no open supporters here. Results can be accomplished in other ways, but to accomplish them a concerted plan should be promulgated and that plan pushed with vigor. "The chancellor and board of regents are the ones to outline the plan. All presumption should be resolved in favor of the soundness of their views. When the plan has once been formulated, there should be prepared a brief or points in its favor. The reasons why should be set out; the facts should be given. Publicity should be the slogan. In Minnesota they print a hand book which contains general information about the university. The appropriations asked by the regents are given in detail. Comparisons are made with the appropriations given by sister states to their universities. Statistics are tabulated giving the number of students and professors are compared with those in other institutions. A chart showing how the cost of living has advanced is shown. This is for the purpose of emphasizing the necessity of better pay for their professors. There is a plot of the campus showing proposed additions to it. By means of this hand book any alumnus can keep in touch with the physical needs of his alma mater, and be able to answer objections intelligently. "The resident alumni of this state now number 1,800, about one for every voting precinct. The greater part of these men and women could be enlisted in a campaign for a larger campus, better buildings, and increased salary for the professors if their services were asked and they were furnished with the material. They could aid in creating a university sentiment in their localities. They are too modest and not aggressive enough to be pressing the claims of the university, the greatest single asset the state has. Just think what 1,800 graduates could do if they were thoroughly aroused and were in dead earnest. The number is not limited to the graduate. There are the former students who did not graduate and who they probably exceed in numbers those who did six or eight times, thus bringing the total to 10,000 or 12,000. Here is a force and power which has never been properly utilized. Because its needs are known on the campus, it does not follow that all the farmers, merchants, business and professional men of the state are also fully informed. "A moment ago I said publicity should be the slogan. But it should be full publicity, and not administered in homopathic doses. When you go to a bank to borrow a few hundred dollars the banker wants to know the why and wherefore of the deal. You tell him or he closes up like a clam. He may anyhow. Why, then, should not the people of the state be taken into confidence when the legislature is asked to make appropriations of hundreds of thousands of dollars? They have a right to know where the money is to go. They have a right to be dealt with not only honestly, but with complete frankness. "None for Temple. "I can enforce this thought by relating a circumstance. Prior to 1903 plans were matured for the purchase of the lots on which the temple building now stands and the erection of the temple. They contemplated the state furnishing the money to buy the lots, a popular subscription for a third of the funds for the erection of the building and the donation of the balance by John D. Rockefeller. One of the appropriations bills passed by the legislature of 1903 carried an item, "For purchasing real estate near the university grounds in Lincoln, $5,000." The legislature was not advised of what was back of this item of $5,000. The members were not given all the facts. These did not come out until in the following year. They were withheld because it was feared that if the people and the legislature were told the whole truth about the matter that the item would not receive legislative approval. Can a state university afford to get appropriations in such a way? I say "No, a thousand times no." If there is one institution more than another which should be above suspicion in its attitude toward the taxpayers of the state, that institution is the state university. "Regents to Map Plan. "So I plead, first, for harmonious action between the legislative authorities and the Alumni association; second, for the chancellor and the regents to map out a definite plan of action; third, that the alumni of the state get back of the proposition and give it cordial and hearty support; and fourth, that the legislature and the people be treated with the utmost fairness. Appeal to their reason, their state pride. Suppress no facts. Point out what the university has done and can do for the state. Turn on the light. Blaze forth the truth about the actual needs of the university, and I have faith to predict that such a strong and wholesome sentiment can be created as to pass appropriate bills big enough to erect new buildings, to increase the salary of the professors and to extend the campus. "Nebraska is fast becoming one of the wealthiest states in the union. Standing fourth in the production of corn and oats, fourth, if not third, in the production of wheat; third in the production of sugar beets, with hundreds and hundreds of acres of land capable of raising as fine apples and grapes as are grown, with forage that yields fabulous returns, and while so doing rejuvenate the soil, do not tell me that Nebraska will permit its state university to decline in position or usefulness for lack of funds."

MOTHERS' HOME IS PLANNED

Broken Families May Be Kept Together by Legislative Act.

JUDGES IN FAVOR OF PLAN

Since State Must Ultimately Bear Expense of Caring for Children. It is Felt Best to Provide Homes at Start.

Enactment of a bill providing for pensions for dependent mothers will be asked by the Nebraska legislature when it convenes this winter. The bill has not yet been prepared and its detailed provisions are not known. Its object will be to provide support for women with children, whose husbands have died leaving them in destitute circumstances. Judges of the district court and attorneys and members of the Douglas county delegation to the state legislature said they had heard of the proposed law, but did not know who was pushing the movement for it. "It seems to me there should be something of the sort," said Judge Abraham L. Sutton. "I have heard considerable talk about the proposed enactment, but I don't know who is pushing the movement or whether any particular person is. There seems to be a good deal of sentiment in favor of it. The idea, as I understand it, is that the state can accomplish more good by pensioning dependent mothers who are left in poor circumstances than by suffering their children to be taken away from them because they cannot provide for them. "It seems to me that since the state ultimately must bear the expense of caring for children whose fathers have died without leaving sufficient provision for them, it would be better to care for them in their homes, keeping them in their homes, than to let them be broken up by destitution."

TRACK MEET TO CHICAGO

Big Nine Representatives Re-elect Smith Committee Chairman.

MICHIGAN PROBLEM POSTPONED

Question as to Readmission of Wolverines to Conference to Be Taken Up Before Final Adjournment.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Without even discussing the proposed return of the University of Michigan to the Western Intercollegiate conference, faculty representatives of the "Big Nine" adjourned tonight after a six-hour session to meet again tomorrow morning. It was said the Michigan problem would be taken up before final adjournment tomorrow. Chicago obtained the thirteenth annual outdoor track and field meet of the conference. It will be held under the auspices of the University of Chicago on June 7. The indoor track meet went to Northwestern university and will be held on the third Saturday in March. The cross-country run will be to Ohio State university, but the date will not be announced until later. Prof. A. G. Smith of Iowa was elected chairman of the conference to succeed Prof. C. J. Sunkowicz of the University of Indiana, who held the position temporarily after the death of Prof. Johnson of Indiana. Prof. T. E. Moran of Purdue university was re-elected secretary. "Resignation of Prof. C. A. Waldo of Washington university. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 30.—(Special)—A successor was appointed to the committee on the selection of foot ball officials made its annual report and the same members were re-elected. Prof. A. G. Smith of Iowa is chairman of the committee, which is composed of Prof. R. H. Wilson of Northwestern university and Prof. Moran of Purdue. "The committee on eligibility recommended to the conference that C. O. Molander of the University of Chicago, who was declared ineligible last year because he officiated at a basket ball contest and received compensation, be reinstated. The vote was unanimous and he was declared eligible for intercollegiate competition at once. "Prof. James A. Paige of Minnesota and Prof. J. E. A. Dye of the University of Wisconsin were appointed a committee to make recommendations for the purpose of curtailing transportation expenses of teams and bands to athletic contests. "While no overtures were made by representatives of the University of Michigan for its return to the conference, Prof. Moran said tonight that the question would more than likely be discussed at the session tomorrow. He said it was reported that two members of the Michigan alumni would present application for the return of the Wolverines to the conference. "Blow for Minnesota. "One of the most striking actions taken at the meeting was a blow for Minnesota. The conference voted 6 to 3 against a resolution introduced by Prof. James Paige in favor of allowing students to combine courses to pursue athletics after having received the first academic degree. The reaffirming of the old rule against the competition of graduate students was interpreted as a firm stand against any weakening of the present statutes. "Iowa was Minnesota's staunchest friend on this resolution, which was introduced by Prof. A. G. Smith of the University of Iowa at the meeting held in Chicago, Oct. 12. Prof. Paige affirmed that the rule was a hardship toward students who enter the professional schools after completing their undergraduate work. "Suffragette Throws One Shoe at Judge, Other at the Clerk. "ABERDEEN, Scotland, Nov. 30.—Millitant suffragettes today brought about two scenes of extreme violence in which a woman's shoes and a horsewhip were used as weapons. "The first outbreak occurred when three of the women, Joyce Locke, Fanny Parker and Mary Pollock, who had been caught last evening in possession of explosives in the music hall where Chancellor Lloyd-George was to speak, were brought up before the magistrates. "After hearing the evidence the magistrates remanded them for further inquiry. As he informed them of this Joyce Locke removed her shoes and hurled one of them at the magistrate's head and then threw the other at the head of the clerk of the court. She was promptly committed for contempt of court. "The second outrage was committed by one of the members of a party of suffragettes who were waiting at the railroad station for the departure of Chancellor Lloyd-George. The woman mistook Rev. Forbes Jackson for the speaker and lashed him across the face with a heavy horsewhip. She was at once arrested. "Boston Star. "Jimmy Callahan of the White Sox, says that Boston's new first baseman, Willie Van Meter, is the best young player that he will see in all the league and that he will remain a fixture at the first corner. Callahan was kept busy on second, Zeider on third and Weaver at short field.

Cook, county attorney of Dodge county, accompanied by ex-Sheriff Hauman, was at the state house this morning, bringing with him over forty-five affidavits from members of the jury, court officials and citizens of Fremont taken at the time of the murder trial two years ago of Louis Rogers and his companion, Mrs. Richter, accused of the murder of a child born to, and the latter, after in Fremont or Omaha. Rogers was convicted of the crime and sentenced to the penitentiary, but the woman was allowed to go free. "Since the trial County Attorney Cook has been working upon the case, being convinced that there was something wrong somewhere and that someone had been tampering with the suitcase introduced in evidence at the trial as the one in which it is claimed the babe had been brought from Omaha and then thrown in a freight car at Fremont, later being found in the car at a small station not far from that city. "Most of the affidavits being filed by Mr. Cook show that at the time of the trial no blood stains were in evidence in the suitcase. Among those making affidavits to this are eleven of the twelve jurors at the trial, the county judge of Dodge county, Attorney George L. Loomis, who appeared for Mrs. Richter and several bailiffs. Luke Mundy, clerk of the Dodge county district court makes affidavit that the suitcase was kept in his vault during the trial and that the vault was open to all attorneys who desired to enter. This statement is backed up by several attorneys who claim that the suitcase was easily accessible at any time. "A letter claimed by Mr. Cook to have been written by Rogers and passed to Mrs. Richter at some time during the trial is made a part of the affidavits. Mr. Cook in this it is set forth that the

Contract of Married Man With Affinity is Declared Illegal

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Any contract by which a married man agrees to support a married woman other than his wife is against public policy and is absolutely void, declared Municipal Judge Sabath today in dismissing the suit of Mrs. May Williams Charter against Chauncey C. Foster, former commission merchant. Mrs. Charter, now divorced from her husband, sought to enforce the provisions of an alleged contract under which Foster was to pay her $2,000 in monthly installments of $100. "Reviewing the testimony the court said: "In this case both parties were married when the contract was said to have been entered into, December 8, 1911. The court feels justified in saying that a fair and reasonable inference to be drawn from the making of the agreement, if there was any, is that the parties might maintain the illegal and illicit relations between them after the entry of the decree of divorce, that they seem to have agreed before the plea was started. The consideration for such a contract is so tainted with immorality that the court will not support it. "Foster denied making the alleged contract and characterized himself as a "love goat" who was being made to bear the burden of another's fault. "When Mrs. Charter was divorced all money amounting to $2,000, the exact sum specified in the alleged contract, was awarded her. "St. Joseph Grocer Badly Torn by Dogs. "ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 30.—W. K. Craft, a grocer, was attacked by five savage dogs when delivering an order yesterday and was bitten in forty places. He fought the dogs through a yard and into a house and one of the animals had snapped its teeth into his upper lip when help arrived. He fell exhausted. His bites were principally on his arms and legs. The wounds were cauterized. It is thought he will recover.

These stars will admit the wearer to any place of amusement, entertainment or riot where policemen are needed, or are pleased to go. "Danish Young People Hold a Convention. "Seventy members of the Danish Young People's union from Kansas and Nebraska are in convention in this city. The first session was held yesterday afternoon at the Danish Lutheran church, 835 South Twenty-second street, and was called to order by the president, N. P. Petersen of Cordova, Neb. Other officers of the association are Carl Schmidt of Peru, treasurer; Anton Jensen of Cozad, secretary. "Rev. N. F. Haie of Cozad delivered an address at the meeting yesterday afternoon. "WICK CONTEMPT CASE GOES OVER FOR A WEEK. "Upon motion of A. S. Ritchie, attorney for Alf Wick, who is being tried in police court by Judge Foster for contempt, the case was continued until next Saturday in order that the defense might bring in witnesses. The witnesses for the prosecution testified this morning. "Red" Mike Wallace and "Judge" Foster, deputy sheriff; Tom O'Connor, clerk of the court, and Fred Abinger, city prosecutor testified to Wick bringing the three "dummies" into court. "The defense did not introduce any evidence.
