INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 2-Frank d. Ryan, president of the Ironworkers' inion, testified at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today that his office way robbed" by detectives when J. J. Mc-Namara, the secretary, was arrested in deNamara had stored explorives at the tion headquarters, said he protested hen officials of the National Erectors' secoclation joined detectives in search ing the files. While he was endeavoring to furnish the combination of the safe he said, a cracksman proceeded to drill the lock. Meantime, McNamara was being interied to California.

During the search of the premises, Ryan said, he sent for his attorney and compelled the authorities to produce search warrants. Eighty-two quarts of nitroulycerin later were found in a vault. Ryan also denied, as had been charged, that as early as 1906, W. T. Jerome, then district attorney in New York, had "given warning that explosions were being done by the Ironworkers. Cross examined Ryan was asked what e meant in writing from New York in April, 1999, to union headquarters, "I will not have a report this month. Nearly all
