Extraordinary Clearance Sale of Exclusive High Class Garments

Former Prices $45 to $89.50, Choice, During Clearing Sale $25

Our undisputed supremacy in the display and sale of high class garments is maintained only by careful foresight and by expert supervision of our stocks.

The modern methods of merchandising adopted by us require that no garments remain in stock beyond a very limited period of time.

This sale is announced in order that this result may be achieved. We have selected from our regular stock THREE HUNDRED SEVENTY GARMENTS, ALL HIGH CLASS, including street and evening Gowns, Dancing Frocks, tailored Dresses of cloth and velvet walking Costumes, plain tailored and fancy Suits and Coats for street or evening wear.

Ordinary methods of sale would result in a slight reduction being made in each individual price. Our modern methods require that we offer all of these high class garments regardless of former prices, at one price, TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS.

Though many of these reductions may appear impossible, Orkin Brothers wish to emphasize that in no one case has the value been exaggerated to the least extent. Some of these garments are displayed in our windows and inspection of them in our Cloak and Suit department will convince any prospective purchaser.

Gray was down town at the time and when his wife left the house some one entered the house and stole the suit. When it was located at the pawn shop and identified Mr. Kesselman refused to give it up until the writ of replevin was secured.

Omaha Uni Alumni Staff is Elected

The election of members of the staff for the annual, which the students at the University of Omaha will publish this year, resulted in the following being chosen: Editor-in-Chief, Stanton Salisbury; assistant editor-in-chief, Oldham Paisley; business manager, George Percival; assistant business manager, Marilla Case. This will be the first annual ever published by the students at the local institution and so instead of embracing the history of only the present year, it will include the four years that the school has been in existence. The other members of the staff will be appointed sometime this week.

CALABRIA SAYS COURT HOUSE MUST BE KEPT CLEAN

Joseph M. Calabria, superintendent of the county building, is about to become an inventor, not because he wants to be one, but because he has to. Mr. Calabria must invent a device to enable his janitors to clean the inner ledges of the ornate railings of the second and third floors of the building.

One would think the janitors could reach down with a brush and take off the dirt. That is true, but dusting it out Calabria's idea of cleaning. He says dusting will do from day to day, but the ledges must be washed every so often if they are to be really clean.

The use of safety belts attached to the railings is not safe, for the railings are secured with plaster of paris and a severe jerk might loosen them. The other day a janitor got out on a ledge to clean it with one hand, hanging on to the railing with the other. Calabria wouldn't stand for this. He didn't want anyone to risk breaking his neck. But he is going to devise some scheme to make it possible to clean those ledges in safety.

NEWLYWEDS IDENTIFY SOME STOLEN PROPERTY

William Wright, charged with looting a Northwestern railroad car and disposing of the stolen goods to Loucaso Palmu, a second hand dealer, as an innocent purchaser, is on trial in district court.

One of the witnesses against Wright was J. A. Leary, assistant to the general freight agent of the Northwestern. Leary recently married in Philadelphia and he and his bride came to Omaha to live. The household goods he identified some of his stolen linen.

Among the $5,000 contributions were Edwin Gould, Assistant Secretary of State; Huntington Wilson, George Eustus of Washington, D. C.; Arthur C. James, A.

How to Look Years Less Than Your Age

(From The Dermatologist.)

The most aged face will look years younger after the use of ordinary mercerized wax for from ten days to two weeks. This remarkable substance, because of its peculiar absorbent power, actually removes the thin veil of faded or withered outer cuticle, leaving a fine, smooth, fresh, more youthful skin underneath is revealed. This absorption process being a purely hygienic one, an entire natural complexion is acquired—quite different from the artificial, which makes the skin appear thin but girlish, though often bearing painful evidence of childhood. An ounce of mercerized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to rejuvenate any complexion. It is put on like cold cream at bedtime, and removed mornings with warm, sudsy water.

To eradicate such age marks as wrinkles and furrows, make a wash in solution by dissolving an ounce of powdered salicylic in a half pint witch hazel. This has wonderful astringent and tonic properties. It quickly effaces all kinds of wrinkles, no matter how caused, making the skin firm, smooth and young-looking.

Nebraska Woodmen Begin Their Suit to Enjoin Officers

HASTINGS, Neb., Dec. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—In the district court tonight Judges Travis of Falls City and Perry of Cambridge, presiding in place of Judge Dungan of this district, granted a temporary restraining order, prohibiting the new officials of the Modern Woodmen of America from enforcing the increased insurance rates ordered by the head camp to begin January 1 next.

The hearing on the question whether the temporary order shall be made permanent was fixed for March 15, 1914.

"This decision gives us practically everything we wanted," said M. J. Corey, chairman of the insurgents' committee.

"The order means if the Illinois injunction is sustained by the appellate court of that state we will not have to try the Nebraska case, whereas if the injunction in that state is dissolved then we shall go ahead with the trial of the pending Nebraska case on the date set. The Illinois injunction protects the entire membership as the Modern Woodmen of America is an Illinois corporation."

Attorneys Miller of Chicago and N. C. Pratt of Omaha failed in their preliminary effort to get the case continued. The argument on the application for the injunction was made by these attorneys for the head officers and by Carey of Clay Court, Karl Baghtol of Hastings, F. A. Anderson of Holdrege, C. W. Lyon of Des Moines for the insurgents. The restraining order ties up the new rates for the entire state until the date fixed for hearing.

Millionaires Come to Aid of Sickles

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—A portion of that wealthy coterie of men forming the third panel of the special jury tonight voted $1,000 to be "expended judicially" at the sale Wednesday by the sheriff of the personal effects of General Daniel E. Sickles. Vincent Astor, Cornelius Vanderbilt, George Ehrst and several others of the millionaire jurors were not present. The committee appointed to handle the money will canvass the first and second panels of jurors and hopes each will subscribe a similar sum and that with the $500 and individual contributions from the millionaires who were absent today a fund sufficient to wipe out the judgment of $5,000 against the aged general can be secured and the sale stopped.

AD MEN HEAR LECTURE ON BEST ADVERTISING

The first illustrated lecture in the Omaha Ad club's course on advertising was given yesterday at the Paxton hotel by Charles A. Aiden. The subject dealt with "The Advertising Man" and was written by a member of the educational committee of the Advertising Clubs of America.

Truth in advertising and the psychology of advertising appeal were the dominant qualities of the discourse. The lecture was illustrated by photographs of prominent advertising managers and writers of the United States and pictures of factories and industries which have been built up by successful advertising.

WILL OF J. J. DERIGHT IS FILED FOR PROBATE

The will of the late J. J. Deright, bequeathing his entire estate to his wife, Mrs. Orpha Smith Deright, was filed for probate in county court yesterday.

The petition for probate estimates the real estate at $12,000 and the personal estate at $10,500. Application for appointment of Mrs. Deright as special administratrix was filed. She was appointed and allowed $150 a month pending final disposition of the estate.

In the will Mrs. Deright is named as executrix, but under the probate laws her appointment cannot be confirmed for several weeks, hence her appointment as special administratrix.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.

A prominent New York physician says: "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia, but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

DISORDERED NERVES

sometimes start from mental strain or indigestion, but more often from general weakness, and lead to appalling conditions unless checked.

Treat the cause, not the effect.

SCOTT'S EMULSION overcomes nervousness in a wonderful, permanent way by making life-sustaining blood corpuscles; it nourishes the nerve centres and acts as a bracing tonic to build you up.

Scott's Emulsion does not stupefy—it feeds them in Nature's way.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Bloomfield, N. J.

No change was made in Somerset, which remained at $1.10 and England at 66 cents. MARTFORD CITY, Ind., Dec. 3.—The price of Indiana oil was increased 3 cents, according to an announcement made by the Indiana Pipe Line company today. This makes Indiana and South Lima $1.11 a barrel and North Lima $1.10. The advance is attributed to the increased use of gasoline.

Women Jurors Pray Before Deliberations

ELDORADO, Kan., Dec. 2.—Deliberations by the first jury composed entirely of women that has tried a case in Kansas were begun with prayer. Mrs. Harris E. Riley, forewoman of that jury, which sat in a land damage suit here Friday described today the feelings of the twelve women and their efforts to reach a verdict.
