A pure, healthful, Cream of Tartar Baking Powder

When buying an article of food you are entitled to know exactly what you are buying—its quality and ingredients.

If this information is refused don't buy it. Some of the low grade baking powders are advertised, but the ingredients of the powders are scrupulously concealed.

A housekeeper would not use a baking powder containing alum if she knew it.

It is well when buying to examine the label on the can. Unless it shows the ingredient cream of tartar, don't buy it. Dr. Price's baking powder is absolutely free from alum.

CONTESTS DROPPED BY DEMOS

Their Attorney Offers Compromise, but Republicans Reject It.

PANCOAST IS NOT SATISFIED

He Will Confer with Friends as to Advisability of Continuing His Fight Against His Successful Opponent.

Contest against the Douglas county republican legislative delegation was dropped yesterday by the attorney for the democrats, Arthur Mullen, when the attorneys for both sides appeared before Notary Public Ida M. Walters in the State Bank building. A. W. Jeffers and Byron G. Burbank, attorneys for the republican delegation, went into conference with Mr. Mullen and when they reappeared Mullen announced that the case would be dropped. At first Mullen tried to gain a point by offering a compromise. He suggested that he would drop the case if the republicans would drop the case Arthur C. Panoast, the only defeated republican, was bringing against J. H. Grossman, the only successful democrat. Burbank, the only successful democrat, Burbank and Jeffers at once told him this was out of their jurisdiction, as they were not the attorneys for Panoast and that this was a separate and distinct case. Mullen then dropped his case without further attempt to compromise. Witnesses were not even brought into the room, which is taken as evidence that there was no intention of going ahead with the case under any circumstances. Mr. Mullen said after he left the room, "Some of the democratic delegation wanted to go ahead with it and a good many of them did not, so I just dropped the whole thing."

Panoast is Undecided.

Arthur C. Panoast when informed that the case had been dropped and when asked what he would now do with his contest against J. H. Grossman, his successful democratic opponent for the senate, said, "I don't anticipate much change in my attitude in this matter. They have brought this thing upon themselves by starting a contest against the seating of the successful republicans, and we started this contest against the successful democrat in retaliation. I see no particular reason why I should drop this case just because they have not found enough grounds on which to bring their case. However, I will not decide definitely on the matter until I advise with some of my friends and members of the delegation."

Most of the republican delegation, both senators and representatives, were present at the hour set for the hearing. George Holmes, defeated democratic candidate for member of the house, was the only one of the democratic delegation that even appeared at the hour set. Jerry Howard, another defeated candidate for the house, dropped in casually just after the case had been dismissed.

M'GOVERN BLOCKS EFFORT TO CONNECT WITH SEWER

City Commissioner McGovern of the department of public improvements has denied the Water board a permit to connect a six-inch blow-off pipe with the sewer at Twenty-eighth avenue and Sprague street, a permission which was granted by the city commission at a meeting which was not attended by McGovern. In the letter to the water commissioner refusing the permit McGovern maintains that the sewer would probably be destroyed if such a connection was made. The Water board will take the case up with the city commission again and if McGovern's action is ratified it will be necessary to construct at heavy expense a drainageway instead of making connection with the sewer.

LITTLE GIRL DISAPPEARS WITHOUT HAT OR COAT

The police have been asked to locate Hazel Goldsberry, 14-year-old niece of Earl Mason, 628 South Twenty-first street. The little girl, whose parents are dead, and who has been living with her uncle, left the house at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning without a hat or coat and she has not returned.

YOUNGSTER IS SHOT INTO AIR

Son of Charles Torrell Has Exciting Experience in Runaway.

Dodge street, from Twentieth to Seventeenth, was yesterday the scene of a thrilling runaway, one which culminated in an accident that fell short of being fatal only by a seeming miracle. A horse and wagon, belonging to Charles Torrell, 2538 Capitol avenue, an expressman, had been left at the curb just above Twentieth, shortly before noon, while the man had gone to fetch some baggage in a house nearby. In the wagon was his 14-year-old son, who had been making the rounds with his father.

The horse, becoming frightened at a piece of wrapping paper which was blown toward him, started down the steep Dodge street hill at top speed. As luck would have it, however, the horse kept to the center of the street, and the boy, who had by this time been shaken to the step of the seat, was maintaining his position with great difficulty. As the wagon passed Seventeenth street, the horse swerved suddenly toward the curb, causing the wagon to strike against a large truck belonging to the American Express company, which was backed to the curb at Hayden's.

With a splintering of wood, the boy was hurled like a shot from his position to the center of the car tracks, lighting on his side. He had no sooner hit the pavement, however, before he was on his feet running for the curbstone, where he was stopped by an onlooker. Aside of a few scratches on his hands and a rapidly swelling bump on his forehead, the lad was seemingly little hurt.

A woman driving by in a limousine picked up the boy and drove him to the station, where his bumps and scratches were dressed.

The evening session was held at the Royal hotel and a number of the local dentists gathered around the festal board. Dr. F. F. Whitcomb, having spent a very successful year as president, was succeeded by Dr. M. H. Dunham. Dr. J. C. Soukup was elected vice president. Dr. R. W. Reed was re-elected as secretary and treasurer.

Smallpox Breaks Out in the Dunsany Flats; Quarantined

Two cases of smallpox were discovered by Health Commissioner Connell in the Dunsany apartments, Tenth and Pacific streets, yesterday and the entire row of flats were at once quarantined until the residents could be vaccinated. Thirty-five persons were vaccinated while policemen patrolled the exits to prevent anyone from leaving the apartments. Jordan Combs, a negro, was sent to the best house with an advanced case of smallpox. He is the engineer at these flats. Mrs. J. Eads, white, also has the disease. Being in her own apartment she will be left at the Dunsany.

It is believed that a colored man who visited Combs a few days ago and is now enroute to Los Angeles, left the contagion. Health authorities at Los Angeles will be notified to watch for and apprehend him until it is known whether he is suffering from smallpox or not.

Des Connell and Langdon vaccinated the thirty-five residents of the flats yesterday and the entire building was thoroughly fumigated. The health authorities will make a united and thorough effort to keep the disease confined to those who already have become infected.

POLICEWOMEN HELP IN THE LOS ANGELES JUVENILE WORK

Mrs. Ola Taylor, policewoman from Los Angeles, Cal., was a visitor in Omaha yesterday. She is returning to California after burying her mother at Knoxville, Ia., last week. While in Omaha she visited with Police Chief Dunn, Commissioner Ryder and Policewoman Drummy. Mrs. Taylor says there are four policewomen in Los Angeles, all of whom are connected with the juvenile department. Mrs. Taylor works from the office of Police Chief Sebastian. It is her duty to take charge of all the women who are arrested, search them and to take charge of all girls. She says the policewomen are not sent on the streets to make arrests, although they are provided with stars, keys to the patrol boxes and police whistles. She is of the opinion that women can do more good by working with the juveniles than men. In speaking of women voting, as all do in California, she said she is not a suffragette and is not in favor of women voting unless they own property or conduct business enterprises.
