Redick is Interested in the Omaha Uni

O. C. Redick says that although he may have a desire for foreclosure, and feels perfectly secure in his position regardless of any further action on the part of the University of Omaha, yet he says that he is interested in the success of the institution. He also says that if negotiations are undertaken that a certain few men connected with the institution, by reason of the fact that he does not feel that he has been honorably and conscientiously dealt with, will be absolutely barred from such negotiations. Mr. Redick indicates that there was no alternative and he was forced to obtain a decree in order that his notes and mortgages could be declared free from defense of any character. Mr. Redick says that the University of Omaha is a meritorious institution and should not be allowed to be handicapped by any further unfortunate steps with reference to its integrity and credit. Mr. Redick declines to go into detailed discussion of the differences that have arisen and simply says that the court's decree is a sufficient vindication.

Another Butcher Baffles Robbers

Highwaymen working in Omaha are finding butchers and meat cutters very unprofitable, as well as dangerous victims. Last night two men entered the Cyril Hromek meat market at 1461 South Sixteenth street and commanded Hromek to hold up his hands. Hromek refused to be frightened by the pistols of the robbers and seized a heavy meat cleaver, hurled it at one of the men and then fell prostrate upon the floor. The cleaver narrowly missed one of the men and it smashed a large window. The robbers each fired several shots at the plucky butcher and then fled without disturbing the cash register.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

Members of Camp Lee Forby of the United Spanish War veterans held a meeting last night in their rooms in the Paxton block and elected officers. At the first meeting of the camp next January the officers elected will be installed. A large crowd attended the lecture, which was the second given before the Young Men's Christian association's electrical engineering class. Prof. Hollister will give several other lectures this winter.

MAJORS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Mayor and City Clerk Begin Work of Christmas Collecting.

GIFTS FOR POOR FOR CITY

Newsboys Who Are Good Will Be Given Dinner and Their Rewards Will Be Secured from Now Until Christmas.

Mayor Tom Hoctor and City Clerk Perry Wheeler at a conference yesterday afternoon began preparations for collecting and dispensing clothes and satables among the poor of South Omaha at Christmas time. The plan of the two officials contemplates an organization of all the clergymen and charitable organizations of the city. A meeting will be held in a few days for the purpose of completing the plan. Mayor Hoctor and Clerk Wheeler yesterday afternoon drafted a letter to be sent to the clergymen and club women of the city who are expected to assist in the work. Both the mayor and the clerk are intensely interested in gathering a quantity of good things together for the poor of the city, who will be recommended by the different clergymen.

Inquiries over the telephone to both officials indicate that the merchants of the city expect to contribute to the work in one way or another. Those who cannot give clothing or foodstuffs will be asked to contribute money. The officials say that they want the clergymen and club women of the city to supervise the distribution of the stuff collected. Former Mayor Trainor inaugurated the practice a year ago. The city employees were compelled to distribute the provisions to many who were scarcely worthy. It is the hope that the clergymen will know best whom to recommend for the largesse of the kindly hearted citizens.

Newsboys to Get Dinner

There is an anticipatory smacking of lips and a most suspicious good behavior among the news merchants of South Omaha following the announcement of Probation Officer Paul McAulay that a dinner will be served to the model newsboys some time between Christmas and New Year's. Chief of Police John Briggs and Probation Officer McAulay have the matter in charge and will make arrangements for the special. Thirty-five news merchants will be included in the list of guests, provided no black marks are entered against their names in the meantime. "The chief and I have the matter in charge," said McAulay yesterday. "We intend the dinner for all the news merchants of South Omaha. They number some thirty-five. This does not include carriers for the dailies. No boy whose name is barred by a black mark for misconduct in the meantime will be invited. The place of the dinner and the date have not yet been definitely determined on."

Corn Growing Contest

At the Union Stock Yards the returns from the corn growing contest a year ago continue to come in. The specimens are being stored in the rotunda of the Exchange building where they will be kept until the prizes are awarded in January.

The exhibits and specimens show great success and undoubted rivalry among the boys who contended for the $200 of prize money awarded by the Union Stock Yards company to the victors in the different classes. Elton Stone of Lyons, Neb., has the record to date with a yield of 100 bushels to the acre. George J. Roggenbach is second with a yield of eighty-nine bushels. Harry Egger of Hooper, Neb., reports eighty-nine bushels. Alfred Miller, Surprise, Neb., seventy-seven bushels. George Hartman, Paxton, Neb., sixty-six bushels; Ernest Hudnal, Chapman, Neb., sixty-two bushels; William Rogers, Loup City, Neb., fifty-six bushels. Rogers' yield is with less than five inches of rain.

Lack of Feeder Stock

According to Frank M. Stewart, secretary-treasurer of the Western South Dakota Stock Growers' association, holds out a big promise to the stock growers of Nebraska and the west generally. He said yesterday to a number of stockmen at the yards that with South Dakota full of feed, the great question was to get feeder stock. For more than two years the South Dakota small stock growers have had a difficult time because of drought and feed shortage. In consequence they were compelled to sell off all their marketable cattle. Now with the country full of feed and the markets calling for good priced stuff the farmers are without feeders in the lots or on the range. Along the same lines is the story of William Schultz, a veteran shipper from Dodge county, who reports few cattle on feed in his section. As in South Dakota, Dodge county has a plentiful supply of feed, hay selling at $9 per ton and a fourth cutting of alfalfa at $11. It cost a whole barn and a fine hog yesterday when Mrs. George Wisniewsky of Twenty-ninth and R streets, undertook to do a little smoking on her own account. The Wisniewskys had raised a splendid specimen of the porcine tribe with intent to satiate their gustatory desires at a Christmas dinner. All through the summer the royal hog was feasted and prepared for the slaughter. Yesterday the fattened "piece of resistance" of the Christmas menu was killed. Mrs. Wisniewsky built a great fire in an out house and there heated the water to clean the hog. Later the fire was rebuilt with green wood to smother the kill. Late in the afternoon the smoke became fire and when the firemen reached the place it was in flames. The barn was destroyed and the hog burned to a crisp. The loss was fixed at $50, including the hog. There was no insurance. Sanitary Inspector Ed Bursan and his assistant, Henry Schmeling, are keeping a close lookout for any signs of smallpox, which has made its appearance in Omaha. "Cap" Bursan has issued orders for a cleanup in certain sections of the city. He will begin an inspection of the rooming houses in the downtown districts this week. It is said that the rooming houses are being crowded to a degree contrary to the city ordinances covering that point.

No COME-BACK When S.S.S. Cures

There is no "come back" when S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison because this great blood remedy so thoroughly cleanses the circulation that not a particle of the old virus is left. After the blood has been purified by S. S. S., this vital fluid is as free from infection as it was before the disease was contracted. One reason why S. S. S. is so successful in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison is that this medicine strengthens and builds up the stomach and digestive members while it is purifying the blood. Thus all the systemic strength is left to assist in the elimination of the virus. S. S. S. is the one certain cure for this powerful blood disorder. This claim is not based upon the treatment of a few cases here and there, but its success extends over a period of more than forty years. During this time thousands upon thousands have found a cure by the use of this great remedy and all were willing to testify that there was no "come-back" after S. S. S. had driven the virus out. S. S. S. does not contain a particle of harmful mineral; it can be used with perfect safety by any one. Home Treatment Book and any medical advice free to all. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
