CRITICIZES THE IDAHO COURT

Suggests that Party Defend Editors Cited for Printing His Telegram and Pay Fine if They Are Convicted of Contempt.

In our platform, we stand for the purging of the roll of American public life by driving out of politics the big bosses who thwart the popular will, who rely on corruption as a political instrument, and who serve the cause of privilege. But the function of the new party is not limited to securing the enactment of the measures advocated in the new platform.

Our function is to bring about the needed realignment of political parties along national and national lines. Substantially the old parties are not what they were. There is no natural definite difference between them.

The immediate work for our party is to establish the principles of our platform by appropriate legislation in the nation and in the several states.

Consumer Victim Wanted by Duke

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—"The Consumer is the man I am after," these words were attributed to James B. Duke, the tobacco magnate, by Albert H. Hillman, a tobacco lobbyist, who was a witness today in the $500,000 damage suit brought by John E. Locker of Brooklyn against the American Tobacco company, which is being tried in the United States district court.

Hillman described a discussion regarding tobacco prices which he had had with Duke about the time of the organization of the Metropolitan Tobacco company, the local selling agent of the American. He said he protested that jobbers could not stand an advance in prices and Duke replied: "Raise your price to the retailer. Let the retailer raise his price to the consumer. The consumer is the man I am after. If the retailer won't raise prices we will establish stores of our own."

MRS. RUSTIN WINS HER SUIT

Kentucky Court of Appeals Upholds Verdict of Jury. ACCIDENT COMPANIES MUST PAY

Judges Hold that Where There is Conflict of Testimony Jury Passes on Credibility of the Witnesses.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 10.—A legal verdict that Dr. Frederick Rustin of Omaha was murdered by some person unidentified and did not commit suicide was rendered today in the Kentucky court of appeals when it held that accident insurance companies in which Rustin held policies must pay.

The insurance, with interest, now amounts to about $2,000. Dr. Rustin was found dying on the porch of his home in Omaha the night of September 2, 1908. Contest over the insurance centered around an alleged suicide pact between Dr. Rustin and an Omaha woman. The suit was tried in Louisville upon agreement of counsel. A jury decided Dr. Rustin did not commit suicide and brought a verdict in favor of Dr. Rustin's widow.

The court of appeals today said testimony was conflicting as to whether Dr. Rustin committed suicide and that the finding of the jury, "the judge of the credibility of witnesses," will not be disturbed.

Mahoney & Kennedy received a telegram from Frankfort, Ky., yesterday afternoon, advising them that the supreme court of that state had affirmed the decision of the lower court in the six cases involving accident insurance carried by the late Dr. Frederick Rustin, aggregating $45,000, which goes to the widow.

These cases were against the Etna, Employers' Liability of London which had already paid up, however, Travelers Insurance company, Casualty Company of America, Fidelity and Casualty company, five companies, but six cases.

This completes Mrs. Rustin's victorious series of actions to recover the life and accident insurance left by her husband, not a dollar of which she has failed to get. This outcome, especially as to the accident policies, is regarded in insurance circles as most remarkable in view of the character of the insured's death.
